A WOMAN'S HEROISM.

The year 1781 was a dark and gloomy [illegible] ... In South Carolina [illegible] ... General Greene [illegible] ... Lord Rawdon followed him [illegible]

At that period there stood in South Carolina a plain and unassuming house [illegible] ... It was the home of Mrs. Heath, who lived with her daughters, while her son George was in Washington's army fighting for freedom.

Kate, the eldest of the daughters, was a beautiful girl of sixteen summers [illegible]

[illegible]

"A friend, with the countersign."

"Advance, friend, and give the countersign."

She approached the picket and whispered:

"England!"

"All right; pass on. But stop!" cried the picket as he caught a glimpse of her face.

Kate stopped her horse and laid her hand on a pistol. The picket approached and said:

"Is that you, Miss Heath?"

[illegible]

"Halt, you cursed rebel!"

[illegible]

"Who goes there?"

"Kate Heath!" cried our heroine as she dashed through the lines.

[illegible]

"All right!"

The American camp was reached. Kate threw herself from the saddle and placed her faithful horse in charge of a soldier.

"Where is Greene's tent?" she asked.

"To the right there, where you see that light," replied the man, pointing to the place.

She entered the general's tent and found him engaged in writing. He raised his eyes, then arose to his feet and said:

"You come at a late hour, Miss Heath."

"I do, general. You are in danger."

"How is that?" exclaimed Greene.

[illegible]

"Thank God! you have saved my army, Miss Heath. I can never repay you."

[illegible]

"In a few minutes, general."

Men with Green Whiskers.

The miners at the Martin White mine, Ward, Nev., all have green hair and whiskers! This wonderful transformation is brought about by the fumes from some mysterious mineral, all the ores from the mine being smelted and roasted by the miners themselves.—St. Louis Republic.

FRENCH COACH AND TROTTER.

The Cross That Would Produce Perfect Carriage Horses.

I have spent some years in collecting information about French coach horses and I am convinced they are going to be of great value to the country, particularly as a cross upon trotting-bred mares [illegible]

"August Flower"

I had been troubled five months with Dyspepsia. The doctors told me it was chronic. I had a fullness after eating and a heavy load in the pit of my stomach. I suffered frequently from a Water Brash of clear matter. Sometimes a deathly Sickness at the Stomach would overtake me. Then again I would have the terrible pains of Wind Colic. At such times I would try to belch and could not. I was working then for Thomas McHenry, Druggist, Cor. Irwin and Western Ave., Allegheny City, Pa., in whose employ I had been for seven years. Finally I used August Flower, and after using just one bottle for two weeks, was entirely relieved of all the trouble. I can now eat things I dared not touch before. I would like to refer you to Mr. McHenry, for whom I worked, who knows all about my condition, and from whom I bought the medicine. I live with my wife and family at 39 James St., Allegheny City, Pa. Signed, JOHN D. COX.
