ACROSS THE WATER.

The Storm Now Brewing in the Turkish Empire.

DR JAMESON AND HIS COUNTESS.

Interest in the Political Campaign of the United States—Miscellaneous Notes.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—[Copyrighted 1896 by the Associated Press.]—The Irish national convention at Dublin which closed on Thursday, awakened the highest interest in England, and it must be admitted by an impartial observer that as a means of promoting unity in the Irish parliamentary party it was the biggest failure on record and only served to widen the breaches existing among the various factions, given the liberal newspapers, which for years have had the cause of Ireland at heart, admit this.

The recent atrocities in Constantinople have been thoroughly and earnestly discussed by all classes during the week and have aroused the wrath of Europe to such an extent that they will probably compel action upon the part of at least some of the powers and force the sultan to make a radical change in the administration of his empire. There is scarcely evidence that the temper of a general European war is no longer sufficient to guarantee Turkey immunity for its excesses. The warships of various nations are gathering in the Levant, and by a quadruple constitution of a score of British ships which are ready to respond to a call from Sir Philip Currie, the British ambassador at Constantinople. The latter arrived at Ciplo yesterday, armed, it is mentioned, with definite instructions from the Marquis of Salisbury, to compel obedience to certain demands upon the part of Great Britain either in conjunction with the representatives of other powers, or if to take action alone. That Great Britain means business is emphasized by the fact that prior to his departure Sir Philip Currie received a communication from the queen for delivery personally to the sultan. In this communication it is believed her majesty conveys to the sultan a kindly warning of the approaching storm.

Abdul Hamid has a profound respect for the queen and her letters to him are never without effect.

AT BLENHEIM.

The duke and duchess of Marlborough are at present at Blenheim, where extensive alterations and improvements have begun. The Prince of Wales promises to visit them in September when he will remain a week.

The rumor that Dr. Jameson is to marry the dowager countess of Dudley, daughter of Sir Thomas Monnerffe, and widow of the first earl of Dudley, who died in 1885, is revived by the honeymoon trip which the countess has been taking in the princess to Holloway jail and by the fact that she showed the keenest interest in his trial.

IN ENGLISH PRISONS.

In connection with the assertion that Irish political prisoners have been driven insane by the hardships of convict life, it is interesting to note the report of the government inspector of prisons, which not only flatly contradicts the assertion, but shows in its conclusion that the prison management has precisely the opposite effect. The report quotes figures to show that the number of insane prisoners decreases with the length of their imprisonment.

WATCHING OUR CAMPAIGN.

The political campaign in the United States continues to be watched with intense interest. Mr. Henry Labouchere, in Truth, devotes three pages to the situation.

BOTH ON MANY TOPICS.

The United States ambassador, Mr. Thomas F. Bayard, returns to London from his Norwegian cruise on Monday next and remains here until September 25, when he will start on a round of country house visits. His tenancy of the residence he occupies here expires at Easter.

Mr. Joseph H. Hosevelt, secretary of the United States embassy, goes to Holland on Monday.

Prof. G. L. Burr, the historical expert of the Washington-Venezuela commission, has arrived in London from The Hague. He called at the United States embassy and will search the British office records and then proceed to Washington, where he will deliver his report.

The Trader Union congress of Great Britain will open at Edinburgh on Monday next, and will close on September 12.

The American Federation of Labor has sent over Messrs. Livingston, Morris, Kreamer and Sullivan.

There are renewed indications of the agitation for the release of Mrs. Maybrick. The newspapers stated recently that the lord chief justice, Baron Russell, had sent an appeal to the home secretary, Sir Matthew White Ridley, adducing new evidence, and the mother of the prisoner, Baroness de Roques, she had an interview with her, during Mrs. Maybrick is very bad health.

The rehearsals of Cymbeline, to be produced by the Irving company, is in progress day and night.

The Lyceum theater has been redecorated and given a new coat of paint on the outside, which relieves, to some measure its dismal dinginess.

Revolution Tree opened the new suburban theater at Stratford East, last Monday evening with the first cart of Henry IV. This is the sixth new suburban theater opened within the past eighteen months.

FOR BRYAN AND SEWALL.

The Leader of Tammany Hall Declares for the Chicago Nominees.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—A New York special to the Record says:

John C. Sheehan, leader of Tammany Hall, came out positively for the endorsement of Bryan and Sewall and the Chicago platform. What direction influence him, finally, he said, was the action of the Indianapolis convention in declaring for the single gold standard.

"Even the Republican convention," said he, "did not go to that extreme. This country has been prosperous under the double standard since the War of Independence, but monometallic and advocates of the gold cure have been gradually stealing from its registers, which relieves them and means the working classes poorer. We must get back to the benefits of legislation of which they robbed us, and we can only get it by electing Bryan and Sewall and enforcing the principles enunciated at Chicago."

A JESSE JAMES VICTIM.

ST. JOSEPH, MO., Sept. 5.—While excavating in the rear of the old Jesse James house, in which the outlaw was killed in 1882, workmen came upon the skeleton of a middle aged man who had been buried without coffin or covering. The common theory is that the skeleton is that of some victim of the notorious outlaw.

THE CUBAN INSURRECTION.

Rebels Seize a Spanish Convoy, Capturing the Entire Force.

NEW YORK UNDER CONSTRUCTION ALONG THE TRACKS—BETTER FOOD FOR PRISONERS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says: The Herald's correspondent on the Morro Juerto Ducha sends word that the insurgents have seized a Spanish convoy which left Cieqo de Abia for Los Piedras, August 25, killing, wounding or capturing the entire government force, consisting of 300 men, who were in charge of the convoy.

The Spanish commander, with eight members of his staff, was released, however, after being charmed by the rebels. They reached Moron at 9 o'clock on the night of the attack.

Government troops and troops are working early and late, and the authorities, both civil and military, are co-operating in their effort to complete the new line of railway from Moron Juerto Ducha before Gomez can arrive. Representatives are expected momentarily from Havana and Puerto Rico to strengthen the defenses of the island.

Thomas Garrich, the new governor of Fortress Cabanas, has given prompt attention to the matter of prisoners' food, which Captain General Mencia Lee and the press of Havana recently complained. The existing contract with the municipal council of Havana to supply the meals, will probably be annulled, owing to the reported complaint of unwholesome food, and the regular military rations supplied them from the Spanish commissary. Thomas Garrich has been invariably commended upon.

ANTONIO MACEO REPORTED DEAD.

HAVANA, Sept. 5.—Military Governor Candelaria of the province Pinar del Rio has notified Captain General Weyler that he has been assured by several countrymen that Antonio Maceo, the insurgent leader, died recently of wounds received in an attack upon the Spanish train in the vicinity of Tara Taco. Efforts are being made to ascertain if the information is correct.

THE BURDEN OF GOVIN.

Captain General Weyler's Report Not Satisfactory to Consul Lee.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—A dispatch to the Herald from Key West, says: Private information received here by the last Havana mail says that it was decided there that Consul General Lee has submitted a full report to the state department at Washington in reference to the murder of Charles Govin, an American newspaper correspondent in Cuba. It is stated that previous to receiving instructions to do so, he had made a demand on Captain General Weyler, requesting that the officer commanding the Spanish troops who sustained the engagement with the insurgent band at Vega Vemeda's forces, be required to produce Govin, living, or to account for the manner of the latter's death.

It is said that the information relative to the killing of young Govin, was obtained by the consul general direct from the man who was doing with him when he met his death. Yesterday's dispatches from Havana state that the following morning Govin was tied to Arturo Adrain and Adolfo Myrtas and taken from the settlement of San Mateo by a company of Spanish infantry. This was the last seen or heard of him, except that on the night of July 15th, Spanish soldiers sent that Govin on the night of July 8th, with messages. The captain general informed Mr. Lee that Govin had been captured while wounded and had died the following day, despite the medical assistance given him. The consul general was not satisfied with this answer and renewed his demand for the fullest information.

TRANSFER FOR LOCKJAW.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Ernest Neckecker, who was sent to the Fordham hospital Thursday morning suffering from lockjaw, is recovering. He is the first patient to be treated with anti-tetanic for lockjaw in any public institution in this country.

The serum injected into his circulation is the first anti-tetanic for tetanus ever cultivated in the United States. Dr. Holly, the house surgeon at Fordham, thinks there is a chance of saving his life, although the treatment was not begun until the disease had progressed very far.

A FOOTED DEPOSED.

MEMPHIS, Mo., Sept. 5.—The committee appointed by Bishop Galloway to try the case against Rev. Thomas Cooper, the deposed pastor of St. Joseph, today found him guilty of gross immorality, slander and perfidity. Expulsion from the church was recommended and the conference adopted the report. Cooper being expelled. The success of Dr. McDonald this week is said to have been due to threats of prosecution made by Cooper. McDonald had charged him with immoral intimacy with a young woman of the church.

A GIGANTIC STRIKE.

British Legislators Consider the Scheme Dangerous.

LABORERS OF THE WORLD UNITED

If the Plan of the Trades Union Congress Can Be Carried Out.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—[Copyright 1896 by the Associated Press.]—It is reported among the delegates to the trades union congress which opens in Edinburg Monday next, that all plans for a gigantic strike of the dock laborers of the world at large had been perfected in everything but the minutest details and the most important labor movement ever conceived may be commenced this autumn. The trades union men who do work at the docks of the United Kingdom have been working on this scheme for a long time and it is looked upon as likely to be the largest for an era, not only in the history of trades unionism but in the history of labor organizations of secret societies.

Since 1889 every strike for better wages or shorter hours at any port of the United Kingdom has practically come to nothing, because when the men went out at any particular port, the trade of that place or that port was transferred for the time being to some other British or continental port and the strikers have been compelled to surrender. The present plan is designed to prevent any such fiasco, by uniting all classes of laborers employed in or about docks, ships, wharves and warehouses in the United Kingdom, the United States, Canada, Germany, France, Russia, Holland, Belgium and Australia, as well as other countries, in one great, new federation. Its members are to wear a specific badge, and the certain principle of unionism will be to stand firmly united and implicitly obey the instructions of the governing counsel in spite of everything and everybody. A congressional will issue to all members of this federation will be pledged to aspirin strikes of any member of the federation by striking in sympathy and remaining out until satisfactory results to work.

The scheme is of so gigantic a scope and may have such far reaching consequences that it is attracting attention on all sides and is seriously considered by the statesmen of Great Britain who see in it great danger which may have to be met by radical measures. The strike is to be primarily against the piece work system.

ANXIETY IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

Not the Ambassadors Send a Joint Note to the Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 5.—Great anxiety still prevails here, but there has been no further disturbance. The ambassadors have sent a collective note to the Turkish government, alluding upon the organized character of the massacres. They quote the declaration of two Armenians who assert that they were requisitioned by the police who provided them with weapons and sent them to kill Armenians. The ambassadors demand a strict inquiry into the causes of the outbreak and that steps be taken to suppress it, and bring upon severe punishment of the culprits.

THE CZAR IN GERMANY.

Accorded an Enthusiastic Reception by Emperor and People.

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—The czar and czarina have arrived. They were received at the railroad station by the emperor and empress of Germany, royal princes and princesses, the chancellor, Baron Marschall von Bieberstein and a large number of military and civil officials. After the mutual greetings had been exchanged between the imperial parties, the czar inspected the guard of honor and their majesties drove to the castle escorted by cavalry. The czar and Emperor William occupied the first carriage and the empress of Germany the second. The route to the castle was lined with troops and the crowds scattered the emperors and empresses an enthusiastic reception.

THE PHILIPPINE REBELLION.

MADRID, Sept. 5.—An official dispatch from Manilla, the capital of the Philippine islands, announces that the insurgents are entrenched at Novaleita on Cavite peninsula. They will be attacked by Spanish gunboats and troops on the land side. The insurgents in the provinces will begin next week. A number of influential men have been arrested at Manilla on a charge of being concerned in the insurrection.

According to private dispatches the report that Germans are implicated in the insurrection is confirmed. Four insurgents have been condemned to be shot at Manilla and 200 to be transported to Marianas and the Caroline islands.

IT HUNG INTERESTED.

He Says a Visit to Uncle Sam's Treasury Vaults.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—About 3:30 today Viceroy Chang with his personal suite was escorted to the treasury department.

The viceroy's visit to the treasury, which occupied half an hour and a half, appeared especially to interest the whole party. After a cordial welcome by Secretary Carlisle, the viceroy expressed a desire to inspect the money vaults, and in company with the secretary, Treasurer Morgan and Mr. Foster, secretary of state, the lower certificate vaults were visited, the massive steel doors of the gold, silver and bond vaults thrown open and the contents explained. The viceroy's curiosity and interest were aroused and his questions and their answers covered a wide range.

From the vaults the party ascended the upper floors and visited the issue and redemption divisions, where the secretary explained the processes by which money for the nation issued from the hotest of engraving and printing and the mints into circulation. The viceroy seemed delighted and on leaving the building thanked the officials for their courtesy.

Secretary Carlisle commended the party in terms of eulogium, which was next visited.

The sightseeing was cut short by rain. Li Hung Chang was escorted by Secretary Carlisle back to the treasury department, whence the returns proceeded to the Arlington.

HANNA IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Chairman Hanna of the Republican national committee, arrived in Chicago today and was met immediately by non-partisan Sound Money Democrats. Many prominent Republican leaders were there to confer with him.

Hanna will remain here two weeks during which time he will personally conduct the McKinley campaign in the West. Not long after his arrival it was reported that the advisability of McKinley making short campaign trips next month was under consideration.

Neither Chairman Hanna nor other Republican leaders would discuss this report, although it was admitted that the question had been under consideration.

THE NEXT EISTEDDFOD.

Salt Lake City is the Place Selected for the Festival.

THE GROSSES AND EXPENSES OF THE GATHERING AT BEAVER AVE EQUALLY BALANCED.

DENVER, Sept. 5.—Salt Lake City was chosen as the location of the next national eisteddfod. The vote stood at the festival, under last night, were about $15,000, and the expenses about the same.

AT MCKINLEY'S HOME.

The Republican Candidate Addresses an Enthusiastic Crowd.

CANTON, Ohio, Sept. 5.—The Beaver county, Pennsylvania, delegation numbering 1,200 strong, arrived in this afternoon on a special train, whose number was doubled by acquisition on the north to McKinley's home. Never did crowd more in line. The party was headed by Major Little, of Beaver Falls, and E. H. Thomas, of New Brighton.

The reception given Major McKinley when he appeared on the porch in front his residence was the most enthusiastic ever witnessed there. Men waving their hats in the air and women waving their handkerchiefs, umbrella and banners have seldom been witnessed. When Major Little presented Edward A. Fleshy, a member of Beaver Falls, Pa., presented congratulations and assurance of hearty and earnest support of McKinley and the Republican party of the people of Beaver County.

Major McKinley made an appropriate response and was more weighty on the issues of the campaign.

FROM CHICAGO TO MILWAUKEE.

Incidents of Mr. Bryan's Trip—Speeches and Handshakes.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 5.—Three thousand people assembled at 9 and cheers and much enthusiasm constituted the incidents of the trip of W. J. Bryan from Chicago to this city. Three speeches were made at Waukegan, Kenosha and Racine, and the numbers spoke to crowds of hundreds at each place. The party left Chicago at 8:45 a. m. and arrived here at 11:45. On the train were E. C. Wall, Julius Sahmann, F. W. Von Kotschausen and F. J. Sommers. At Kenosha a complete committee of twenty-five from this city, headed by W. R. Rogers, boarded the train.

A FOOT FALLS.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., Sept. 5.—Jackson county bank was closed today on petition of Thomas H. Mills, a stockholder. The petitioner alleges that the bank owes depositors on demand to exceed $45,000, and is insolvent.

Municipal Reports.

Building permits were issued during the past week as follows:

W. B. Preston, to erect a green house on the Temple Block to cost $400.

Mrs. L. L. Lindsberg, a shed at 587 Sixth street, $35.

H. Newton, a two-roomed addition, 329 seventh street, $300.

Mr. Peel, a three-roomed brick house on Princeton avenue, Eleventh Ward, $1,200.

C. W. Olson, a two-roomed addition at 236 West Sixth North, to cost $250.

T. W. Jennings, 44 to 48 East Temple, a storage shed, to cost $2,000.

Report of the board of health for the week ending September 5, 1896: Births, 27; males 14, females 13; deaths, 7, males 5, females 1. Births received by health department, 27. Contagious diseases—Days outstanding 7, scarlet fever 5. Infectious diseases reported during the week 6. Typhoid fever 1.

Twenty-six milk tests made during the week all giving 3 per cent fat and over, and showing good quality.

Will Soon Be Completed.

The work on the water mains now being laid on Second South, between West Temple and First West, will soon be completed. A short delay in operation, however, will be occasioned, as 250 feet of eight-inch pipe is necessary to complete the main prior to the pavement at that portion of the street.

State Kindergarten Association.

On Wednesday, the 9th, at 8 p. m., in the High School building on Richards street, a meeting of all persons especially interested in kindergarten work will be held for the purpose of forming a State kindergarten association.

It is earnestly urged that a large attendance of both men and women be present.

NORA M. JONES, President.
AGNEVA W. GRANT, Secretary pro tem.

DISSENTING OPINION

Filed by Judge Street in the Crescent-Silver King Case.

DIVORCE DAY WITH JUDGE RITCHIE

Swiger's the Burglar Gives a Sentence of 1 and a Half Years—Judge Miles Adjourns to-Day.

A dissenting opinion in the Crescent-Silver King mining suit was filed this morning with the clerk of the Supreme court by Judge Street.

The opinion reads in part: "I concur in the judgment upon the appeal in so far as it vacates and sets aside the interlocutory injunction, but dissent from so much of the order as does not so free the sites of the parties pendente lite, respectively, the following claims, to-wit: The Alice lot 190; the Hecla lot 197; the Josephine lot 198; the Ultimus lot 174; the Lenhet lot 203; the James A. Garfield lot 202; the Walker and Walker extension lot 64."

Then follows three pages of closely written matter, and the concluding states in reference to the decision of the Supreme court in "By the decision the parties are practically referred to the trial of their respective titles to the ground occupied by the mining claims in dispute, and to the trial of their claims to the water connected therewith, and so injunctive restraint as either side pending the final hearing is denied, with the proviso that the parties hent to answer in damages rather than the other.

"That the defendant having offered to give the bond, I only convert from the order requiring it in so far as it is part of the proceedings to preserve the status of the parties respecting the unoccupied property of plaintiff."

Judge Miles's Division.

The affidavits of Manel Grygsen, Julia Wood, Ellen Kelsoe and Fred Wood, were presented before Judge Miles this morning by Attorney Weis in behalf of his client, Albert Swigert (recently found guilty of burglary in the Third district court. The petition for a new trial was argued at some length before his honor, but the motion was overruled. The new evidence sought to be presented in behalf of Swigert had but little weight with his honor, who was of the opinion that an innocent man would have been able to have given more satisfactory testimony than that adduced at the trial.

Swigert's case jaled very promptly when Judge Miles reached his conclusion. He stood with his hands against the bar and gazed earnestly at the court as the sentence was read. It was pronounced: "It is the sentence of the court that you be confined in the State's prison for the term of 1 year and a half." Deputy Sheriff Roth took Swigert to the state boarding house this afternoon.

Lou Wood, the young housebreaker who was sent to the Reform school, has been remanded to the custody of the sheriff. Wood pleaded guilty to being but seventeen years of age, and was thus entitled to the Reform school as against the State prison. Harvey hangs the lad. Wood has shown signs of weakness, considerable of a blame appendage. The Reform school furnishes no special attire for those found guilty of housebreaking in the Third judicial district. Wood's heart grew and grew, then he outdoored to his age—15—not 17. The superintendent of the Reform school informed the court this afternoon that Wood's conduct in being but seventeen years of age, and was thus entitled to the Reform school as against the State prison. Harvey hangs the lad. Wood has shown signs of weakness, considerable of a blame appendage. The Reform school furnishes no special attire for those found guilty of housebreaking in the Third judicial district. Wood's heart grew and grew, then he outdoored to his age—15—not 17. The superintendent of the Reform school informed the court this afternoon that Wood's conduct in the Reform school has been remarkably good, and he will be brought before Judge Miles on Oct. 5th to be resentenced, this time to the Prison house.

The case of E. C. Lang vs H. A. Greenbeck et al was continued to Oct. 12th, 1896.

Joseph and Grete vs Olof Haugtsen; upon filing a written agreement judgment is to be entered according to the prayer of petition.

Dears vs Wagner Brewing company; petition granted to plaintiff Hartley for certain claims. Demurrer sustained by Benner N. Smith for the Brewery company. Demurrer sustained.

Four incorrigibles, Thomas, Barnell and two younger boys, were brought before Judge Miles this morning. One little chap he believed to be too small to crawl through the small window in the county jail, was given to his mother and told to be a better boy. His honor gave a little lecture to the young Thomas and his companion McDermott and they were given to the custody of their fathers. Young Frank Barnell was before the complaint before Judge Miles October 3. He will be in the custody of the sheriff up to that time. Mrs. Barnell, who sells bread for a living, is a poor woman. She has another of two children, a boy and a girl, and when she learned that young Thomas was to be free, she immediately asked that her boy be committed. Probably in the county jail, "where he will learn to appreciate his mother's care first of all," she added. The boy was bitterly as Deputy Booth took him from the court room to the sheriff's office. The poor mother confessed that her ability to control her unruly child so long as young Thomas was not confined to some place of punishment.

The "Hear Ye!" of Bailiff Mahan was then heard adjourning the Third judicial district court until Oct. 5.

Before Judge Street.

H. W. Fuller vs Albert Smith et al. Demurrer to complaint sustained and ten days granted to amend.

M. E. Mulvey, executor, vs Louis Dawes. Hearing of motion dismissed. Continued one week.

Frank Kunz et al vs D. G. Tanner et al. To show cause for receiver. Demurrer to complaint continued one week.

Riter vs Salt Lake City; leave to amend prayer by interlocutory.

R. L. Hammond vs M. H. Kellogg. Motion for new trial denied.

Jones vs Wm. McQueen. Demurrer to complaint.

In the Court of Chancery.

Delia Buckley vs John H. Buckley; default entered by defendant. Delia Buckley and Margaret Ross were sworn and examined. Judgment for decree of divorce entered.

Barnes vs Barnes; Mrs. Barnes and Jacob Voeffin sworn and examined and decree of divorce granted.

The case of Ross vs Ross set for Oct. 9.

Mrs. N. M. Adams vs Catherine Houts. Greenbeck et al. Rawlins L. Tracy sworn and examined. Decree of foreclosure to be entered.

Robert A. Davison vs Angus McKeiter et al; order made appointing W. H. Barney, receiver bond of $200.

Frank Tomporis et al vs C. W. Viskos et al; foreclosure and receiver appointed.

John F. Byron vs Byron; further evidence in divorce proceedings. Henry Hunter sworn and examined. Taken under advisement by the court. This is the case where the husband is on the side of "the people," and the wife refuses to leave her European home to share the lot of her husband in the wild and wooly West.

Kate E. Bonbrock vs John H. Bonbrock. Default entered for defendant. Kate E. Bonbrock and Emily Draper sworn and examined and judgment entered for the plaintiff.

MR. AUERBACH'S FUNERAL

Will Be Held on Monday, With Interment in the Jewish Cemetery.

The Body Will Reach this City Over the Union Pacific Tomorrow Afternoon—Official Announcement.

The body of the late Hon. F. H. Auerbach will reach this city over the Union Pacific at 3:10 tomorrow afternoon, accompanied by Theodore H. Auerbach, brother of the deceased, of Boston, Max Brummer of New York and A. L. Jacobs, nephews, and a number of Salt Lake relatives and friends who will go up to Ogden on the morning train. Messrs. Herman Bamberger, Emanuel Kahn and Henry Cohn, committee in charge of the funeral arrangements, have issued the following official announcement:

Interment in the Jewish cemetery.

SENTIMENTS OF SORROW.

Chamber of Commerce Expresses Itself Strongly over the Death of Its Honored Vice-Pres.

The Chamber of Commerce today, after appropriate remarks on the part of its members, unanimously adopted the following sentiments regarding the death of Mr. Auerbach, and ordered them spread upon the records:

For the second time during the current year death has entered the ranks of our association upon this Directory, and again its members are called upon to survey the life and virtues of a distinguished citizen.

In the midst of a busy life—in the full enjoyment of perfect physical health, with the mental faculties directed to the highest mark, Frederick H. Auerbach, president of this chamber, has been removed from the scene of his earthly labors. His decease, while it concerns the members of his family circle first, is felt by the entire community, and the State so disposable and so far reaching in its effects as to be beyond expression in words.

Simple and unostentatious, he blended in his nature all the traits of heart and mind which endear a man to his fellows, causes their memories to be revered after death. In a man was his intellect that he commanded respect in all public questions and inside upon them in a true and so modest was he that about his connection with public public purposes he never had a tongue. It was his pleasure to assume that every application to him for a donation was in furtherance of a just and noble cause. Like the rays of a pure and lucious crystal which, though it shadow reflects control her brilliancy, so his life with undiminished lustre and was an example of all that is best and most to emulate in life.

With an open purse to those in need of aid, he was a tower of strength to the faltering and the weak.

His life was an open book which will be read with profit by thousands of the young men growing to manhood in our midst.

First among all his fellow citizens in action, in charity and in everything else which tends to develop all that is best in human life, he passed one by one the milestones of the years and sayed not his progress until God's finger beckoned him and summoned him to his rest.

Mourning sincerely his departure—we are consoled with the reflection that he has not called away until he had attained to the fullest measure of success, and until his virtues were widely known. With these consolations we accept the inevitable and bow to the will of the Creator.

Land Commissioner Walker is temporarily in Washington on visit to relatives in the city early day of the coming week.

POLITICAL MATTERS.

The Democratic Conference Committee Meets Tonight.

COLONEL NICHOLAS M. BELL HERE,

Going to the East But Will Return In Time to Address the Democratic State Convention.

A good many prominent politicians are quietly slipping through Salt Lake these days on the way from the eastern to the western coasts where they are giving assistance in the campaign. The latest of these gentlemen and one as widely known as any other perhaps, is Colonel Nicholas M. Bell, of Lexington, who arrived here this morning, made a brief call on Judge Powers and resumed his journey to California.

Mr. Bell is commonly reputed to have the greatest voice of any public man in the United States. He has acted as reading clerk of every Democratic national convention for years with the exception of the one held at Chicago recently. Mr. Bell's western visit will be a brief one and he will return to Utah in time to deliver a speech at the Democratic convention at Provo on the 24th inst.

The Democratic conference committee, recently appointed by Judge Powers, will meet at the Knutsford this evening to discuss the question of a unification of the silver forces of Utah. The meeting begins at 8 o'clock and will, it is believed, be well attended.

Political Pointers.

Democratic State committee headquarters have been opened in the Brooks' Arcade building opposite the Knutsford.

Provo Enquirer: C. S. Varian for chairman of the notice committee is proper. He is a kicker from away back, and helped the party in the Constitutional convention.

W. L. Dykes, ex-Republican candidate for sheriff of Salt Lake county, today formally withdrew from that party and announced that he had allied himself with the Democrats.

Manti Messenger: Mt. Pleasant captured one of the state conventions. Our neighbors will take good care of the delegates, and we hope she may get glory and cash out of it to pay for the trouble.

J. W. Hamm, a politician more or less known, is being raked over the coals by the Denver News and attempting to collect funds for the Democratic national committee without proper authority back of him.

Utah Patriot: The Juab county commissioners fixed the salary of the sheriff of that county for the ensuing two years at $700 a year. It goes without the saying that the best qualified men in the county for the office won't be candidates this year.

Payson Herald: From every town comes the news of the organization of Bryan and McKinley clubs while Payson is in that lethargic state which characterizes the community in everything. Wake up, Payson, or the sleep religiously, we hope, politically and intellectually. O what knights of slumber we are!

The many friends of Dr. H. J. Faus in the Democratic ranks have been urging him to permit the use of his name as a candidate for one of the board of county commissioners of Salt Lake county. The doctor has made up his mind to accede to the requests made of him, and is the line of his being the regular candidate the convention will do the rest.

Mt. Pleasant Pyramid: The Mingo smelter president has had posted a notice on the plant's door that if McKinley is elected the plant will be closed down indefinitely. This is the plan of coercing the dependent labor element which finds much favor in the Eastern and Middle states. Does it never occur to that class of employers that if they close their business plants, others will be started to meet the put on demand?

Provo Enquirer: Can the so-called Silver or Bryan Republicans hope to carry any of the Democratic strongholds of the counties of the State, without the endorsement of the straight out, or McKinley Republicans? They certainly cannot. The very weakest argument it is possible for them to do so. Republicans must pet together, and those Salt Lake and Ogden Republicans must submit to the diction of the State committee.

Ogden Standard: Hon. C. S. Varian might have been taken for a Democrat in his speech last night, if he was not known to be a Republican of lifelong devotion to the party. He tells why protection could not benefit the American people, how the wheels of industry could not revolve without the silver dollar, and that we would continue to prevail while gold kept its upward course and drove property down. Our belief is Varian will be fully within the Democratic party before election day.

Chairman Varian has issued the following call for a meeting of the provisional committee of the Independent Republican party of Utah.

At a mass meeting of the independent silver Republicans, held in Ogden, City, on the night of September 3, 1896, you were selected as a member of a provisional committee, constituted for the purpose of calling a mass convention of Republicans who believe in bimetallism as the paramount demand upon legislation. Immediate action is necessary, and, therefore, a meeting of said committee is hereby called to meet at the office of the undersigned, in rooms 87 and 89, Opera house block, in this city, Tuesday, the 8th day of September, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m.
