NEWS OF THE WEST.

Run Over and Killed His Eighteen Months' Child.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT AT HUNTING.

Died from Exposure—Baby Falls from a Window—Matricide in Death—Crushed by a Rock.

Henry Eisenberger, a German, fell down a wire at Sacramento, Cal., Tuesday morning and broke his neck, causing immediate death.

Eva G. Hissemeier, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hissemeier of Tacoma, Cal., was found dead in bed by her parents at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. She was privately collected by her mother.

Tuesday evening at a point near Solano, Cal., the mutilated remains of the body of a man lying upon the railroad track. It is supposed that he died from exposure. From papers found on his person it was learned that he was a native of France, and that his name was John Legoy.

William Williams died at Napa, Cal., Tuesday, as a result of the injuries received in a collision. Williams was driving down Main street and our another rig containing John Dodd and Charles Moore. The horses scared, throwing Williams out, and, piercing him internally, killed him instantly.

Anthony Quill is suing the Southern Pacific company to recover $50,000 damages for the death of the plaintiff's thirteen-year-old daughter, Mary. The girl was run over and killed by a train at Dwight station, Berkeley, Cal., on February 6 last. Complaint is made that the train started while she was in the act of alighting.

How Toy, a Chinese woman, was shot and killed at San Jose, Cal., Tuesday night. An unknown Chinaman fired three ounces into her body and death was almost instantaneous. The cause of the shooting is not known. Wang Wing, the husband of the woman, is in Marysville, it supposed to be. The women was in bed when shot, the man doing the deed firing from the door.

Harry Moody, nineteen years old, was killed Tuesday afternoon while working at the Monarch mine, near Cal. Moody and a companion, John Henry, were engaged in sinking the hidden of some rock, and stood on a large boulder to pry out another rock. The boulder started to roll with them, and both were run over. Moody was instantly killed, but Henry will recover from his injuries.

An accident occurred at Newport ranch, Cal., Tuesday night, which resulted in the death of Newport's daughter, a child about a year and a half old. Mr. Newport was driving in the field with a buckboard, his children being in a box in the bottom of the rig. In crossing a ditch the box capsized and the children were thrown out. A wheel passed over the neck of the younger one, and she died in about two hours.

Augustus Jensen, a rancher living near Tie Junus, Cal., visited that town on Sunday after a hunting excursion. As he was drawing a loaded shotgun from a wagon the weapon exploded, discharging the contents into the lower, the shot tearing downward and penetrating the liver. It caused his death within four hours. Jensen was born and lived a bachelor in Central county, Tennessee, was 65 years of age and leaves a family.

Ira B. Caldwell, one of the proprietors of the Sun Mills, Cal., died while bathing at Harbor View Tuesday afternoon. It was supposed that heart disease was the cause. A wife of Caldwell had been drowned in the sea for some time. He was seventy-five. He was a soldier in the Civil war and served in Company E, 1st Illinois cavalry, under Gen. Sherman. The alarm was given by Fred H. Cadwell, who, on hearing a hub noise, rushed in and brought in the body.

Hattie Speight, the seventeen-year-old daughter of E. Speight, died under a Southern Pacific train at Oakland, Cal.,