Our ball team seems to be getting no better just as fast as it can.

At Spokane yesterday, a double-header was dropped to Reilly's Indians, and they are now at the top of the column. The Redskins took the first game by the score of 4 to 2, and the last game by the score of 10 to 9.

In the ninth inning of the last game, when Spokane went to bat, the score was 9 to 3 in favor of Salt Lake. In this inning Salt Lake made 5 runs, but the boy who presided over the score board hung up the figure three in the Spokane column. The crowd shrieked frantically at him, but the poor lad could not think. Finally he hung up 4 in the Salt Lake column, right here the Indians began doing things to runs. By smashing the ball all around the field, and occasionally getting a base on balls, they collected five runs. It took but one run to tie the score, and two men were on bases when Titus threw a high fast one that Hausen could not stop, and the ball went cavorting to the grandstand. The run that tied the score came in, but the Salt Lake outfielders, not knowing the score boy's mistake, and thinking the run won the game, began to come in. Murdock, who was on bases, ran as far as third base and then went to the bench. His team mates had a hard time to make him understand that he should run home. He finally got the idea through his head and dashed back to the base line and then on home. According to the rules of the game the runner was out, but the run was scored just the same and Spokane celebrated its sixth straight victory. Up to the fatal ninth inning, Titus pitched a splendid game, but Hogg for Spokane was wild and not very effective.

Drinkwater and Tozer were the opposing pitchers in the morning game, which was fast and pretty clean. The result was in doubt until the eighth inning. A peculiar feature of the game was a hit by Frary to the left field fence. The ball struck something, bounded to the top of the fence and then jumped over. It looked like the ball had rolled up the boards and over the top. Thus a home run was made. The detailed score of both games follows:

FAST MOTOR PACED.

J. Moran Goes a Mile in Remarkable Time of 1:26 2-5.

New York, June 26.—J. Moran of Chelsea, Mass., today broke the mile motor pace record, covering the distance in 1:26 2-5 in the first mile of the final heat of a five-mile motor paced bicycle race on the Manhattan Beach track. In the first heart Moran lost his pace in the third mile and was easily beaten by Leander. In the second heat Moran just beat McFarland at the tape, but the New England man had no difficulty in winning the final heat as Leander's pace was faulty toward the end of the race.

IRISH LAD'S RECORD.

Horse Captured the $15,000 Advance Stakes at Sheepshead.

A Saturday dispatch from New York says: Driven to the limit in the last few strides, the favorite, Irish Lad, won the $15,000 advance stakes at Sheepshead Bay, making a new world's record of 2:17 3-5 for the distance, one and three-eighths miles, the best previous record, made by Sabine in Chicago, July 5, 1894, being 2:18¾. Ort Wells was second and Bryn Mawr third. The crowd in attendance today was equal to that of Suburban day.

The field that made up the advance stakes was one of the best that ever faced the starter for this rich purse. Irish Lad was quoted at the good price of 5 to 2. The Drake-Gates combination bet heavily on Ort Wells, who closed at 3 to 1. Bryn Mawr, winner of the Brooklyn derby, was a quieter at 7 to 2, while The Picket was held at 4 to 1.

The horses made a good start and Irish Lad was the first to show, with Delhi second and Ort Wells third. The Picket was off in good position, but in the rush for the rail was interfered with, which probably accounted for his bad race.

Passing the stand the first time, Irish Lad was leading by a head from Delhi, while Ort Wells ran third. The quarter was covered in 24 seconds. Making the turn into the back stretch and coming to the half-mile pole Delhi took the lead, with Irish Lad second, a length back. The time of the half was 48 2-5 seconds. Ort Wells was third, with Bryn Mawr and High Ball close up. Delhi was leading at the three-quarters, which was covered in 1:13. Irish Lad being in second place and going easily. Ort Wells was third, and he, too, was going in good easy stride.

The mile was covered in 1:38 flat, the fastest mile run in the east this year. The fast pace had told on Delhi, and as the leaders swung past the mile post he slowly dropped back beaten. Hildebrand, on Irish Lad, at this point sent his mount to the lead, and as he flashed past the one and one-quarter pole 2:04, the game son of Candlemas-Arrow Grass was a length ahead of Ort Wells, who had moved up as Delhi fell back.

It was at this point that the boys on the leaders began to ride hard. Irish Lad was ahead, but O'Neil on Ort Wells began to gain. He was, however, unable to head Irish Lad, who passed under the wire a winner by a short head in 2:17 2-5. Ort Wells was five lengths in front of Bryn Mawr. It was one of the greatest races, one of the gamest finishes, seen in many a day in the east.

As Hildebrand rode Irish Lad back to the judges' stand, a great storm of cheers proclaimed the popularity of his victory, while the band struck up "The Wearing of the Green," the colors of Irish Lad being green, with white hoops on the sleeve.

J. E. Madden's Fly Back won the $25,000 Great Trial stakes. Coupled with his stable companion Councilman, they were favorites in the betting. Councilman made the running to the fence, when Fly Back moved up and won driving by one and a half lengths. Summary:

First race, six furlongs—Lady Amelia bell won, Caller second, Titian third. Time—1:22 4-5.

Second race, the Beacon steeplechase, about two and a half miles—Judith Campbell won, Caller seconnd, Titian third. Time—5:08.

Third race, the Great Trial, six furlongs—Fly Back won, Sparkling Star second, The Claimant third. Time—1:13 2-5.

Fourth race, the Advance stakes, one mile and three furlongs—Irish Lad, 124 (Hildrebrand), 5 to 2, won; Ort Wells, 111 (O'Neil), 3 to 1, second; Bryn Mawr, 111 (Lynee), 7 to 2, third. Time—2:17 3-5. High Ball, Delhi and The Picket also ran.

Fifth race, selling, five and a half furlongs—Virgo won, Asterisk second, High Born third. Time—1:08 4-5.

Sixth race, one and one-sixteenth miles on turf—Men MacDhul won, Florham Queen second, Leader third. Time—1:56 2-5.

JEFFRIES AND MUNROE.

And Something About Little Harry Pollock Who Roasted Jeff.

Harry Pollok, a little over five feet in height, has tackled big Jim Jeffries, something over six feet tall, in a verbal combat and what the little New Yorker has left unsaid concerning the champion would be hard to find, says Otto Floto.

Pollok has made a trip across the continent with his charge and after weeks of training and much expense the fight proposed between Jeffries and Munroe is indefinitely postponed. Through no fault of Pollok or Munroe, however. But because the big champion has seriously injured his knee and is unable to appear in the ring.

Pollok made a trip to Harbin Springs last Monday and on the return from the visit to the champion was unmerciful in scoring the champion. Pollok claims that the knee was not even injured and that the champion is showing the white feather in refusing to meet Munroe. Harry claims that the postponement was not necessary, but was asked for in the hope that Munroe would become disgusted and return east. In that event the champion would not have to meet the miner.

Of course Pollok is entitled to his opinion and the remarks that are credited to him may or may not have weight with the fightgoing public. I for one do not for a moment dream of the idea that Jeffries is afraid to meet Munroe.

Why should he be?

What has Munroe done to cause Jeff any fear?

Is Munroe a devil to be afraid of?

Just answer these questions and then decide for yourself what the champion, who has tumbled over every aspirant when at their best, in the easiest sort of manner. And now to be accused of fearing a man who never did anything that amounted to championship caliber in his life.

Harry is a hot-headed little cuss and he has allowed his tongue to run away with him. When the time comes for the final test he will find Jim Jeffries there ready to take the measure of the miner for all time. I still contend that Munroe hasn't a chance.

DELANEY MAKES REPLY

To the Charges Made by Pollock Against Champion Jim Jeffries.

Billy Delaney, the man who took Novice Jeffries to Carson to act as sparring partner to Jim Corbett, and who predicted that "the boilermaker" would one day be champion of the world, is wrathy over the utterances of one Harry Pollok, manager of Jack Munroe, the latest championship candidate.

As can be readily imagined, Delaney is not in the best of humor just at present. He is exasperated with the failure of his plans. Delaney does not intend to stay with the pugilistic game much longer, and, for that matter, he had advised Jeffries to make the contest with Munroe the last of his career. He was just congratulating himself on the fact that the champion had been persuaded to place himself in tiptop condition when the sore knee developed.

Pollok had been quite frank and breezy in airing his views of the situation at Harbin Springs. He said, among other things, that he did not believe Jeffries' knee was in as bad condition as the champion tried to have it appear, and he intimated that Jeffries was looking for a chance to avoid Munroe. This is what Delaney has to say in reply:

"Pollok claims that Jeff's knee is all right—that Jeff is merely stalling him. He says he told Jeff so to his face. Pollok surely has it on Munroe, who went around the country telling newspaper men that he knocked Jeff down in Butte City with a terrific body punch. When Munroe landed on the coast by the way and found himself in the same state with Jeffries he admitted he lied. He said then he never knocked Jeffries down at all.

"In the sick room in Harbin, in the presence of a dozen witnesses, Jeffries offered to meet Munroe on June 30 and to go into the ring on one leg, but Manager Coffroth refused to let him start. Still Pollok, who was present, calls Jeff a cur."
