EASTERN.

Beecher-Tilton — Bowen Interviewed.

NEW YORK, 7.—The Brooklyn Eagle publishes an interview with Henry C. Bowen who is represented as saying of the Beecher-Tilton case—

"This entire business has caused me much pain. I have had no hand in it and do not wish to have. The public will yet learn that the attacks on me were brutal and unjustifiable. I only keep quiet under them in deference to my family. Although my name has been mixed up in the scandal, I have not made any charges against anybody yet, and therefore I have not been invited by the committee to appear. Subpoened into court, I will have to appear."

Bowen alluded to the agitation shown by Mrs. Hooker in Plymouth church, caused by her belief in Beecher's immorality, and but for the fact that she was restrained she would have announced it to the congregation.

Being asked if he, Beecher, ever did him injury, he said—

"I could construe his course unkindly. I consider it among my duties, nevertheless, to retain my position and pew in the church, because I intend to be there after him, as I was there before him."

As to Tilton, Bowen said he did not care which way it went with him. "The end must necessarily justify me before the public and I will never go down to my grave without saying something concerning my relations with this scandal. Moulton," continued "Bowen, is placed in an awkward position, but I believe he will tell the truth. The statement Woodhull offered the committee, should have been received. Were I a member of the committee I would accept testimony from every source."

Tilton's Parents Interviewed—Moulton's Statement next Monday.

The Tribune to-morrow publishes an interview with the parents of Theodore Tilton. They refuse to believe Mrs. Tilton guilty until she confesses to them, express undiminished faith in their son, and indignantly deny the story of hereditary insanity in the family.

To-day Mr. Moulton was busily engaged in the preparation of his statement to be submitted to the investigating committee. Several members of the committee having intimated their intention to leave the city to-morrow afternoon for the country, requested their chairman, Mr. Sage, to make arrangements with Mr. Moulton to postpone the statement till Monday. Accordingly Mr. Sage wrote Mr. Moulton, laying the above facts before him, and suggesting that he present his statement on Monday afternoon, which proposition was acquiesced in by Mr. Moulton. He will appear before the committee at three o'clock on Monday p.m.

In the evening the committee of investigation met in consultation, lasting about two hours, and at its conclusion they visited the residence of Beecher, where they remained closeted until a late hour. There will be no session of the committee to-morrow evening.

Catherine E. Beecher Appeals.

The Tribune to-morrow publishes the following—

"Sir—Until recently I had supposed that the secular and especially the religious press would maintain the sacred rule of justice that an established character is full evidence against unproved attacks. I had supposed the charge against such a character would be treated as slander until fully proved. I am the elder sister of seven ministers of Christ, of whom I can say that from their early childhood I never knew an impure word or act from them, and therefore when one who, from early youth, has proved a model lover and husband, was accused by a hapless woman tortured into self accusation in temporary insanity, I supposed his established character was his sure protection and felt it an insult to him, his family and his church, that 'investigation' was demanded to prove his innocence. It has been with a sense of danger to every delicate and pure woman that it is so often claimed in this case, that there must be a suspended judgment. I regard this treatment of my brother as a declared war on womanhood. It is practically saying, Let any vile woman and viler man accuse any innocent woman of the most disgusting crime, and she shall be suspended before the public as guilty till she proves her innocence. In the public papers already pure and distinguished ladies are being assailed as my brother has been, and I ask every honorable man who has a wife or sister to come to the rescue, by maintaining that all persons shall be treated as slanderers, who circulate unprovoked attacks on established character. This is not written in aid of my brother, who is sure to be still more beloved and respected than ever. It is an appeal for the protection of my sex.

"CATHERINE E. BEECHER."

Forged County Warrants.

The Sun's Vicksburg special says Cordozo, State superintendent of education, and late circuit clerk of that county, and Dorsey, his successor, have forged a number of warrants of the county. Dorsey has been arrested, Cordozo has gone north. Both are colored.
