J. CONNORS SEEKS A PARDON.

He Sends a Petition to the Governor Praying for Clemency.

Governor Thomas has received a petition for pardon from John Connors, convicted in the county jail. The petition was accompanied by a letter from the convict's aged mother in Manchester, England. Connor's letter is wanted as follows:

HON. J. L. THOMAS, Governor of Utah:

Dear Sir—I was arrested last May on a charge of assault and sentenced to six months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $100. I had only arrived in the city the day before my arrest and meeting with some old friends indulged more freely than I had been accustomed to do and as affected by the liquors that I fell asleep in a child in the street where we were drinking. When I awoke I found I had been robbed of all my hard earned wages, and I waited for the first train if possible. My watch was fourteen and on my way home to the mission where I had been called, I was met by friends, all of whom were drinking the influence of liquor and inclined to be quarrelsome. One of the party demanded my money, then me, and on my refusal to comply with his demand he assaulted me, and striking the side against me, I thought to intimidate them he pulling my revolver, which was accidentally discharged in the excitement of the moment. As the party assaulted me, to defend at my bidding, I think under the circumstances I ought reasonably to meet the fine, and to be enabled one to do so we leave to-morrow morning for home. I am anxious to get home and I can earn money enough in a few days to pay and not be need my mother as soon as possible, who has been to depend upon the generosity of friends for some of support since my incarceration. You will see by the enclosed letter which I have just received from her that she entirely despairs my speedy return home if I have to serve the sentence. I am in no condition to meet the fine, and I am not before the day. If you will graciously grant my pardon I shall leave the country at the earliest possible moment never to return. Awaiting your generous consideration of the my petition and praying you may grant it, I remain, yours very humbly,

JOHN CONNORS.

COUNTY JAIL, SALT LAKE CITY, September 13, 1892.

Accompanying this appeal was the following letter from the mother in England.

MY DEAR SON:—I am very sorry for what has happened to you. I was expecting to see you home every day before I die. I would sincerely hope that the governor would have to release you as I am very much down hearted. I feel that I shall die soon. It would make me very happy to hear of your release and to think of you helping me nine more. I have struggled hard to keep a home for you and I am well respected amongst my neighbors. I trust to God to be able to hear good news from you before long and that at the end of six months you will be able to come home. It is very hard for me to hear such sad news in my old age when you should be a comfort to me, your poor widowed mother. I remain your loving

MOTHER.
