Bennefer's Celebration.

HENNEFER, Jan. 6, 1896.

To the Editor:

Inauguration day was commenced by firing guns, hoisting the Stars and Stripes, sleigh bauner race, singing of bells, steam saw mill whistle, groups of people in different places talking over the statehood proclamation, until 10 a. m., when the greater portion of the people assembled in the ward meeting house to do honor to the occasion. The proclamation was read by the Bishop; Joseph E. Foster delivered an address; the choir and congregation sang "America" and selections were rendered by the Primary. A children's dance occurred at 2 p. m. and an adult grand ball this evening.

To Mary Emma, wife of Hyrum Dearden, was born on the morning of the 5th inst., at 1 a. m., a bouncing baby boy, said to be just thirteen hours after Utah's Statehood proclamation by the President.

JAMES LYTHGOE.

Officers Elected.

The Utah Lime and Cement company held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers: Simon Bamberger, president; W. H. Bancroft, vice president, and Josiah Barnett, secretary and treasurer. These with Robert Harkness and J. E. Bamberger, constitute the board of directors.

Dr. Park's Office.

Dr. John R. Park, State superintendent of public instruction, has taken up his new quarters with County Superintendent of Schools Van Cott, adjoining the county recorder's office in the joint city and county building.

UTAH'S SENATORS.

Very Much Uncertainty as to Who They Will Be.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS TUESDAY

Democrats Will Stand Together for Rawlins and Thatcher—New Fire and Police Bill.

Who will be the first United States Senators from Utah? If that question could be correctly answered a great load would be lifted from the shoulders of the State's law makers, and at least a half dozen aspirants to that high honor could return to their respective professions with the knowledge that if ever their time comes to don the senatorial tags, it will be by the grace of a future Legislature.

The individual and comparative strength of the different candidates will be measured on Tuesday the 21st inst. At present, according to a careful canvass, not one of them has a sufficient number of votes to guarantee his election. Should any man be successful on the first ballot it will only be by strength gained during the interim between now and then. Not nearly so many members on the Republican side seem to be pledged as was one time reported. As to the Democrats they are bound by instruction from their constituents and resolution of their own adoption to stand firm for Rawlins and Thatcher. Whether, however, they will remain with them throughout the entire struggle and against all odds, inducements and pressure, is a query their opponents would like very much to have answered.

On Tuesday night next the Republicans will meet and caucus on the Senatorial situation, and it is not unlikely that the Democrats will hold another council of war or two of their own on the same object.

Today has been a featureless one among the State solons. Many of them left for home last evening and this morning, and will not return to the city until Monday, in time to resume work, which is scheduled to begin in both branches at 2 o'clock p.m.

After the News went to press last evening, business was transacted in the Senate as follows:

Chidester was the author of Senate bill No. 6 for an act authorizing the secretary of state to furnish dockets for all its courts. Laid on the table.

ALLISON WANTS PROTECTION.

Allison, of Weber, launched Senate memorial No. 2 as follows:

Your memorialists, the Governor and Legislature of Utah would respectfully represent to your honorable body:

That the entire protecting power of this nation is crippled by the deliberate invitation which this country has extended to other nations through the Wilson bill to take the work, wages and markets of Americans for the fetters of other lands.

Now, therefore, in behalf of the men and the homes of the United States, we respectfully ask for a repeal of that invitation. And in behalf of that great west, which largely supports the civilization of our country, we ask that the tariff rate of the so-called McKinley bill of 1890 shall be restored upon wool, lumber, lead and all agricultural products. And your memorialists will ever pray.

The Democrats were ready to attack the memorial as soon as it was read and on motion of Warner, under the enforcement of the rules it was laid on the table.

POLICE AND FIRE BILL.

Sutherland, of Salt Lake, introduced Senate bill No. 8, "An act relating to the board of police and fire commissioners in cities of 15,000 and more inhabitants, and to place the police, prison and fire departments of said cities upon a non-partisan basis." It is sought to have retained all the good features of the present law on that question and to eliminate the technicalities that have caused so much trouble in the past. The measure has the endorsement of both leading Democrats and Republicans.

THE PROPOSED LIBEL LAW.

The bill introduced by Glen Miller, Salt Lake, for "an act relating to and defining the law of libel in certain cases therein specified," as mentioned in last evening's News, contains these provisions:

Before any suit shall be brought for the publication of libel in any newspaper in this State, the aggrieved party shall at least three days before filing or serving the complaint in such suit, serve notice on the publisher of publishers of said newspaper at their principal office of publication, specifying the statements in the said article which he or they allege to be false and defamatory. If it shall appear in the trial of said action that the article was published in good faith; that its falsity was due to the mistake or misapprehension of the fact, and that a full and fair retraction of any statement therein alleged to be erroneous was published in the next regular issue of said newspaper, or in case of daily papers, within three days after such mistake or misapprehension was brought to the knowledge of such publisher or publishers, in as conspicuous a place and type in such newspaper as was the article complained of as libelous, then the plaintiff in such case shall recover only actual damages; provided, however that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the case of any libel against any candidate for a political office in this State unless the retraction of the charge is made editorially in a conspicuous manner at least three days before the election, in case such libelous article was published in a daily paper; if published in a weekly paper, at least ten days before the election.

Under the rules the bill went to the table from which it will be taken when the committees are appointed.

MUNICIPAL REPORTS.

Brief Resume of Business During the Week Just Closed—Livelier Indications.

The past week in the department of the city have not been characterized by any unusual happenings. A complaint comes from Building Inspector Folsom to the effect that citizens are erecting buildings without his consent and he says that he proposes to proceed against them the coming week unless they come to terms in the meantime. The department reports are as follows:

WATERWORKS.

Supt. Dailey, of the waterworks department, reports putting in a flushing valve for the gravity sewer on the corner of Fifth South and State. Test was practically all the work done outside of the usual routine.

THE CITY'S HEALTH.

The health report for the week ending Jan. 11th is as follows: Births reported thirty-eight; males twenty-three; females fifteen; deaths, four, all females. Received for burial from other points seven. There are at present nineteen flags outstanding for contagious disease, all being cases of scarlet fever.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Building Inspector Folsom issued permits to the following parties for the week ending today:

Alma Davis, a four-room brick residence on First North between Eighth and Ninth West streets, costing $900.

Thomas Davis, a four-room brick residence on First North between Eighth and Ninth West, also costing $900.

Rob J. Fullmer, two brick houses between Fifth and Sixth south on First West, at a cost of $700 each.

D. J. Thomas, moving frame building and making alterations on the corner of First South and Sixth West, costing $40.00.

State Bar Meeting.

The State Bar association of Utah will hold its regular annual meeting at the city and county building at 7:30 o'clock, Monday evening, January 13. The meeting promises to be an interesting one, as there are a number of matters of importance concerning the constitution and changes in statutes, etc. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected, and delegates to the annual meeting of the American Bar association are to be appointed.

Statistical Reports.

The Bishops and clerks of the wards in the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, who have not as yet sent in their statistical reports for the six months ending Dec. 31st, 1895, are requested to see that their reports are forthcoming immediately.

The clerks of the Stake organizations are also reminded of theirs, for the time named, and to have the reports full and complete.

JAMES D. STERLING,
Clerk of Stake.

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the ten mile road race, in which McConahay finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. Then came the track race, Joe Beck taking second in the novice. Fowler first, Weller second, and Thatcher third in the mile scratch, class E, all "Ramblers" you will note. In the half mile class A, May took second, Corum third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a man in a yellow suit lost his head and fell. Conniboar and Weller being immediately behind him, the mishap was a spill for these parties and the race left to Evans. The five mile, class A, was another Rambler event, May taking first, Joe Beck second and McConahay third. Fourteen prizes 7th one day is glory enough for any one.

People may laugh and people may cry,
And they may do as they please,
But Rambler's win races wherever they go
