FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL

Travels of Elders George Goddard and George Reynolds.

IN A FIERCE KANAB BLIZZARD.

Conferences With the Sunday Schools and Meetings With the Saints in Southern Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 13, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

On the 15th of May, Elder George Reynolds and myself left Salt Lake City for the purpose of holding our annual Sunday school conferences in St. George, Kanab, Pangutch and Wayne Counties. On our way south, Milford was the extent of our travel by railroad; all the rest of our journey through the more four States had to be taken by team, until we reached Kanab, Kane county, where we arrived Monday morning in time for the 10:45 meeting. We remained there about 30 hours.

We arrived at Milford on our first day out at 7:15 p.m. Elders Elias Wm. Tobler, of Uinta Class, was waiting early in south. We drove 15 miles to Minersville by 11 o'clock, and a little upward the street McKnight, who kindly welcomed us under his roof. We had scarcely entered a room, sleep never came to disturb him in his midnight slumbers. Next day brought us to Cedar between 7 and 8 p.m., and a warm reception was given us by Bishop Cuthy and family.

Friday, 17th.—After administering to several persons, we travelled on our journey until we arrived at Leeds, about 8 o'clock p.m., and lodged at Bishop D. T. Mendenhall. Saturday, 18th.—At noon we arrived in St. George, this being the starting point of our labors, making our headquarters at my relatives, Elder A. H. Winsland. In company with Elder Mendenhall Bishop Morley we drove to Santa Clara and held an evening meeting, commencing at 11 o'clock. Sunday, 19th. Now commenced our first day's conference. We held meetings at 10, 2 and 7 o'clock, besides a teachers' meeting.

Monday, 20th—Held meetings at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.; these virtually closed our conference in St. George, embracing the usual variety—program from children, reports from local superintendents and Blake superintendent, remarks by St. George Stake authorities and general instruction by visiting brethren. Early in the evening we travelled to our friends in St. George, where all in their power to make our visit a profitable one to the Juvenile portion of that Stake. We drove to Washington and held a good sized meeting there at 8 o'clock, dwelling mostly on Sunday school matters.

Tuesday, 21st—Left Washington for Pagosa'ville, 25 miles from St. George, holding a meeting at 8 o'clock p.m. to a well filled room and enjoying good liberty of the Spirit of God. Assistant superintendent Sullivan was our host; he was accompanied in with us from Virgin City, where we held meeting at 2 o'clock, after which we passed through Duncan's Retreat and Grafton. I am reminded that at this place in 1861 (thirty-four years ago) I had the pleasure of eating my fill of beautiful, large, ripe melons in company with President Young and several friends, while on a trip to the very spot where St. George now stands. We proceeded to Rockville, and after enjoying a social repast at Slater Hall's, where a large circle of friends had met in honor of Elder John H. Stout (brother of our old time friend Moses Stout) prior to his departure on a mission to the Southern States, we had a large meeting here and lodged with Bishop Hirschi.

Thursday, 23—Left Rockville at 9 a.m. and reached Kanab (15 miles) at 12:30 and dined with Bishop James Andrus, one of the late Elder Mills Andrus. We found him in a comfortable home, with extensive corrals, where sheep and cattle business occupy atten. He learned that the cattle Canaan here and ranch had recently been sold to a Mr. Hamblin—the old time Canaan herd and ranch, so long proving a source of annual profit to the merchants of St. George, etc., many regard as an unfortunate necessity that prompted its disposal. After dinner we pursued our journey to Pipe Springs or Winsnot Castle, which consisted of a rock and shelter, which our hosts began to fear would be taxed to its utmost capacity in the matter of the hard floor, but I was thankful to find a place to sleep, where we could not see the stars, nor feel the drizzling tinkle.

Friday, 24th—Left Pipe Springs at 7:30 and reached Kanab 48 miles; this settlement has between 70 and 80 miles east of St. George. Elder James Boyding made us welcome, and here we met many old friends, Elder E. D. Woolley, President of the Stake; Bro. Crosby Crane, Sister Mace, wife of the late Wandel Mace, etc.

Saturday 25th and Sunday 26th were our conference days and during our five regular meetings, besides a "Sabbath" and "Sacrament" meeting, we had a thoroughly enjoyable and instructive time of the kind as well as the young—good singing, good exercises by the children and an excellent spirit prevailed. Not very frequently do we have the pleasure to be in conference somewhat in accordance with Stake of Zion, needed only to the more complete.

Monday, 27th—Departing 8 miles (Kanab to Glendale) we found Johnson (13 miles) and Fredonia (7 miles) we visited. Bishop Hopson's going to Johnson and Fredonia. This day will never be forgotten by the people of Kanab; such a wind storm is unusual; large trees were bent to the ground, and for hundreds of miles, trees were blown down, shingles, orange, door, porches and fence ran so, blinding both animals, drivers and passengers, so that it gave us the [illegible] we may say we were frozen. Fredonia is a small settlement in the [illegible] of Arizona, just beyond the Utah line. Meeting was [illegible] of a fearful hailstorm [illegible] of the Spirit of God, saw it [illegible].

Tuesday, 28th, we left Arizona to Kanab and her warm hearted friends to Utah [illegible] and drove to Glendale, [illegible] and reached the "Sand Hill village." We held a meeting here at 8 o'clock to a crowded house. On the way we passed through a wolf country and had a short interview with Elder W. J. Lilly, of old time memory. Elder Miles travel from Orderville to meet us in Glendale of an more modern, [illegible] and submit the appearance from Orderville. Here, to a snow-storm, we held a meeting at 8 o'clock p.m., and were delighted to find such a lively, clean place of worship, which presented a most remarkable contrast to the muddy streets we found, the slickest mud we ever met with in all our travels. We lodged at Bishop D. M. Harriet.

Wednesday, 29th—Ten miles travel from Glendale brought us to Orderson ward. Here we were met by Blake Supt. Alma Barney with a team to convey us over the Paunsaugunt Stake of Zion, 15 miles farther travel brought us to Amy or Mammoth, here we have a meeting at 8 o'clock p.m.

Thursday, 30th—Arrived at 8 o'clock, and to drive stakes for Panguitch, and after 23 miles travel, we reached that place and held a meeting at 7 p.m. We enjoyed the old Sunday school conference and the quarterly Stake conference would probably be held here on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of June, instead of the we learned they were to be held at Kanab, commencing on the 7th coming from Panguitch. Friday, 31st, we travelled 40 miles to company with several other teams at conference Stake and stayed for the night at Elder H. M. Woods' ranch.

Saturday, June 1st, we finished our journey of 35 miles which brought us to Kanarraville. Our monthly school conference commenced today, but owing to a little misunderstanding for party who arrived in time, but Elder George Reynolds and myself only arrived in time with a good team and arrived in time to attend the afternoon meeting. I attended a Priesthood meeting in the evening at which President James W. Crosby presided. Bishop Morgan gave us a hearty welcome. We attended all the conference meetings, besides a teachers' and Sunday's meeting, and were granted all the privileges we could desire by President Crosby in attending to Sunday school matters. We will long remember our visit to the Panguitch Stake of Zion, not forgetting the kind and continuous attentions bestowed upon us by the sisters in connection with caring for a whole treating the 35 miles from Panguitch to Kanarraville and partial return.

Tuesday, June 4—Left Kanarraville and after traveling 35 miles we arrived at Tintic and held a meeting there.

Wednesday, 5—Journed day's travel of 42 miles brought us to Marion ward, in Tooele. Here also we held a meeting.

Thursday, 6th—After traveling 35 miles we arrived at Kelsburg, and after a rest of two hours, pursued our journey 23 miles farther, making 58 miles passengers and team being somewhat worn after such a heavy day's travel. I was very thankful for a good night's rest at Bro. W. Jeffrey's, in the comfortably new settlement at Lake Water county.

Friday, June 7—By mistake, our conference had been advertised for today, and by 10 o'clock we were established in the meeting house crowded, notwithstanding the extra [illegible] at our opening meeting. Elder F. M. Lyman and J. M. Tanner honored us with their presence and counsel during the day.

Saturday, 8th—This day virtually closed out the days' Sunday school conference in the four stakes, viz: St. George, Kanab, Panguitch and Wayne, not by request we attended the Grantsville conference on Sunday morning 9th, and, after a journey of 23 miles, on Monday afternoon we held our last meeting at Burrville.

Monday, 10th—At quarter past 5 we started on our last day's travel homeward. After a ride of 32 miles we reached Salina in time for the R. G. W. train, which brought us home in safety, after a trip of 23 days.

We were gratified to find our Sunday school work going on in many places far beyond our expectations, especially where live and energetic Stake superintendents do their duty in visiting, counseling and encouraging the local superintendents and teachers throughout the Stake. Nearly all the officers and scholars are observing the Word of Wisdom, as are also the majority of the Saints. One merchant told us he had to counterpaned his orders in San Francisco for tea, as little now being called for. At Burrville, no one under the age of 20 years uses tobacco.

We missed the train of the main four times, viz., south of Kanarra, south of Graham ward, over the Escalante mountains and north of Tropic. Much of the country was grand and beautiful. We traveled several hundred miles by team, over roads that were hard on passengers and team, and some portions smooth and pleasant.

We had a variety of weather, from the extreme hurricane, that leveled trees and moved mountains of dust, to the moderate and pleasant. And amidst all this, God our Heavenly Father preserved our lives and our health, blessed us richly with His Holy Spirit, scattering in to our souls of eternal truth among the young and the aged, gave us favor with thousands of His Saints, and for all these things we bless His holy name.

The authorities of each Stake, together with all others who so kindly ministered to our comfort, and drove us from place to place, will long live in our memories with deep gratitude.

GEORGE GODDARD.

Held to the Grand Jury.

Hom Matthews had a hearing before Commissioner Greenhalgh yesterday afternoon on the charge of assaulting Annie R. Nell, of Mill Creek, with intent to kill, when it was shown that the defendant had attacked Nell with an iron bar, since knocked over the head with it, inflicting very serious injuries. Matthews was held in bonds of $500 to await the action of the grand jury, 18th, failing to find bail action, he was sent to the county jail.

Habeas Corpus.

Chief Justice Merritt has issued a writ of habeas corpus in the matter of George Bonnes, alias "Billie" Bonnes, confinable on felonies. Bonnes is undergoing a sentence of ninety days' imprisonment in the city jail for rape, and, as the writer says, S. P. Armstrong and C. D. Rowe, both said to be a legally qualified and was convicted on the charge of "failing to pay confinement" on whose authority, is therefore in. Judge H. W. Smith will hear the case at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Infant's Body Found.

News comes from Eureka, Tintic, this morning to the effect that the dead body of an infant of uncertain parentage, was found there yesterday by workmen engaged in excavating for the new Hotel Rich Hill. The infant is said to be of a dark complexion, and that it has not died from natural cause. An investigation is being made.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, June 14, 1895.

Chamber of Commerce.

At a meeting of the chamber of commerce, held last evening, committees were appointed to assist the local lodge of the Knights of Pythias entertain the large number of visiting Knights who will attend the grand lodge of the order which meets in the 17th and 18th inst. A display of fruits, minerals and other products of the county will be made at some convenient place in the meeting, to show the visitors from an idea of the resources of the county.

Mr. Robert Skelton was authorized to extend an invitation to Mr. and Mrs. McGrath, the John-Ottman bargain's prizes, to visit Provo as the guests of the chamber of commerce.

A Surgical Operation.

This between County Physicians Allen, aided by Doctors Taylor, Noyes and Hoagberg, removed several pieces of decayed bone from the left side of George E. Steele, a young man 20 years of age, who lives in the mouth of Provo canyon. He has been suffering from an internal abscess for about five years, the result of an improperly healed case of pneumonia, and his condition became so critical that the county finally took charge of him with a view to giving him proper medical and surgical treatment. He was moved to the residence of Mrs. Sophia Hyde, of the First ward, about two weeks ago, where he has received good nursing from Mrs. Hyde. Dr. Allen has attended him professionally in order to prepare the system for the operation.

Notes and Personals.

The Second ward Sunday school gave an enjoyable entertainment, consisting of music, reading and a laughable farce, last evening, at the ward house. Great credit is due the teachers and children for the creditable manner in which the program was rendered. A nice little sum of money was realized, which will be used to buy books for the library.

Wm. Tyrell, of Lake Shore, entered a plea of not guilty, yesterday afternoon, in Justice De Mont's court, to a charge of stealing a 101 note from W. H. Wilson, also of Lake Shore. Hearing was set for Monday. The case was brought to the attention of the local officers and all the attorneys wanted to go fishing, and Monday was agreed upon.

Yesterday afternoon a young man from Spanish Fork, named Smith, became engaged in a quarrel, which ended in a fight, with one Italian at Castella Springs. Frank Candy and Dan Sharp, of Provo, were there and went to the rescue of Smith, and one man's hand was broken in the encounter. The Americans finally conquered.

Martha Brash, of Nephi, has commenced suit for divorce against Wm. H. Brash. The parties intermarried in Nephi in August, 1893. The suit alleges failure to support as a ground for divorce, and asks for the custody of one minor child.

The Odd Fellows and their friends enjoyed a pleasant outing yesterday afternoon at the New West grove. Out door games and dancing, backed by delicious refreshments caused the pioneers to have a thoroughly enjoyable time.

This afternoon the printers and merchants play the national game, the former challenged the latter after their victory over the attorneys a short time ago.

Marinda M. Glazier et al have filed papers in the First district court in a suit against Arthur C. Newell et al to quiet title to real estate situated in Provo City.

Selectman Paul, of Cache county, is in the city to confer with the directors of the insane asylum which meet today.

The school year of the Proctor academy closed yesterday. Interesting commencement exercises were held last evening.

George Y. Myers, aged 22, and Mary Lee Wilson, aged 21, both of Highland precinct, have received a marriage license.

Numerous fishing parties go up Provo canyon tomorrow to celebrate the opening of the angling season.

MARRIAGES.

MYERS—To the wife of Charles Myers, of a boy, twenty-one pounds, at Provo, June 11, a grand boy, it being the Eleventh child born to Mr. and Mrs. Myers. Mother and child are doing well and the father says he is happy.

Tired, Weak, Nervous

Hood's Sarsaparilla Restores Strength and Bodily Vigor.

The cause of that tired, weak, nervous condition in which so many people find themselves, is the failure of the blood to properly nourish the nerves and tissues. Feed the nerves upon pure blood, and they will be steady and strong. Read this:

"It is with pleasure I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent nerve tonic and blood purifier. I have taken it for nervousness, and this case was so trying to me. I was tired, my body ached, and I felt very little all over. I was advised to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and found it just what I needed. I thought I would take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and and I feel that it is a tonic that is the doctor's pills. I think a Pill is the best I have ever taken and I am sincere. I am glad to take an opportunity to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. C. H. VOUGHT, Kutztown, Pa.
