DESERET EVENING NEWS.

DESERET NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY, LESSEES.

THE SERVICES TOMORROW.

The remains of Elder David Hoge Judd Cannon reached Salt Lake City at an early hour this morning, and about seven o'clock they were conveyed to the family residence, southeast of this city, where they will be kept until time for the Memorial Services in the Tabernacle at eleven o'clock tomorrow.

All arrangements for these impressive exercises are completed, and the various announcements which have appeared in the NEWS, and which will be found in this evening's issue, will give those interested and desirous of attending a full understanding of the proceedings. Bishop Empey and assistants will have charge of the seating of the house, and direction of the procession. Seats in the front of the Tabernacle will be reserved for the mourners—among whom are included the families of all Elders who have died while upon missions; and in another part of the building the Sunday schools will find a place reserved for them. Home missionary appointments for tomorrow are cancelled, and the usual afternoon service in the Tabernacle will be dispensed with. Under the circumstances it has also been decided to forego the administration of the Sacrament upon the occasion.

Let the Saints come together in humility and love, their minds divested of worldly thoughts and cares, and unite with those who have been called to mourn in paying a tribute of honor and respect to the noble band who forsook home and friends in answer to the behest of duty and while valiantly battling against darkness and error laid down their lives in the Master's cause!

A GREAT DECISION.

The NEWS today surrenders considerable space to a lengthy, profound and most important decision given in the Territorial Supreme Court this morning by Chief Justice Zane. It forms a notable link in the chain of litigation that has come to be commonly known as the "Church cases," and is in effect a decision as to the objects to which the personal property of the Church, in the hands of the receiver, shall be devoted. It takes late consideration the report of Master in Chancery Lowe, now, and exhaustively reviews and passes upon the same. In all respects it is a weighty and valuable document, and it forms an important contribution to the legal literature of the country. Lack of time and space preclude any detailed review of it in these columns today, but it is earnestly commended in its entirety to the careful perusal of every reader.

A ROLL OF HONOR.

On this page will be found a list of the missionaries of the Gospel of Jesus Christ who since the beginning of this dispensation have died while absent from their homes. It is those who are to be remembered in the services in the Tabernacle tomorrow. The list may not be complete in all particulars, but as it is, it represents a vast amount of patient research on the part of the Historian's office, and to Apostle Franklin D. Richards, who occupies with honor and fills with devotion the position of Church Historian, the DESERET NEWS for itself and its readers expresses thanks. The paper will prove of inestimable value, not alone for the information it supplies on the present appropriate occasion, but as worthy of preservation for reference and reflection.

The roll is a long and an honored one. May it serve the congregations and the children of the Saints not merely as a solemn reminder that death stalks unchallenged among the living, but rather as a joyful lesson that man's esteem and God's blessing attend those who pass away with the harness on!

AN ALARMING REPORT.

A telegram in today's NEWS announces that a German paper, the Arbeiter Zeitung, publishes a report that the Russians are massing troops on the frontier line dividing the two countries. Nothing more disquieting to the German mind than this could be issued, except, perhaps, an actual declaration of war. In view of the more or less troubled state in which European affairs have been for several years, such a report as that spoken of is almost as sad as throwing a lighted match into a powder magazine; there may be no explosion, but it will be a narrow escape. It is quite possible that the German Emperor wants some palliative agency for the enormous military budget placed before the people to keep them quiet, and if that is the case he could not have devised a more sinful scheme than having one of the papers publish such news as that telegraphed. It may, however, be true, in which case it is time to look out for squalls if for nothing more serious.

ENDED WITHOUT TROUBLE.

Another of the great strikes which have become so numerous of late years has come to an adjustment, the dissatisfied street car employes of New Orleans returned to work yesterday and business in the Crescent city, which was seriously threatened and measurably impaired for a time, has resumed its usual conditions. There was so little excitement occasioned for a time by the rumor which got out and spread that Pinkertons had been sent for and were on the way; but this was at once authoritatively and emphatically denied, thus avoiding much trouble, perhaps bloodshed. This is particularly gratifying to all advocates of peace and good order, as well as to those who have no love for the men who engagedin the business of shooting for a detective agency. One such scene as that at Homestead last summer is enough for a generation at least.

DEMONSTRATIVE JOURNALISM.

The tendency of political journals to convert their pages into barnyards on paper whenever their party is successful in an election, is as largely and cheerfully engaged in now as it ever was. The custom is not particularly objectionable, since the tendency of the age is to be demonstrative; but is there not enough emphasis in type of large size judiciously arranged to convey all the exultation which mere figures are capable of? The Cleveland Plain Dealer is ahead of anything yet received in the direction spoken of; the first page is bordered all around with rosters of different sizes, all crowing as if their throats if not their hearts would break, while in the center is a finely arranged, excellent picture of Cleveland and Stevenson. The paper was looked at by a good many and was the occasion of considerable merriment. Such productions will string along for several days now, then they will disappear as suddenly as they came.

A Cheerful Source.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., caused much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the cases were not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Salt containing alum, lime, etc., is very injurious to the health. "ROYAL CRYSTAL SALT" is 100 per cent. pure—the purest in the world.

Catarrh, Not Local, but Constitutional.

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a song-one article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nasal mucous membrane, as a Dissatisfied trouble." Therefore, he says, the use of snuff and other local applications is wrong, and while they seem to give temporary relief, they really do more harm than good. Other leading authorities agree with Dr. Lewis. Hence, the only proper method of cure for catarrh is by taking a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, reaching every part of the body through the blood, does eliminate all impurities and makes the whole man healthier. It removes the cause of the trouble and restores the diseased membranes to proper condition. That this is the practical result is proven by thousands of people who have been cured of catarrh by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"ROYAL CRYSTAL SALT" will sweeten the stomach.

The record of its successes is phenomenal. It never disappoints and can always be depended on as the very best remedy for Coughs, Colds, etc. Price, 50c. and $1.00. ALL CS. Smith & Co's Drug Store.
