FOR SALT LAKE IN 1899

Powerful Effort to Secure the Next Mutual Association Meet.

A MEETING AT THE KNUTSFORD TONIGHT

Little Chance for 1900, as the Big Organizations Is Desirous of Meeting in Paris That Year.

Salt Lake failed, after an heroic struggle, to secure the meeting of the National Educational Association in 1898. But that does not mean that it cannot be induced to come here a year hence or that it will not be made to that direction. What is proposed to be done is set forth in the following letter, copies of which are being mailed to persons interested in the movement:

Dear Sir—A year ago at a meeting of the teaching citizens of Salt Lake City it was decided to make an effort to secure for Utah the National Educational association for 1898. Great interest in our capital city was manifested by the action of the association in holding its Midwinter in 97, but the impossibility of having the meeting in the East for three years, and the fact that other at Paris, unfortunately contained a claimed for the West in 1899, made reconsideration advisable. We now propose to ask the opportunity for Salt Lake City to take care of a meeting of twenty years ago, and we have reason to believe that we can be successfully and uniquely thrilled to attend a meeting at the Knutsford hotel. Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, we shall meet for deliberation upon what action shall be taken in behalf of Salt Lake City and what means shall be used to secure the vote of the meeting into effect.

Very respectfully,

HEBER M. WELLS,
JOHN R. PARK,
J. M. MACFARLANE,
J. T. KINGSBURY,
J. F. MILLSPAUGH.

Coal and water is plentiful. We did not ascertain whether or not they intended returning.

M'MILLEN MURDER CASE

Called for Trial in the Criminal Court This Morning.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE TRAGEDY.

Work of Empaneling a Jury Promises Slowly—Text of a Damage Suit Against the City.

The case of John F. McMillen, charged with the murder of John Dee in the city on the 11th of July, 1897, was called by Judge Morrill in the criminal court this morning. District Attorney Van Cott and his deputy, Mr. Pierce, appear for the State, and Attorney Stevens for the defendant. C. C. Whitney represents the bondsmen.

Today's issue has been referred to the consideration of jurors, and in the interest of the public, it looks as though it would take several days to get a full jury empaneled.

The participants of the tragedy for which McMillen is now on trial are as follows:

Early Sunday morning, July 11th, 1897, in an alley at the rear of "The Quickest Drink," otherwise known as Pinkey's saloon, Dee, a young man of twenty years, and Mr. Pinkey, of South Temple street, the local baby of Judge Timpson, a well known gambler, was found in the rear of the Wasatch theatre, was found.

The discovery was made by the night watchman on the block, who gave the alarm.

Before the day was over the police had arrested John F. McMillen, a young man of twenty years, who was charged with the crime. McMillen was in jail at the time of the shooting was had before Justice of the Peace Frank G. Bergeron. It was then brought out that the young man had been in company with Dee and McMillen were, by the Justice, held to the district court on the charge of murder in the first degree.

On the 9th of April last, while the work of empaneling a jury was in progress, Phelps who claimed to be a third party, offered to plead guilty to murder in the second degree. On this Judge Morrill sentenced him to life imprisonment.

McMillen has been confined in the county jail ever since, but lately has gone the worse for his confinement.

THE DEAD MOUNTAIN HIGHWAYMAN.

Up to the hour of going to press only three jurors had been accepted and they are George D. Viper, John Doyle and Thomas F. Morgan. Mr. Pyper did not want to serve and tried to get out of it, but Judge Morrill refused to excuse him. Dealer business of no theater business.

TRIAL OF A DAMAGE SUIT.

Mrs. Eliza Cox Wants $15,000 from Salt Lake City for Alleged Injuries.

Judge Hart sat in the chambers usually occupied by Judge Hiles today and, along with a jury, took up the case of Eliza Cox against Salt Lake City. Parsons, Stoney & Lippman appeared for the plaintiff and Assistants City Attorneys C. B. Stewart for the defendant city.

Mrs. Cox brought this action to recover $15,000 damages for alleged injuries received through falling on one of the sidewalks of the city.

The complaint set forth that on the evening of the 27th of November, 1895, the plaintiff was walking along on west side of Main between South West Temple and First West streets, near the old Continental hotel building, when she slipped upon a loose board, broke her left arm and received other injuries internal injuries.

The complaint complained of in the part of the city was the permitting of an and place to remain on the sidewalk in a dangerous condition, and so as to place in an unsafe and slippery condition.

It is further alleged that at the time of the accident plaintiff was 65 years of age and supported herself as a laundress, earning from $15 to $20 per week, but that more recently the injuries she has been unable to follow her occupation.

The defendants denied all of the allegations and further answering allege that if she did receive the hurt it was due to her own carelessness.

The hearing had not concluded at press time.

NUMBER OF ARRAIGNMENTS.

Four Prisoners Plead Guilty, but Cases Prefer a Trial.

George King was, on the 8th of May, pounced upon by the police and brought into court this morning and charged with the crime of vagrancy. Judge Morrill fined King $100 and costs, in default of payment King was sent to the jail for 100 days.

Charles Wilson was the arraigned in the Salt Lake Sight Transit Street Railway company, charged with the crime of robbery. Wilson pleaded guilty and was sent to the jail for 100 days.

ALL PLEAD GUILTY EXCEPT CASEY.

Henry Casey, William O'Brien, Thomas Ryan and Frank Miller were arraigned before Judge Morrill today on the charge of larceny. The three first named pleaded guilty, but Casey preferred to stand a trial and entered a plea of not guilty.

The case with which the men are charged is interesting from the fact that they were on the 19th of May last, and for some time they with considerable wearing apparel.

O'Brien, Ryan and Miller will be sentenced Friday morning.

Trial Not Yet Finished.

The case of R. Rosenbaum vs. Joseph Rosenbaum, which was begun last the whole of today again, before Judge Morrill and Jury. A notice of the case appeared in the Evening News yesterday, and it is needless to refer to it further.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The Supreme Court has rendered a decision in the case of William Fullmer, appellant, vs. L. M. Dunn, administrator of the estate of Alonzo Fullmer, deceased, R. L. Driggs and Sarah G. Dunn.

Want it just right. You don't want a baking powder that will raise the mortgage off your house. You don't want one either that will leave your biscuits and pie crust with a quality of sole leather, and yet one that will give them a yellow color. What you do want is a baking powder that will do its duty just right, make your crusts light and flaky without scrubbing it, toss them up as light as cork and make them taste like your baking all palatable. MARCHING ON TO CUBA.

Reinforcements for General Shafter Began to Move Today.

IN ALL ABOUT 6,000 MORE THAN WILL GO

First Detachment to Make the Trip in Four Days—Word from Cuba Up to 5 o'clock This Afternoon.

Washington, June 22.—The forwarding of reinforcements to Gen. Shafter at Santiago de Cuba has begun and at 9 o'clock this morning the first body of troops left Camp Alger for Newport News there to take transports for Cuba. This was in accordance with orders issued by Major Gen. Miles last night directing the movement to begin today. The order was to Major Gen. Graham, commanding the second army corps camped at Falls Church, and is as follows:

"With the approval of the secretary of war you will detail Brig. Gen. Duffield and one regiment and one battalion of a regiment of his command to proceed tomorrow (this morning) by rail to Newport, Va., with the department ambulances and hospital tents. Orders to be arrived at Newport News Gen. Duffield will go on board one of the military trains, now awaiting to transport his command to Santiago de Cuba. Upon arrival at the place the troops will report to Major Gen. Shafter, commanding the United States forces there. The troops will take with them camp kettles, canteens, full supplies of ammunition for two service. Not to exceed six horses can be taken on board the ship.

"N. A. MILES.

"Major General Commanding."

Other orders for explanation of the general plan of sending reinforcements will follow. This first movement is confined to one regiment and one battalion as it was necessary to divide Gen. Duffield's command in order to secure the accommodation of the transports Harvard and Yale, the facilities of our being considerably greater than those of the Cuban.

The Thirty-third Michigan and the battalion of the Thirty-fourth Michigan were selected to go first, inasmuch as Lieut. Miles had informed the adjutant that they will board the Harvard. The Thirty-fourth Michigan is a regiment of Brig. Gen. Duffield's command and will take on Saturday next, taking the place of the Thirty-fourth Michigan, which is a regiment under command of Gen. Duffield, whose brigade consists of the Thirty-fourth Michigan, the Thirty-third Michigan and the Thirty-fourth Michigan and the Third Virginia volunteers.

Secretary Long had a special conference with Secretary Long on Tuesday night, during which the details of the movement of troops were worked out. It was learned that the latter officer is in full accord with the plan of sending reinforcements to Santiago de Cuba. Gen. Duffield, Gen. Leon Duffield, Gen. Graham, Gen. Miles, Gen. Shafter, Gen.
