Will Quit Work.

HAZLETON, Pa., 15.—A delegate meeting, representing a majority of collieries in this region, resolved to quit work to-night, as the 12½ reduction of June 1st will not be restored.

Vermont Centennial Anniversary.

BENNINGTON, Vt., 15.—At 9 30 a.m. the uniformed militia of Vermont, New Hampshire and Connecticut entered upon the parade ground and formed in line. The crowning feature of the procession comprised war veterans of Vermont in their every-day attire, rough and ready for duty. The divisions formed near the railroad station, convenient to headquarters. The chief marshal marched through the principal streets to the Centennial fields, where the military and civilians took positions right and left of the pavilion to which were escorted Vermont's centennial governor and all distinguished guests. The military were now dismissed and the procession dissolved.

An address of welcome was delivered by E. J. Phelps, president of the Vermont Centennial Commission, in which he said: "I have but few words to offer, my friends, in introducing the services appointed for this occasion. The State of Vermont commemorates to-day the one hundredth anniversary of her birth, the termination, the happy and prosperous termination of the first century of her existence as an independent State. To-morrow we shall signalize one of the important victories of the revolutionary battlefields. To-day is devoted to those other victories not less renowned and not less fruitful—the victories of peace. To all who have assembled here, whether friends or strangers, to the distinguished guests that grace the occasion with their presence, to all children of Vermont, who from near or far, from many homes have gathered to honor the centennial birthday of their native State, I am charged on her behalf to extend a cordial, kindly, and general welcome."

This address was followed by an oration by Hon. Daniel Roberts; the reading of Mrs. Dorr's poem, and speeches by ex-Governors Hawley and Harriman, representatives of Connecticut and New Hampshire.

General Banks represented Massachusett in the absence of the Governor because of sickness. Governor Connor appeared for Maine. The enthusiasm was great, and it is estimated that 500,000 people witnessed the procession. Bands of music were numerous and the cheers of the people hearty and spontaneous.

President Hayes and party arrived at North Bennington, and were received by Governor Fairbanks and staff and the Centennial Commission. They all proceeded to Bennington, arriving at 4 p. m., and were received with military honors and the firing of a salute. The President's party then entered carriages in waiting and were escorted to the residence of Rev. John Tibbits. The streets were thronged and cheer followed cheer. From many houses depended banners, bearing the words: "Welcome to the President."

The Railroad Disaster—Jury Verdict.

NEW YORK, 15.—The coroner's jury says, the recent railroad disaster at Oceanport was caused by John Conrow giving the safety signal to the approaching train without seeing that the draw was securely fastened. It recommends a lower rate of speed while crossing bridges.

International Rifle Match Rules.

The rules for the government of the International rifle match soon to take place have been adopted. They mainly are: Rifles not exceeding ten pounds minimum; pull of trigger three pounds; distances 800, 900 and 1,000 yards; number of shots thirty at each range by each competitor; no sighting shots; match to last two days; competitors to fire fifteen shots at each distance upon each day, commencing at 800 yards.

Knights of Pythias.

CLEVELAND, O., 15.—The Knights of Pythias had the grand prize drill on the northern fair grounds this afternoon. This evening a banquet and reception, in honor of the supreme lodge of the ward, were given by the grand lodge of Ohio. This closes the jubilee part of the gathering. The supreme lodge will begin actual business tomorrow, and probably be in session the remainder of the week.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, 15.—The report of the committee to examine into the New Orleans Custom House recommends the abolition of the naval officer and the construction of a revenue boat to cruise at the mouth of the Mississippi River to prevent smuggling, and also the cutting down of the Custom House force more than 25 per cent., and the expenses in the same proportion.

Government declines to interfere at present in the matter of the seizure at New York of the steamship Denmark, whose sub-ordinate officers were caught smuggling silks.

The Labor league here wants the national convention during the session of congress to petition for such redress as they desire; favors impartial suffrage in the district and the repeal of the resumption act.

Secretary Thompson and a party of friends inspected the United States steamer Plymouth to-day. The secretary promoted Patrick Lynch to be acting gunner for meritorious conduct on shore during the recent labor disturbances.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Suppression of the Slave Trade.

LONDON, 15.—The new convention concluded between Great Britain and Egypt for the suppression of the slave trade, entirely prohibits the export or import of negro slaves. Egyptian slave traders will be tried by court martial for assassins. The Khedive engages to abolish all private traffic in slaves in Egypt within seven years, and within twelve years in Soudan and the frontier provinces.

Eastern War News.

Scudamore has resigned the directorship of the International Ottoman postoffice.

Turkish ironclads sunk a Greek vessel cruising off the island of Cirigo.

The Christian population of the province of Janina are fleeing to escape Turkey.

From reports concerning massacres it seems that if affairs continue many days longer not a single Christian will be left alive on the slopes of the southern Balkans.

The Russian centre is heavily reinforced and has commenced a serious offensive movement. Important events are expected.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Inquiry—Baptisms—Opposition.

ELYRIA, Lorain Co., Ohio, Aug. 6, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

Dear Brothers—Having just returned from a weeks' tour in the surrounding country, in which my time has been employed in active promulgation of the doctrines of the Gospel and other missionary duties, I take the present opportunity of acquainting you and the interested readers of your paper of the progress made by the great latter-day cause in the field where in I am now laboring.

The prospects of success are brightening very apparently. Notwithstanding the storm of abuse and slander so unsparingly poured out upon our people recently, in which some newspapers have figured so energetically and conspicuously, the outlook now is far better than before. In fact, the mendacious attacks of these journals have only had the effect of advertising "Mormonism" more widely than ever. People all over the country are awaking to a spirit of inquiry, and a "Mormon" is looked upon as a popular curiosity of the day.

I have received several communications from different parts of this State asking for correct information regarding the people of Utah, the writers being unwilling to receive as truth the gross misrepresentations spread abroad by the enemies of right and justice, and am now in regular correspondence with others who live farther away and are deeply interested in the principles of life and salvation. Nor is this all. Invitations to preach are again coming in, and opportunities seem improving on all sides for the spread of the truth.

After speaking by request to an audience in the suburbs of this place on Sunday evening, the 29th ult., I started for Akron, Summit Co., on the morning of the following Tuesday. Here I was well received, preached twice to very attentive audiences, and baptized during the trip eight persons; leaving others favorably disposed to the doctrines of Christ, who doubtless will in time come forward and embrace them. I shall preach here again in a day or two and then go into the country in another direction.

Oppositon is everywhere strong, our enemies descending to the lowest and meanest of measures to retard the progress of God's work, but truth is mighty and is bound to triumph in the end, despite all the puny efforts of a wicked and perverse generation to work its overthrow. We must be humble, prayerful and patient, and success is certain.

Your Brother in the Gospel, ORSON F. WHITNEY.

Two Foolish Young Kentuckians.

Daniel Brown, who was a local for the Shelby Sentinel, two weeks ago burlesqued a younger brother of Byron Yount who had a fight with a young Perry—both boys being under 15 years of age. Saturday evening last John Yount, the boy, met Mr. Brown at Cooper's, and, taking him aside, asked him something in regard to the article in the Sentinel. Brown not making the matter satisfactory, John Yount expressed his boyish indignation. Brown slapped Johnny over and walked off. John reported the affair to his older brother, Byron, who espoused his quarrel, and during the evening he and Brown passed some high words. Each knowing the other's disposition well, they parted and prepared themselves for the next meeting. Brown borrowed a little four-shot pistol from his friend, James Edwards, and Yount, after seeking in vain for a weapon, took a pistol from his private drawer.

Thus prepared, the two walked toward each other and met at the railroad, one on one rail and the other on the opposite rail. In this position Brown asked Yount when he was ready; Yount replied, "Now," and both fired simultaneously into each other, only five feet apart. Yount's ball entered Brown's right breast. Brown's ball entered the lower part of Yount's abdomen, and ranged downward into the leg. Brown continued to fire, and emptied his four barrels, one ball entering Yount's wrist, another entering his right side. Yount's pistol refused to revolve, and while under fire, he spat on his thumb and endeavored to wrench the cylinder around; but failing, he closed with Brown, and they pounded and pummelled each other with their pistols until they were parted; they again run together, and fought until both fell from exhaustion. When taken apart Brown's grip was still upon Yount's arm, which had to be loosened by friends forcing open the hands.

Both parties were laid upon the platform, a short distance from each other, and five doctors summoned; but no relief could be afforded Brown. While lying thus, Yount, it is said, swore at Brown, and said to him, if he could only reach him he would soon put him out of the way. Brown died at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, and was buried at Pleasureville Cemetery on Sunday. Yount lingered until Sunday evening, when he, too, died after suffering great pain. Brown was a graduate of Eminence College, was a member of the Christianburg Baptist Church, and was beloved and and respected in his section. Yount was the son of George Yount, a well-to-do and highly respected farmer of Shelby County.—Frankfort Yeoman.

HIGHEST HONORS AT THE UNITED STATES Centennial World Exhibition, 1876.

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the "FIRST RANK IN THE "SEVERAL REQUISITES" of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA, 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875 PHILADELPHIA, 1876; and have thus been awarded highest honors at

at which they have been exhibited; being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained Any Award at any competition with best European makers, or in any European World's Exposition!

NEW STYLES, with improvements, exhibited at the CENTENNIAL, elegant new cases in great variety. Prices very lowest consistent with best material and workmanship. Organs sold for cash on installments, or rented until rent pays. Every Organ warranted to give entire satisfaction to every reasonable purchaser or THE MONEY REFUNDED. ☞ ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.
