NEWS OF THE WEST.

Deliberate Suicide of a Clerk and Bookkeeper in San Francisco.

A YOUNG "JAP" MURDERED.

Sad Scene in a Denver Home—Shoshone County, Idaho, Disgraced, Etc.

At a meeting at San Jose of representative fruit exchanges throughout the state of California a resolution was adopted that no offer for apricots be entertained at less than 8, 10 and 12 cents for the three highest grades, and that the price of prunes, pending the establishment of prices by the exchanges, be 6 cents.

James Garrett, a prominent farmer living south of Kearney, Hastings county, Nebraska, shotgun at a late hour on Saturday evening by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun. Unfortunate and fear that his pension would be revoked is said to be the cause. He was 60 years of age and leaves a large family in fair circumstances.

The body of a young Japanese named Charlie was found in a patch near Auburn, Wash., on Saturday. His face was covered with bruises and his throat had been cut with a knife, showing plainly that he had been murdered. Three Japanese occupying an adjoining room claim to have heard no disturbance. They were arrested and taken to Seattle for examination.

Chris Jansen, a Swede, who shot to kill his wife a few weeks ago, made a second and successful attempt to commit suicide in jail at Butte, Mont., on Saturday morning. A few days ago he cut his throat with a knife and the wound was bandaged. Saturday he hung himself with the bandage, not getting down to his knees strangled to death. When he shot his wife he also shot himself, but did not inflict serious injury. His wife has recovered.

Laramie Boomerang: A good many engineers on the Wyoming division are beginning to need repairs. It is reported that the boiler on the seventh district, west of Rawlins, is in very poor condition and engines were sent west from this city today to take the place of some of them. No. 2, coming east, was brought into Rawlins this morning by a big stack burner. The report will have to open south. Trains are said to have been delayed on the seventh district by the engines.

The Caldwell (Idaho) Argus states that affairs are in a disgraceful condition in Shoshone county. Murder, riot and anarchy reign unmolested. The grand jury failed to investigate the Bunker Hill riot, the Gem blacksmiths, admits that the sentiment of the country are such that no one will testify against murderers for fear of their lives. Troops guard all trains coming and going. Good citizens are compelled to flee from the country. Business is virtually at a standstill. Such things, remarks the Argus, should bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every good citizen. The law business most cease. It is the plain duty of Governor McConnell to crush it out, root and branch.

Says the Denver News: A sad scene was the other day consumed to the home of E. F. Parker at Vine street. All of the furniture in the house was taken to satisfy a chattle mortgage of $100 upon which $9 interest was due. A News reporter visited the house at 9 o'clock at night. The rooms had been stripped bare. In a corner lay Mrs. Parker on a bedmake on the floor with a mattress and a few coverings, evidently ill with nervous prostration. Across from her on a bed of old clothes lay a sleeping babe, while a little golden-haired daughter, scarcely 5 years of age, was admonishing to the wants of her sick mother. The father and other son sat on an improvised stool, seemingly too dazed to move. Not even a chair was left. The only article of furniture visible was an old pine tabletop which was a half a loaf of bread and a few dishes.

San Francisco Call, August 4: W. H. Krummacher, a middle aged clerk, committed suicide at the Lick House yesterday afternoon. A chambermaid found him lying on his bed shortly after 5 o'clock. There was a bullet wound in his breast and on the floor by the side of the bed lay a pistol which had dropped from his hand. The body was taken to the morgue last night. Krummacher was a frequent guest at the hotel and had many friends among the officials. He had little to say about himself, but it was known that he had wealthy relatives in Germany. Was at times supplied him with funds. Krummacher was recently employed as a bookkeeper by Aronson Bros. of Livermore, but had no employment during the last six weeks. He expected a remittance from Germany, and it did not come, and when his effects were examined by the coroner's deputy only $2 was found. The following letter addressed to Coroner Hughes was found on his table:

San Francisco, Cal., August 4, 1894.

Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have decided to take my life, being thoroughly discussed with the whole world, I remain respectfully.

My reason are in perfect condition and my health being impaired in any manner yourself need not render any verdict about my being crazy.

Mr. Senn, 319 Columbia street, will attend to my funeral, and you will please deliver my personal effects to him. Yours truly,

W. H. KRUMMACHER.

Born October 22, 1844, in Brunswick, Germany.

Krummacher was married, but was separated from his wife, who is now living in Salt Lake City. The coroner, in spite of the demonstration shown by him to the contrary, is probably hold an inquest over the body. An examination of the remains showed that the bullet had passed through the heart. It was found imbedded in the mattress on which Krummacher lay.

Quite to Consider.—Daughter: the film of the equator has a much temperature the year round but little different from that of Boston, owing to its elevation, says a writer in Goldthwaite's Magazine.

The idea of the balloon first occurred to the Montgolfier brothers from seeing a large piece of paper fall over the fire, because inflated with smoke and fell after the soot had gone away.
