SUNDAY SERVICES.

Large Audiences Addressed By Elder C. W. Penrose and President George Q. Cannon.

Fully twelve thousand people assembled in the Tabernacle on Sunday evening, on the occasion of the regular Sunday service held at the time mentioned. Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Salt Lake Stake, presided.

The choir sang the anthem,

From after premises Lord

Prayer was offered by Elder Charles A. Hickenlooper.

The choir sang the hymn:

O my Father Thou that dwellest
In the high and glorious place

Elder Charles W. Penrose was the first speaker. He commenced by expressing the sentiment that the Latter-day Saints were always pleased to meet with their friends from whatever part of the world they might come, or belonging to what, ever religious denomination. It was the desire of the Saints to encourage all people who were trying to uplift humanity. The Mormons did claim to being endowed with that authority and apostleship which was on the earth in ancient times. This authority, they claimed, had been restored to the earth in the nineteenth century—a period of time in which the Saints believed it just as positive to receive revelation as in the beginning of the Christian era. They derided the idea that revelation from on high had ceased, for they verily knew that such was not the case. The Christian world so interpreted the latter part of the book of Revelations as to attempt to produce a justification for their belief. But the book in question did not say that revelation was to cease from that time on, but rather to the contrary. He could see that no man was to add that which was there written; not that God had ceased to reveal himself to mankind, for throughout that same chapter John the Revelator was instructed directly to the contrary. John said that he saw another angel flying through the midst of heaven bearing the everlasting Gospel, which was to be preached to every nation, kindred, tongue and people. This was sufficient to indicate that the Gospel was to be taken from the earth, and was to be restored in latter days. Further on it showed that the people would have to come out of Babylon, clearly indicating that they would become contused regarding religious matters and would fall into apostacy, wickedness and disobedience, thus making imperative the withdrawal of the Gospel from the earth, and its restoration before the end should come.

There was but one Gospel, said the speaker, and but one way to gain a full degree of salvation. That way was clearly pointed out in the Holy Scriptures and could only be adhered to by those who had received proper authority from on high, such as the Saints claimed to have through direct revelation. The late Church had to have the same powers that were manifest in the church of early days. There had to be prophets and apostles, pastors, teachers, evangelists, etc., all of whom were required to perform their respective functions only through proper authority. Peter, in teaching the people what to do to be saved, said: "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Those people hearkened unto the words of the apostle and over three thousand went down into the waters of baptism and were immersed for the remission of their sins. Such was the proper mode of baptism and the mode which John the Baptist adhered to in the baptism of Jesus Christ for the fulfilment of all righteousness.

Elder Penrose continued in the strain for some time and was listened to with marked attention. The Mormon people, said he, admired all who were endeavoring to do right and to christianize the human family. Such people would receive their reward for good deeds, but greater would be that reward if they worshipped the Father according to the pattern laid down by Jesus Christ our Savior. The Gospel embraced all truth, and if followed up, would rebound in blessings upon the heads of its devotees. The power of healing was with the Latter-day Saints, as well as all kindred blessings which followed Christ in His ministry and were meted out to God's children as they exercised faith in Christ and His divine mission. The speaker's prayer was that the Holy Spirit would rest upon all assembled, that they might be led to see and obey the Gospel and thus lay themselves liable to the blessings promised to the faithful.

The choir, assisted by Sister L. Celia Thomas Edwards, sang the anthem:

When Thou comest to Thy judgment.

President George Q. Cannon addressed the audience. He referred to the remarks of the previous speaker and his assertions made by him in respect to the Gospel and proper obedience thereto. He suggested investigation as to whether the doctrine enunciated by Elder Penrose was true or not and incidentally referred to the peculiarities, so-called, of the Latter-day Saints. The Saints, he said, claimed to have authority from on high and were ready and willing to substantiate this claim.

President Cannon pointed out a few of the distinctive features of the religion of the promulgation of the Gospel as restored to the earth in the latter days. People had been gathered from all the nations of the earth and had dwelt in the valleys of the mountains in peace and unity. Those same people had been persecuted and driven from place to place because of their religious belief, but rather than give up that which they knew to be true, they suffered the buildings of Satan, as it were, and remained firm and faithful. No opposition was made to those yielding obedience to the Gospel, that they should receive the gift of the Holy Ghost, and the gift had invariably told upon those who had sincerely gone down into the waters of baptism for the remission of their sins.

In conclusion the speaker touched upon the teachings of the Latter-day Saints and the results expected, and invoked God's blessings upon all the honest in heart everywhere upon the earth.

The choir sang the anthem:

Hallelujah.

Benediction was pronounced by Elder B. H. Roberts; after which Prof. Dayton and the choir rendered several selections for the benefit of the visitors, concluding with the singing of America, in which the entire congregation joined.

A CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETING.

The Rally at the Tabernacle Was Large, Interesting and Enthusiastic.

Sunday afternoon at the Tabernacle was given over to the Christian Endeavor service, which was largely attended by visitors and home people alike, many of both classes being unable to secure admission on account of the big crowds.

The interior of the great auditorium was prettily decorated with Christian Endeavor emblems and potted plants, which, with bunting and patriotic display of American flags and national banting, made a scene long to be remembered. Flying across the face of the big organ pipes were the bulletins, C. E., in monogram and the word, "Welcome."

The meeting was called to order and presided over by Chairman Caldwell of the 707 committee. Prof. Radcliffe presided at the organ and rendered a delightful accompaniment to singing led by Dr. Silver. The audience joined in the first song, Stand the Battle City, though not with the fervor exhibited in the rendition of True Hearted, Whole Hearted, when the big congregation of 12,000 people arose to their feet, many of them singing with intense earnestness.

The Rev. Dr. Hill of Albany, New York, read briefly from the Scriptures, after which the Rev. R. F. Cummings, president of the Salt Lake union of the Endeavor society, extended a warm welcome to the visitors.

Bishop Arnett of the African M. E. church of Wilberforce, Ohio, was the first speaker from the traveling delegation. His remarks were principally eulogistic of America and her grand institutions of freedom, after which came the singing of the hymn Keep Step With the Master, and the announcement by Chairman Caldwell of the action of the authorities of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in lending the use of the Tabernacle for the Endeavor service. The announcement was greeted with a round of appreciative applause.

Rev. George F. Pentecost of Yonkers, New York, then delivered an address on patriotism and love of country. The Cuban, Hawaiian and Venezuelan questions were all briefly alluded to.

President Clark was warmly received as the final speaker. His remarks were mainly explanatory of the objects of the Endeavor society. The congregation sang the Doxology after which the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Nehemiah Boynton of Detroit, Michigan, and the interesting service was over.

Stake Priesthood Meeting.

The Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion convened in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall, on Saturday, July 3, at 11 a. m.; Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Stake, presiding. Owing to the Assembly Hall being repainted, etc., was the reason for the Priesthood meeting in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall.

Singing. Prayer by Elder Martin Lenz. Singing. Roll called showing as follows: Three High Councilors, two Patriarchs, Elders Ellis Morris and George R. Walker, the presidency of the High Priests' quorum, nine presidents of Seventy and six home missionaries.

All the wards of the Stake were properly represented excepting the Farnsworth and Cannon wards of the city, and North Jordan, East Jordan and Pleasant Green of the country. The presidency of the First, Second, Third, Fifth, Ninth, Twelfth, Twelfth, Fifteenth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth quorums of Elders were represented by their presiding officers. The Lower Fifteenth was represented by members from the Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth city wards, and Big Cottonwood and Granite of the country. The Sabbath schools of the Stake were represented by Stake Superintendent Thomas C. Griggs.

Elders Orson F. Whitney, George F. Gibbs, Joseph E. Taylor, Charles W. Penrose and Angus M. Cannon addressed the meeting, the subjects touched upon, in a very spirited manner, being the great necessity of humility, the atonement of Jesus Christ and its far reaching effects on the whole human family, the doing of the will of God at all times in preference to our own; the importance of magnifying every calling in the Priesthood in the spirit thereof, ever keeping in view the salvation of all.

The keeping of the Sabbath day was strongly enjoined, and the dealing with breakers of it enjoined upon the Bishops.

In view of a meeting to be held in the Tabernacle on Sunday evening, as was announced, the Bishops of the city wards were asked to administer the Sacrament in the wards in the afternoon for this occasion, and to invite the people to attend the services in the Tabernacle, at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

Adjourned until Saturday, August 6th, at 11 a. m., to meet in the Assembly Hall. Benediction by Elder Moses Morris.

Evanston Vanquished.

The Fort Douglas baseball team met the Evanston nine yesterday and defeated them by a score of nineteen to three. The game was played on the reservation grounds and proved a very easy victory for the home team. The Browns were at their best and the Evanston boys it is to be hoped were not. The team from Wyoming, however, proved itself no easy snap for the boys in blue. The main features of the game were the nice plays of Roth, catcher for the Evanstons, and the clever pitching of Renatte for the Browns.

The score by innings is as follows:

	SCORE.
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Evanstons	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	0	—3
Browns	2	3	4	1	4	3	2	0	0	—19

Corrections and Thanks.

EDITOR NEWS—In my article "The Pioneers" there are two errors. One is typographical and makes me say this valley was as barren in 1847 "as were the shores of Massachusetts Bay in 1630." It should read "1620."

The other is my humbug. I say "Utah has half a million farms." The error was due to carelessness. In an article written for an eastern paper I gave industrial statistics showing Utah's progress. The acres under cultivation are in round numbers half a million. The farms in round numbers are twenty thousand.

In my article for the NEWS I carelessly revised this order and did not discover the mistake in time to have it corrected. It should read "Utah has twenty thousand farms," etc.

Accept my thanks for your generous welcome and for the correction of that in another story stated by an eastern drummer who deliberately persuaded me and attempted to win prestige among strangers by denouncing the Mormon people. It caused me no end of annoyance and I am glad to have it cleared up. CHARLES ELLIS.

About Two Pioneers.

John Hunt, of Snowflake, Arizona, writes to the NEWS:

"Monroe Fink, who is advertised for by the Jubilee commission as one of the Pioneers, died several years ago in San Bernardino, Cal. I knew him well. Alex F. Chesley, one of the other missing men, disappeared suddenly from California many years ago, and was never heard from afterwards by his family or friends."

AN ARMY EXPERIMENT.

Strength of Troops on Long Runs on Postum Cereal.

The army corps carrying dispatches from Chicago to army headquarters, Washington, on bicycles, to demonstrate the practicability of the rapid movement of troops over long distances on wheels, trained for their run on Postum Cereal in place of ordinary coffee and Postum was used on the entire trip.

Naturally, a careful investigation into the qualities of Postum preceded its adoption by the officer in Chicago. It is quite generally known to soldiers themselves, that Postum Cereal Food Coffee adds, in a marked degree, to the power of any man for continuous physical exertion, the heart, lungs and nerves, working vastly better than where ordinary coffee has been used. The reason for this, is that Postum is made of certain parts of cereals, skillfully selected and scientifically prepared. Certain ingredients of food are needed by the human body to supply the peculiar gray substance that should fill every nerve cell in the body. This cannot be obtained from drugs, but must come from food. Postum Cereal Food Coffee is made from these elements. It looks like coffee and tastes much like it, but is a distinct beverage rich in food value and standing on its own merit.

Many people have had Postum poorly made. It is rich and delicious when boiled fifteen minutes and served hot, with enough in the boiler to make it a very deep seal brown color. Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.
