The Southern Pacific Will Haul Them to Ogden If the U. P. Will Furnish Transportation There.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 6.—The California regiment of the industrial army, to the number of 600, arrived in Sacramento at noon today. ...

A company of 200 men have been organized in Sacramento, ... Arrangements had been previously made for caring for the army in Agricultural Park. The city authorities had prepared for them a substantial dinner, consisting of soup, beef, bread and coffee.

Colonel Baker, one of the field officers, speaking for the army, expressed great indignation at the treatment which the men had received at the hands of the Oakland authorities. ...
