TO

CONFERENCE VISITORS.

I BELIEVE that the Citizens of this Territory could afford to pay a commission of $10 per day to examine into the merit of machines offered, thus preventing the palming off of inferior articles on the market, and the consequent loss of thousands of dollars; I shall endeavor to accommodate by making a few changes and names to said machine. When this time comes the Branson Knitter and New American Sewing Machines will take a front rank for simplicity of parts, durability, and for performing usefull work.

You are respectfully invited to call at the Idaho Store, see them work, buy one on a guarantee, and be learned to operate them free of charge.

FAMILY RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into four forms.

The first form is that of a "FAMILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page accommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death, name, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "BAPTISM FOR THE DEAD RECORD," with spaces for names, dates, birth, death, baptism, confirmation, etc.

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book, and its pages are numbered.

These Records are well printed and ruled on good ledger paper, substantially bound in full sheep, English roan, or Bock. We can furnish them of any size, from one to five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, proportioned to each other to order.

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, April 25, 1878.

Sensible Advice to Girls.

Never marry a man who has only his love for you to recommend him. It is very fascinating, but it does not make the man. If he is not otherwise what he should be, you will never be happy. The most perfect man who did not love you should never be your husband. But though marriage without love is terrible, love only will not do. If the man is dishonorable to other men, or mean, or given to any vice, the time will come when you will either loathe him or sink; to his level. It is hard to remember, amid kisses and praises, that there is anything else in the world to be done or thought of but love-making; but the days of life are many, and the husband must be a guide to be trusted—a companion, a friend as well as a lover. Many a girl has married a man whom she knew to be anything but good, "because he loved her so." And the flame has died out on the hearthstone of home before long, and beside it she has been sitting with one who, if she followed him as a wife should, would guide her steps to perdition. Marriage is a solemn thing—a choice thing—a choice for life; be careful in the choosing.—Belgravia.

Mr. B. F. Butler shows his New England training by his ability to quote Scripture, and he afforded an illustration of the good old doctrine of total depravity, which cannot possibly be dispensed with while the present Congress is in session, by always quoting it in the wrong connections. When he thinks he is a doorkeeper in the house of God, "Now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation;" and the members must have thought that he was quoting from some comic paper, for they burst into shouts of laughter. Shuffled off by the applause, he again cudgelled his brains and said, "Better be doorkeeper in the house of the Lord than dwell in the tents of the wicked," and this time the gentlemen of the House concluded that he was reciting a free translation of Virgil, and again laughed loud enough to lift the national debt. It is a beautiful spectacle when the Representatives of the people make fun of the Bible, but they must be exposed on the ground that probably some of them knew where the quotations came from.

BRITISH GENEALOGY.

LATTER-DAY Saints from Great Britain who require the genealogies of their forefathers (originally natives of England, Scotland, Wales, Channel Islands, or Isle of man) are hereby respectfully informed that, with the exception of the proper societies, I have undertaken the important task of collecting the same for religious purposes, from those countries.

Having traversed Great Britain extensively by land and sea, in many capacities, I rely on the earnestness and integrity of the British race of both sexes, for support, and offer my services to them as an humble instrument in the hands of God.

All persons desiring to employ me should apply immediately as this is a rare opportunity in connection with the great events of the Latter-Day Work.
