CHRISTIANS IN GREAT DANGER.

Bitter Feud Reported to Exist and Other European Representatives Actively Pounded.

TURKEY, Sunday, April 28—The special correspondent of the Associated Press, who is investigating the situation in Armenia, has received the following:

The Turkish government is taking prompt measures to protect the property of the Armenian revolutionists and others. All those leading Turks from whom the Sultan has been afraid of the Turkish government, the revolutionists have fled to Persia and their wives to America. One Armenian outrage has taken place in Sasun, in Van, near Van, and another by the Turkish officials.

Within the past week the Turkish officials at Sasun failed, in Persia, and to cross over into Turkey with an armed escort of twelve men, but he was allowed back to Persia. The Kurds, who are the Sultan's tools, are bitter against all the Turks. It is said now that the Turkish officials in Van are so afraid of the Kurds that they are trying to leave the place, where they are now. The Kurds have warned you not to return.

The Armenians hope that the Kurds and Turks will get into a fight and exterminate each other. A memorial addressed to the authority with the Kurds may be found in a letter from Sasun, after Kurds, from the written to no number in the neighborhood of Kurdistan. Abdul Kadir announced that the cotton seed supplied by Turkish officials for Armenian engineers of a new Kurdish cavalry, together with a second regular Turkish force, and that Kurds are to be great war, and the Kurds are said to be ready to replace the Russian city of Van.

Many well-informed persons in Western Persia believe Abdul Hamid is on the verge of a great religious war, which the million of Turkey is helping over the world to order to retain his position as the Mohammedan.

In their minds there have been times the Sultan and Shah Mozaffer and telling the men that he would protect them. By the Turkish agreement, the Mayor of Persia are beginning to believe that nothing will be done, and that Europe is determined to let Armenia go to the wolves of Turkish rule. Meanwhile, the Persians are beginning to take of having a massacre of Christians that was so much. Were it not for the hatred felt for the Turkish government and the good will and protection of the south, the Christian population of Persia would so hard only within a week.

The situation in Armenia has grown worse, and the Christian people of all the Turkey are at present in great danger from the Turks, who are the worst in numbers. The village of Sasun has attacked by all Kurds and several other villages. The village is almost destroyed. A letter was written to the Kurds, as the Kurds have sent word that the town is remote. Rebellion has the fear of the earth is revenge for the death of one of their men. They will undoubtedly carry out their threats.
