It is Well Known.

Many grocers sell Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder at the same price as the cheaper kinds, and as they pay more for it, make less money; hence, they never sell it unless the purchaser demands it. Pure articles can be made as cheap as those that are adulterated.

Celebrated.

Two articles have made the name of Steele & Price celebrated; it is Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, and Special Flavoring Extracts. These preparations are, without question, the finest of their kinds in the world, and they will eventually be used as a luxury from one end of our country to the other. 2

Wendell Phillips said in a recent lecture, that twenty years ago, while he was exhibiting to a Boston audience a negro who claimed to be a fugitive slave from Kentucky, an incredulous man sprang to his feet and shouted to the colored man, "Who was Governor of Kentucky two years ago?" The negro hesitated, and the conclusion was that he was a cheat. "I got to my feet," added the lecturer, "and asked of the questioner who was Governor of Massachusetts two years ago, and he could not tell."

It is expected that each Ward in the Stake will be represented by the Bishop and his Counselors, and also the presidents of quorums, so far as they can conveniently attend.

Harness Stealing.—On Monday night Messrs. Naylor Brothers had a set of harness stolen from their premises. Last night Mr. Wagstaff, of American Fork, who put his team up at Wickel's stable, had his harness carried away. In consequence he was unable to leave for home today. The thieves have not been discovered, although the police have been on the alert.

Joint Meeting.—There was a joint meeting of the Y. M. M. I. A. and the Y. L. M. I. A. of the 14th Ward, last evening, at the school house. The exercises consisted of essays, brief lectures, recitations, readings, songs, etc. The programme was efficiently rendered, and the occasion was a most enjoyable one. Besides the members of the respective associations a number of spectators were present, the whole constituting an expensive assemblage.

The associations are in excellent condition, much of their prosperity being due to the intelligent and zealous labors of Presidents Francis Cope and Mary Williams.

City Council.—The Council met last evening, Mayor Little presiding.

Petition of B. T. Mitchell and 14 others, residents of the 16th Ward, representing that their lots had been damaged to a large extent by the making of a canal in the vicinity of their premises; also that they had done a good deal of work on the public streets and sidewalks, for which they had received no remuneration. They asked the reference of the matter to a committee, with a view to their receiving compensation. Referred to the committee on irrigation.

Petition of Walker Brothers and 35 others, asking that the graveling now being done on West Temple Street be continued as far as Ninth South Street, as said street, one of the most public in the city was, between Fifth and Ninth South, impassable at certain seasons of the year. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

Dr. J. M. Benedict, in a communication, asked for an appropriation to aid in forwarding, to a reformatory for unfortunate women in St. Louis, one who is at present an inmate of the Sisters' hospital in this city. Referred to the committee on ways and means.

JAMES WHITE, Foreman,

SALT LAKE CITY,
February 27, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

Last evening Mr. C. R. Savage delivered a lecture, under the auspices of the Young Folks' Mutual Improvement Association of the 19th Ward, to a large and appreciative audience. The lecture was very instructive and interesting, evincing a commendable degree of labor and research.

Yours truly,
D. P. FELT, Secy.

Theatre.—A fair audience witnessed the play of Mazeppa at the Theatre last evening. It was placed upon the stage, mechanically, in a manner highly creditable to the management. The parts were sustained admirably, the costumes were elegant and costly, the scenery very fine, and the grouping and tableaux very artistic.

The horse is a highly trained animal and was the feature of the performance. Mazeppa would have been all the better for a little drapery or clothing of some description. We see no necessity for a neatly nude representation of the character.

The play elicited repeated and tremendous applause, and Miss Buckingham was called before the curtain after the first act.

"Mazeppa" will be repeated this evening.

The North.—Elder B. F. Cummings, Jr., has been on a visit to the Bear Lake Stake, in the interest of the Y. M. M. I. A. movement, and has visited every settlement in that northern region. In a recent letter he states that the young people are taking an increased interest in matters pertaining to religious and intellectual advancement.

A report made at the recent conference of the Bear Lake Stake stated that, during 1877, the settlement of St. Charles had donated $2,417 for the building of the Logan Temple and about a similar amount for the erection of their own new meeting house, making a pro rata donation of twelve dollars for each man, woman and child of the population. Similar reports were made from other settlements.

Just prior to the holding of the conference, at Paris, the meeting house was enlarged to double its former capacity and yet it was much too small to hold the people who assembled.

Georgetown, in that Stake, has now a population of 14 families has been settled seven years, and, as yet not one death has occurred there.

Sanpete.—Brother C. H. Halvorsen, of Monroe, now working on the Manti Temple, writes from the latter place under date of the 16th inst.

About 150 men and 30 teams had been at work on the Temple from the beginning of the New Year until recently, when the weather became stormy, and the number somewhat decreased. It was expected that the full compliment would resume as soon as the weather became sufficiently fine.

The authorities of Manti were doing all they could for the comfort of the Temple hands from other settlements.

That city is well up in educational matters, J. F. Allred, assisted by Mrs. Hoyt, teaches about 100 pupils in the higher branches, in a well apportioned and furnished schoolroom. Two other schools are in operation, one taught by George Scott and the other by J. L. Bench.

The Young Men's and Young Ladies' Improvement Associations are doing excellently.

The new meeting-house, in course of construction, will be a credit and ornament to the place. It is expected to be up to the square in about three months, and to be sufficiently near completion by next Fall to admit of the holding of meetings in it.

The Position Exactly.—The San Francisco Daily Globe, of the 13th inst., has a leader under the title of "A Moral Epidemic," in which, in several particulars, the writer hits the nail so squarely on the head regarding several points of the "Mormon" question, that we quote freely from the article:

The Mormon moral epidemic, that breaks out upon the opening of every session of Congress, is upon us with increased violence.

Its virulence may be measured by the increased value of property in Utah. As the mines of Utah are estimated at forty millions, the fervor among the Christian Saints may be estimated. The connection of property with moral propriety may be understood when attention is called to the fact that, were the Mormons a beggarly lot of polygamous people, with as few rags to cover their nakedness as principles to hide their deformity, no one would care whether society was tainted or the Lord offended or not. But being possessed of large and valuable property, that may revert to the reformers, their conduct is vile, and their possessions must be confiscated.

The criminals escaping conviction and the convicts escaping punishment who make up the Christian population of Utah; the border ruffians, also Christians, surrounding the Territory; the Christian statesmen of Washington, lately choked off subsidy and other plunder, are all sorely distressed at the thought of men by the borders of Salt Lake having several wives each.

* * * * * * *

The average congressman, however, is the most afflicted. His chaste soul is filled with virtuous indignation. He would enact laws, stringent laws, to prohibit and punish the polygamous followers of St. Smith and the prophet Young—if he only knew how. He is quite willing to strike down the habeas corpus, the trial by jury—in a word, every recognized right, if he could only reach the adulterous generation of Mormons. But, unfortunately for him, he cannot amend the Constitution by act of Congress, nor wipe out the courts, and so long as the two remain his chaste legislation is a failure.

How cruel, then, under the circumstances, for Sarah Spencer to twit these saints with the fact that the only difference between themselves and the Mormons was that the Mormons married their mistresses, while the Congressmen turned them out to starve.

The fact is gradually coming to be recognized that we cannot amend the public morals through a criminal code. When the peace and dignity of a State has been assailed, through a wrong done an individual, the criminal court intervenes and punishes the wrongdoer. But when the party injured not only consents to, but courts the offense, the courts are powerless. A thief, for example, cannot be convicted of theft when it is proven that the owner of the goods consented to the taking.

* * * * * * *

So long as women themselves not only willingly submit, but court the offense, there is no sense in attempting the remedy through law. The only relief is in a spread of intelligence, and an appeal to our better nature. A petition to Congress for more stringent legislation is a confession that the church is a failure. Let these pious men of God go as missionaries to Utah, instead of the lobby of Congress. Let the Gentiles of Utah lead better lives and they will have stronger influence.

The people of Utah are honest in their dealing, cleanly in their habits and law-abiding in their conduct.

OBITUARY.

Elder AMOS STODDARD died of cancer, at his residence at Birch Creek, on Saturday 16th inst., aged 69 years, 5 months and 3 days. Deceased was born in the town of Junius, Seneca County, New York, Sept. 13th, 1808. Emigrated to Ohio in 1831; removed to Far West in 1837; joined the Church early in 1838; suffered in common with the brethren in Missouri; removed to Illinois with the body of the Church the same year, where he remained until the expulsion of the Church in the year 1846; removed to Council Bluffs the same season, where he remained until the year 1850, when he emigrated to Utah, and has since remained in this Territory. Elder Stoddard has been a great sufferer for over three years, with cancer, when death released him. He died as he had lived, a faithful Latter-day Saint, rejoicing in the hope of a glorious resurrection.

Elder Amos Stoddard was a kind father and husband, an indulgent parent, a firm friend, and an honest man. His departure is universally felt, but all come to one conclusion, that he had gained by the change. His funeral took place on Sunday the 17th inst., which was largely attended.

Yours respectfully,
SAMUEL DYE.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE DAUSMAN & DRUMMOND Tobacco Company's CROSS BAR.

THIS 16 ounce armypound is marked into 16 equal spaces (1¼x1½) each space representing an ounce. It being justly divided, the consumer is satisfied with his allottment, and the retailer knows that he has given neither too much nor too little; as he is liable to do where the lump is not so marked. This lump also renders it unnecessary for the retailer to have more than one package of Tobacco open at a time, as he can accurately cut any size lump needed from a 12 ounce lump down to a single thick pocket piece. It is the only plug of Tobacco marked for the benefit of the dealer and consumer. All others marked with tin, wood, leather, or other tags, or in any other manner are solely for the benefit of the manufacturer.

It saves interest, as a single package gives the dealer all the sizes he requires, it is not necessary to keep six or eight open at a time as is usually the case.

The manufacturer is able to make a better chew in a pound lump than in a smaller one for the same money. No loss can accrue from change of styles or variation in prices. Most dealers know by bitter experience how great an advantage this is. It is manufactured with the utmost care and each plug is perfect in chew and style.
