A little girl, the Chicago Tribune says, unconsciously and touchingly testified to the excessive drudgery of her mother's life when, on being asked, "Is your mother's hair gray?" she replied: "I don't know; she's too tall for me to see the top of her head, and she never aits down."

The Harrisburg Patriot says "Only a few months ago Judge Black said to one of his friends, "When I am gone I want you to be able to say of me as was said of Bampel when he left the Judgeship, the record of which runs thus Whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauled? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received history, so far, has proven the truth any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.
