SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

DR. PRICE'S TRUE FLAVORING EXTRACTS.—Vanilla, Lemon, and all extracts used in flavoring ice cream, jellies, cakes, etc., are acknowledged after a thorough trial by the best housekeepers in the land to be always as represented, bottles holding half more than others sold for same size, natural coloring, free from poisonous oils, so concentrated that a small quantity gives all the flavor required. Strange that persons will use worthless extracts when such natural flavors as Dr. Price's are to be had. They are really equal to his celebrated Cream Baking Powder.

DURYEAS' "Satin Gloss Starch" and Duryeas' "Improved Corn Starch" is the best in the world. Use it once and you will use no other.

MILWAUKEE, June 15, 1872.—After using Duryeas' Starch in my hotel laundry for ten months, I can recommend it as being the whitest, strongest and most glossy starch I can purchase.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—A sense of duty impels me to say that Dr. C. W. Higgins' medicines have done for me what no other physician's have been able to do. I have suffered for eighteen terrible years with the worst form of epileptic fits and have been treated by the most eminent physicians of Europe, but without relief; I have also had the advice of some of the local physicians in this City, but until eight weeks ago, when Dr. C. W. Higgins tried his new and wonderful method of treatment, I had given up in despair, having been subject to these fits every six or nine days for eighteen years, and since Dr. H. took my case in hand I have not had a symptom of them, and I wish to make known far and near to every one afflicted with this awful malady the physician that cures. John Worthington, Second South Street, 14th Ward, Salt Lake City.

DR. C. W. HIGGINS. Dear Sir—I have used a portion of the medicines you prepared for me and am much gratified in informing you that I am well. I have faith in your remedies and can with pleasure recommend them to all who are suffering from the want of proper medical treatment. Your liniment cured me of neuralgia at once, and my other complaints have all left me now, never to return, I hope, if they do I shall call on you at once. I consider your remedies truly wonderful.
I am with respect,
MRS. B. S. REHUSTRIN.
Tenth Ward, Salt Lake City, Aug. 14, 1874.

Dr. C. W. HIGGINS.—Dear Sir,—Permit me to add my testimony to your professional skill. Your medicines have cured me of a very bad case of gravel. I suffered intensely for a long time, and could get no relief until I took your medicines, which gave me relief at once, and a cure in a few days.—I remain, your friend forever, Mrs. S. HYDE, 7th Ward.

ALBERT CARRINGTON,

Tabernacle Meeting.—Elder Orson Pratt preached yesterday afternoon.

Weber Coal.—Coal from the Weber mines is rolling into this market again.

A Good Start.—Prof. Maeser's seminary starts the term with nearly a hundred pupils. Pretty good for a commencement.

For Lake Side.—The members of the "Wasatch" Fire Company and their friends purpose soon to have an excursion to Lake Side.

Roasting.—Pretty hot weather just now. When one finds the mercury hugging 90 degrees as late as five o'clock in the afternoon, it is not exactly cool enough to pay for putting yourself in a passion.

The Indians.—A despatch from Hebron, Southern Utah, tells of a peculiar movement among the Indians in that locality. Evidently a powerful spirit is beginning to operate upon them. They assert that they are directed in their movements by the "Great Spirit."

Obsequies.—The obsequies of the late James Allen, the young man who was accidentally killed in Emigration Canyon on Saturday morning, took place at the 20th Ward school house at 10 o'clock this morning. A large number of the friends and relatives of deceased attended.

The British Mission.—The following are from the Millennial Star, Aug. 4—

"CHANGE.—Elder E. N. Freeman, late President of the Bristol Conference, is appointed to labor in the Sheffield Conference, under the direction of Elder R. W. Heyberne, instead of the Newcastle on Tyne and Durham Conference, as per previous appointment.

"THE FIFTH AND LAST COMPANY for Utah will leave Liverpool on the 2nd of September, when those can go who have means of their own or are advised from this Office, provided they are here on or before September 1st."

Needless Expense—There are stationed here seven full companies of U. S. infantry and one of cavalry and at Beaver—some one hundred and forty miles south, four more, full companies of infantry. In the opinion of many, well qualified to judge, there is no need of them in Utah. The Mormon people are not only law abiding and peaceable, but the most industrious class of inhabitants I have ever seen or known. With the disbanding of these useless troops a million or more of dollars would be saved annually, to our already impoverished and debt laden country.—Col. Peter Saxe.

AUGUST 17, 1874.
Editor Deseret News:

In your issue of Saturday last you stated that Soren Larson, who was found dead on Mill Creek, was a relative of mine, which statement please correct, as said Larson was an entire stranger to me; I never saw him before.
C. HULDBERG.

The writer of the above is mistaken, as the name given in the NEWS was Hillsby, not Huldberg, but it should have been James Peterson, who was the relative of the deceased referred to. The wrong name was published by mistake on the part of our informant.

Conference, &c., in England.—According to report in the Millennial Star, the Bristol Conference was held in the Forester's Hall, Alvin Street, Gloucester, on Sunday, July 19, Elder B. H. Watts presiding, and Elder Charles Sansom acting as Secretary.

Present on the stand—Prest. Jos. F. Smith, Elders R. V. Morris, B. H. Watts, E. N. Freeman and Charles Sansom.

Meetings were held at 10.30 a.m. and 2.30 and 5 p.m., and the audiences were addressed by the abovenamed Elders.

"There was a good attendance of the Saints at Conference, and al appeared happy and well pleased with the instructions given, and feeling well inspaid for the long distance many of them had come. There were a few strangers present, and peace prevailed at all the meetings."

A District meeting was held in the Hockley Chapel, Farm Street, Birmingham, July 12, Elder R. V. Morris presiding, and Elder T. H. Robinson acting as clerk. Elders present from Utah—Joseph F. Smith, President of the European Mission; John C. Graham, of the Millennial Star office; R. V. Merris, President of the Birmingham Conference; and B. T. Young, Travelling Elder.

Meetings were held at 10 a.m. and 2 and 6 p.m. The audiences were addressed by the abovenamed Elders.

University of Deseret.—We have before us the circular of the academical department of the University of Deseret, for the year 1874-5. The following are the Chancellor and Board of Regents—

Chancellor, D. H. Wells; Board of Regents, Isaac Groo, Joseph A. Young, Henry I. Doremus, Albert Carrington, George Q. Cannon, Geo. J. Taylor, Brigham Young, Jr., David Q. Calder, Henry W. Naisbitt, George Reynolds, David McKenzie.

Robert L. Campbell, lately deceased, was a member of the Board.

The officers of the Board, besides the Chancellor, are—B. H. Schettler, Secretary, Thomas W. Ellerbeck, Treasurer; David O. Calder, George Reynolds, George J. Taylor, Isaac Groo and H. W. Naisbitt, Executive Committee.

The faculty comprises, John R. Park, M. D., President of the University, Professor of Natural History and Literature; Jos. L. Rawlins, Professor of Ancient Languages and Mathematics; F. M. Bishop, Professor of Natural Science; Karl G. Maeser, Professor of German.

The circular is mainly devoted to remarks on and the classifications of the various studies that will be prosecuted under its auspices, the rules and government of the University and other important matters. The first term of the approaching academical year will commence August 24th, and will begin under most favorable auspices. It is an educational institution that should receive the most liberal support of the public.

A Cool and Daring Robbery.—A cool and daring garotting case occurred on the Folsom block, 14th Ward, on Saturday night. Mr. Guy Foote, son of Mr. Timothy Foote, of Salt Creek, lives in a house next to the house of Mr. E. W. East, in the locality mentioned. Near ten o'clock he went out and got a bucket of water from the well, and, as he was returning to the house, he was accosted by a man, who asked him to step over in the direction of Mr. East's, as there was a gentleman over there who wished to see him. Mr. Foote unsuspectingly and unthinkingly accompanied the stranger, and got over the fence into the adjoining lot, when all at once it occurred to him that there might be some foul play intended. He said, "I will go no further," and turned to walk southward by the side of the fence. The moment he did so he was seized by a strong hand, by the collar, drawn backwards, and another hand was placed over his mouth, to prevent an outcry. The man who accosted him also grappled him, and he was laid flat on his back, one of the villains with his knee on his chest, and a hand on his mouth, into which latter one of the fingers found its way, which Mr. Foote readily seized with his teeth, causing the fiscoundrel to utter an exclamation of pain, and the other to strike Mr. Foote a violent blow on the cheek.

Luckily Mr. Foote had nothing valuable on his person. He had a coin, resembling a twenty-dollar gold piece, which, they took, evidently thinking it was money, so they got nothing for their trouble.

The above narrated circumstance took place in a short space of time, and the surprise of Mrs. Foote may be imagined when her husband returned, after an absence of ten or fifteen minutes, with his face bruised and bleeding, and related his rather unpleasant experience.

The number of robbery cases of the last few days should make our citizens careful about exposing themselves after dark, where they would be unable to protect themselves against attacks from the gang of thieves which now infests this city, and who have so suddenly commenced operations.

The "Missionary Judge."—The missionary judge was at the Methodist "love feast," at the M. E. Church, yesterday and delivered himself of a speech. There is nothing remarkable in his speaking in a Methodist meeting, it being well known that his honor is a Methodist, but the spirit he manifested was the peculiar part. He eulogized the Methodist religion, which he had a perfect right to do. He said his "sainted father" had been a Methodist for sixty-five years, his mother was still a Methodist, and his only brother was a Methodist clergyman. It was an earnest religion, just such a religion as was needed in Utah to combat the stronghold of fanaticism. It required an earnest religion and earnest men to accomplish this work; furthermore it required aggressive measures to break down the stronghold of fanaticism.

Everybody is acquainted with the Judge's crusading proclivities, as manifested all through his judicial course in Utah, but here is a new phase of his position; he even steps out of his judicial position and, assuming the full role of a religionist, recommends, also in that capacity, aggressive measures against a religious body other than his own. How frequently men like him, in their movements to abridge the liberties of the people of Utah, say they have no desire to interfere with the religion of the "Mormons," yet the true spirit of the crusade crops out ever and anon.

Had a prominent "Mormon" preacher, in a "Mormon" meeting, advocated aggressive measures against Methodism, what a hue and cry of "Mormon" intolerance, despotism, and persecution would have been raised about it, and yet the "Mormons" have just as much right to consider Methodism the stronghold of fanaticism, as the Methodists have to consider "Mormonism in that light. But the "Mormons" believe in everybody enjoying their own peculiar religious views, and no one has the constitutional right to interfere with them in that capacity, by the instituting of aggressive measures for that purpose. The religion of the "Mormons" is just as dear and sacred to them as the religion of any other people is to them, a fact amply testified to by their past history, and they are as much entitled to respect therein as any others. Furthermore the "Mormons" purpose adhering to and sustaining their religion by every rightful means and under the blessing of that God, on whom they always rely for support, aggressive measures of bigots to the contrary notwithstanding.

This advocacy of aggressive measures is as peculiar as the statement of a case in which a respected and esteemed citizen of Utah was before the Judge's, at that time, illegal tribunal, on a trumped up charge, when the Court made the astounding and committal statement that the case at bar was not in reality the people of the United States in the Territory of Utah versus the defendant, its other and real title being the government or people of the United States versus polygamic theocracy.

Some Quashing and More Arresting.—This morning, in the case of Andrew Burt, S. W. Taylor and N. V. Jones, before Commissioner Toohy, counsel for defence moved that the warrant under which the parties were arrested be quashed on the ground that it contained two counts, of two offenses, one charge under a Territorial and the other under a U. S. statute. There was no alternative but to grant the motion. The defendants admitted service, however, under two separate warrants.

Captain Burt was arrested to-day on still another charge, preferred by Mr. Funge, for alleged beating of him over the head on election day.

Captain Burt must be getting kind of used to being arrested by this time. May he not expect to be arrested, yet, by every ruffian who has been in the city prison, no matter the offense of such ruffian, as well as by the rioters at the late election?

Another Police and U. S. Marshal Case.—This morning another of those election day charges, came up for a preliminary investigation, before U. S. Commissioner Toohy. The accused were Captain Burt, chief of the City police, and Messrs. N. V. Jones and S. W. Taylor. The charge was brought under the Territorial statutes, and under the U. S. laws, and was, ostensibly, an assault with intent to kill one C. W. Belding, and also for hindering said worthy in "the discharge of his duties in preserving the peace" at the polls at the City Hall, in this City, on election day. Many are of the opinion that, before these cases are through with, it will appear that the only charge that could or should be brought against the police and their assistants, was attempting to hinder a lot of drunken meddlers, busybodies and rowdies from interfering with the business of infinitely better men duly authorized to keep the peace on the above named day.

Mr. Carey, U. S. Attorney for Utah, appeared for the prosecution, and Messrs. Snow and Sutherland for the defence.

The following witnesses were examined for the prosecution: C. W. Belding, C. P. Westcott, Arthur Pratt and G. W. Bostwick, some of whom testified that the accused, Jones, struck Belding on the head with an instrument called a billy, and that the accused, Taylor, struck him with his fist. The only evidence, seemingly, against Captain Burt was that he was present, that he was seen with an iron weapon of some kind in his hand, and the last witness said that he, Burt, held it over his, the witness' head; but nobody saw him strike or do any other harmful act.

The Court took a recess until half-past 2 o'clock.

THE ONLY MEDICAL FRIEND,

IN case of Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus and Cholera, it is Ringoldsby's Bennes Friend, a thirty years' remedy in the Mississippi Valley. The acknowledged specific in 1849 and 1866. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Read the following testimonial from the late Father DeSmet, the great Indian missionary:

ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY,
June 9, 1872.

Messrs. J. & C. Maguire:

Long experience in the use of your valuable EXTRACT OF BENNES PLANT justifies me in saying that I believe it to be an excellent remedy for any form of bowel affections for which you recommend it. On every occasion when I have given it, I am happy to inform you that it has been successful in affording relief.
Very truly, your friend,
P. J. DESMET, S. J.

From Rt. Rev.
