REPORT OF THE JUBILEE COMMISSION.

What Body Proposing for an Accounting to the Governor and Legislature of the Task It Has Performed.

The semi-official committee held a meeting at the Deseret National bank this afternoon, Chairman Clawson presiding. The meeting was an interesting one as at it the matter of making a report to the Governor and Legislature was under consideration. The grand accomplishments of the commission in the success of the Jubilee will make the report a valuable one. The copy that is intended for the Governor of the State will be accompanied by two magnificently bound volumes of books, containing beautiful illustrations and finely printed matter descriptive of Pioneer history.

The first volume consists of 41 pages. The cover is of the finest Russia morocco, artistically adorned with gold and silver ornamentations designed by H. W. Naisbitt, Judge C. C. Goodwin and Judge Colfaxin, engraved by E. J. Weaver. The front lid has as a central ornament a large silver plate of diamond shape, on which appears a period in gold of the Pioneer monument, encircled by a flattened surface silver band upon which are emblazoned the words, "Honor to Whom Honor is Due." Directly above this figure is a representation of a bunch of grapes, and immediately below is the State seal also in the yellow metal. On either corner of the lid is a design in silver expressive of the agricultural products of the State while the reverse, very fully as beautiful suggests in finely engraved letters in close proximity to that emblem of industry the bee, the manufacturing interests of Utah.

The first illustration of the book is a splendid steel engraving of President Young. This is followed by a picture of the unveiling of the Pioneer Monument by President Woodruff. Chairman Clawson's address; address of Governor Wells to the Legislature; appropriation of that body for Bond-Centennial expenses; names of the Jubilee commission; names of delegates appointed by the Governor to invite President McKinley to the Jubilee; the address to the President; the President's reply; names of the 143 original pioneers; names of the 28 pioneers belonging to the original 143 who were living at the time of the celebration; and autographs of all living Pioneers of 1847 whose patronymics begin with letters running from A to L inclusive.

The second volume is similarly bound and ornamented, and its covers are symbolic of the mining interests and natural products of the State. Among its contents are President Woodruff's likeness, photographs of the Pioneer group taken in front of the Assembly Hall during the Jubilee; Hall of Relics; History of the Mormon Battalion; President Woodruff's badge with descriptive article; autographs of 147 Pioneers whose names commence with letters ranging from M to Z.

All of the work on these magnificent volumes which will be deposited in the archives of the State was done by Utah artists and reflects great credit upon their ability and upon the excellent taste of Chairman Clawson and the commission, under whose supervision it has been done.

AMUSEMENTS.

The company presenting Under the Red Robe at the Theater closed a phenomenal engagement last evening, the house being crowded. The matinee yesterday afternoon was a perfect crush and every available inch of room was in demand, many contending themselves with hastily improvised seats of any kind, and two or three well known ladies viewed the performance seated upon a table, located immediately back of the last row of seats in the dress circle. The performances seemed to please generally speaking.

The next attraction at the Theater will be Dione Bell, in the Minnie Maddern Fiske play, Tuesday evening, November 23rd. This play by Augustus Thomas, author of Alabama and a number of other successful plays and is said to equal, if not excel, any of his previous efforts. Dione Bell has always been a favorite with our Lake audiences and her present visit should be a remunerative one.

Morgan Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Morgan Stake was held at Morgan city on Sunday and Monday, the 14th and 15th of November. There were present on the stand, Elders Abraham O. Woodruff and Seymour B. Young, from Salt Lake City, President Richard Fry, of Morgan Stake, with his counselors, Samuel Francis and William H. Hall, together with several members of the High Priests' quorum. President Fry called the congregation to order. After the opening exercises, a few remarks were received from some of the wards, which were followed by remarks by Elder Woodruff, who spoke with great earnestness upon man's indifference to his divine duties, showing that part of human happiness which they, through the neglect of duty, did not enjoy.

The afternoon meeting was called to order by Counselor Samuel Francis, who, after making a few remarks, was followed by Elder Woodruff. He spoke of the soul and life which exists among our youth, compared the works and power of God to those of man, spoke of the magnitude of God's mercy to those who are truly penitent, made some very pointed remarks upon the power of example, to which he perceived clearly that belief without action availeth man nothing. His closing remarks were addressed to the young men, admonishing them to put their minds to the study of the scriptures.

The mutual improvement associations convened at 7 p.m., before which Elder Woodruff delivered a discourse on the divine authenticity of the Book of Mormon.

Monday, Nov. 15th—Counselor Wm. H. Rich called the congregation to order at 10 a.m. After the opening exercises, the general and local authorities of the Church were unanimously sustained.

Elder Seymour B. Young spoke on the foundation of the Church as being the "rock" that the gates of hell could not prevail against; advised the Saints to build their house on that rock where the storms of adversity could not cause them to fall; spoke of the loyalty of the Saints during the past decade. Elder Woodruff was the next speaker; he commenced by giving some timely advice to the Stake missionaries, exhorting them to take up a real missionary later among those who were inclined to be indifferent; exhorted the brethren to be kind to their wives. It being their home, in closing he prayed God's blessing to be with the officers and members of the Morgan Stake of Zion.

Counselor W. H. Rich was the first speaker at the afternoon meeting. He dwelt upon the condition of the people in general; said there was room for improvement; that the Saints were not exactly up to the mark. Elder Seymour B. Young spoke as to respect the divine authority of the Book of Mormon, and gave good advice to the young, also to parents and the saints in general.

The reports of the Bishops from the various wards were mostly encouraging, notwithstanding there was a spirit of indifference reported to be existing throughout the Stake; but the majority of the people were trying to live up to their duties as Latter-day Saints. President Richard Fry's report of the Stake was encouraging; he said that the Stake was in a prosperous condition and he thought the people were trying to live up to their duties; said that the presidency of the Stake were always among the Saints in some of the wards every Sabbath except last day.

O. F. EBBENBACH, Acting Clerk.

Home From Great Britain.

Elder J. S. Thurgood of West Bountiful, called on the "News" Wednesday evening on his return from a mission to Great Britain to his home the past two years having been cast with the people of the Newcastle conference of Cumberland county, in England. Elder Thurgood left home Oct. 26, 1895, and reports having had much enjoyment in his labors. He says the people are gradually becoming converted to the Gospel and that they treat the Elders with much respect. He labored with Elders Daniel Miner and C. K. Rose, the former of West Bountiful the latter of this city, and left them both in the enjoyment of good health. Their mission address is 14 Cecil street, Carlisle, Eng., and if any of the Saints in Utah have friends there they desire visited, the Elders would be pleased to call on them.

Elder C. L. Galbraith of Mexico accompanied Elder Thurgood from England to Kansas City where they separated, the former going direct to his home. Elder Galbraith has been laboring in the Newcastle conference also, but was released to return home on account of his father's ill health.

The People Believe

What They Read About Hood's Sarsaparilla

Their Faith in This Medicine Is Grounded on Merit

They Know It Absolutely Cures When Other Medicines Fail

Hood's Sarsaparilla is not merely a simple preparation of Sarsaparilla, Dock, Pipsissewa and a little Iodide of Potassium.

Besides these excellent alteratives, it also contains those great anti-bilious and liver remedies, Mandrake and Dandelion. It also contains those great kidney remedies, Uva Ursi, Juniper Berries, and Pipsissewa.

These are these all. Other very valuable curative agents are harmoniously combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is carefully prepared under the personal supervision of a regularly educated pharmacist.

Knowing these facts, is the abiding faith the people have in Hood's Sarsaparilla a matter of surprise? You can see why Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, when other medicines totally, absolutely fail.

"My little girl was afflicted with eczema and suffered for seven years. She was attended by physicians and tried many different kinds of medicine without relief. After taking a few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla she was cured." MRS. EMMA FRANKLIN, Honeoye, New York.

The case of Peter A. Nielson vs the East Jordan Irrigating company commenced before a jury in Judge Cherry's court today. Plaintiff brought this action to recover $1,000 for alleged damages to his property by reason of the defendant company allowing the water from its canal near Draper, to percolate the bed of the canal and cross the farm lands of plaintiff. Nielson alleges that the injuries occurred during the irrigating seasons of the years 1895-6 and that during the periods named his crops were wholly destroyed.

Defendant in its answer denies the allegations and alleges that any damage or destruction to plaintiff's crops was caused by his own negligence and want of care. For a further defense defendant alleges that the claim for damage prior to the 15th of October, 1895, is barred by the statute of limitations. S. W. Stewart, T. D. Lewis and Judge Powers appear for plaintiff, and Hawkins and Critchlow for the defendant.

SANPETE STAKE CONFERENCE.

Satisfactory Reports and Timely Instruction by the Speakers.

Ephraim, Sanpete County, November 15, 1897.

To the Editor:

The conference of the Sanpete Stake of Zion was held in Manti on the 13th and 14th of November, 1897.

Present were Elders George Teasdale and Anthon H. Lund of the Apostles quorum; Elders J. R. W. McAllister, C. Peterson, Harry Peel and John H. Maiben of the Stake presidency; High Councilors, Bishops of wards and a large congregation.

Conference opened at 10 a.m. on the 13th by singing and prayer. Elder C. Peterson made the opening remarks.

Bishops Jones at Manti, Allred at Spring City, Peterson at Fairview, and Wm. T. Reid at Mount North said some reports of their wards. Considerable was expended as satisfactory, the present being a time of exceptional good health.

Elder John T. Allred reported the Young Men's Improvement Associations of the Stake.

Elder N. H. Noble reported the Sunday schools and religious classes in the Stake in a good condition.

Three stake Sunday meetings held during which much instruction was given by the Apostles present. The Saints were advised that when practicable they should adjust their difficulties without going to law, before the courts had time placed by the Church. The idea that intercourse so prevalent between the sexes received proper condemnation, and the terrible consequences that follow such intercourse was plainly portrayed. The necessity for a more strict observance of the Sabbath day was set forth; also the law of tithing should be more generally observed, and that the Saints should be workers and not theorists only.

Elder C. Peterson and counselor reported the condition of the Stake which corroborated the Bishops' reports. Elder McAllister addressed the Saints on Temple work.

The Stake statistical report was read. The general and Stake authorities were presented and sustained by the conference. The names of four Seventies and two Elders were presented and sustained to be ordained High Priests.

August 9, 1897.—The Centerfield ward was organized by Elder A. H. Lund and the Stake presidency by dividing the Ephraim ward, and retaining the Gunnison ward and ordaining Andrew Christian Palsted a High Priest and setting him apart as bishop of the Centerfield ward, with Sylvester Whiting as first counselor and Charles Henry Lindy as second counselor, who were also ordained High Priests.

On September 5, 1897, Elder A. H. Lund, in continuing with the Stake presidency, visited Freedom for the purpose of organizing that ward, which they did, and ordained Martin V. Taylor a High Priest and setting him apart as Bishop of the Freedom ward, with James W. Lowry first and Stephen S. Dallinger second counselor. These were also ordained High Priests.

The Morning Sunday school occupied one hour and thirty minutes Sunday morning, and was addressed by Elders Teasdale, Lund and Peterson. There were also singing and exercises on the Articles of Faith, conducted by Elder Lewis Sorenson.

After the usual closing exercises of singing and benediction conference adjourned for three months to meet in Ephraim.

Married in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—The marriage of Miss Mayme G. Ward and Mr. Fred W. Monks of Salt Lake, took place this morning at St. Patrick's church. Father Connolly performed the ceremony, which was attended only by the relatives and friends of the two families. The decorations in the church were mostly of chrysanthemums and palms, and the home of the bride, where the wedding breakfast was served, was tastefully arranged in the same manner. The bride, who was attended only by Miss Ida Noble as maid of honor, wore a going-away gown of dark blue cloth and carried bride's roses. Following the enjoyable wedding breakfast at the bride's home, Mr. and Mrs. Noble left for an extended eastern tour, at the close of which they will settle in Salt Lake where the groom is engaged in business.

His Just Cause to be Thankful.

St. George Union: John T. Larsen has cause to be thankful that he is still on this mundane sphere. He was working on the Cottonwood canal, near where some blasting was being done and at the cry of "fire! be quick! be a safe distance!" Hourigan's shot go off and thinking there was only one, he went to see how the blasters were getting along with their work. While looking around the shot went off and he started upward and with a sound resembling musketry, he was filled with spent rocks from a blast of twenty-six sticks of giant powder. He was unharmed, but he says he will not get on the top of a blast again to see it go off.

MINOR MENTION.

Lehi Banner: Superintendent Austin left for San Francisco on Sunday. It is his intention to visit all the sugar beet districts of California and then go to Utah, N. M. He will carefully study and examine the conditions existing in these districts and will learn all he can that will be of benefit to the farmers here.

Mr. Kornpkat has been in business continuously for the past eleven years, and his dealings have always been on the square. What is Glenwood's loss will be Salt Lake's gain. Mr. and Mrs. Kornpkat are leaving a host of friends who will rejoice at their success wherever they may go.

Smuggler Mine Fire Again Raging.

Aspen, Colo., Nov. 15.—The Smuggler mine fire is apparently gaining headway. Twice as much smoke and gas are coming out of the shaft today as yesterday and the danger of the blaze reaching the open timbers above the seventh level is increasing hourly. The management have virtually abandoned the burning stope in its fate until a drift can be run in the foot wall from which it can be attacked. This will take a week or ten days. The general situation, as regards other properties, is somewhat improved.
