EASTERN.

Destitute Polish Emigrants.

BOSTON, 22.—Thirty-three Polish emigrants, who arrived here yesterday from New York in destitute circumstances, were to-day sent to the almshouse at Tewksbury. The Cunard Steamship Co., whose Hamburg agent induced them to embark for this country, will give bonds to the State for their support, or take them back to Liverpool. The Austrian consul has written the details of the case to his government, which will be investigated.

More Nominations.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The President sent to the Senate the following nominations—John P. Hoyt, of Michigan, to be Secretary of Arizona Territory, John Pratt, to be Secretary of the Territory of New Mexico, John I. Redick to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico, James R. Hayden to be Collector of Internal Revenue for Washington Territory, and Andrew J. Evans to be United States Attorney for the Western District of Texas.

The Investigation Again.

Ferguson continued his testimony and said he was a police officer in New Orleans, and was dismissed for disrespect to his superior officer. While in the custom house he noticed some of the frauds and took memorandums of them, so that if ever they attempted to discharge him he would hold these facts over their heads.

Foley, of Washington, testified that as a lawyer he was engaged in the prosecution of a lage claim for services, guess, involving one hundred millions. During the prosecution of that claim he learned that James Casey, P. T. Herwig and Nicholas Casey were interested in the claim, having paid Dr. J. F. Landrean, the owner of the claim, $2,800 and promised to aid in the prosecution of the case. Thomas, minister to Peru, resigned, and then Casey used his influence to have Gibbs appointed in his place. Casey and Herwig were to receive 35 per cent of the proceeds of the claim. Witness had a conversation with Casey after Thomas resigned, and Casey told witness that Gibbs would be appointed, but the appointment would not be made until after the executive session of the Senate had adjourned. This was in March, 1875, and in about a week after the Senate adjourned Gibbs was appointed. Casey told witness that Secretary Fish opposed the appointment of Gibbs. Witness was a lawyer for Landrean, and the latter wanted him to go to Peru as secretary to Gibbs, so that he could better prosecute the case, and that was why he held the conversation with Casey. The United States were prosecuting this case in the diplomatic way, but had no pecuniary interest in the matter. Witness said that Casey, being a government officer, violated the statute in buying an interest in a claim in which the United States was a party. Witness worked nine months for Landrean, and then Landrean sold out his claim to Henry D. and Jay Cook without paying witness for his services.

The statute was hunted up and the committee told Mr. Foley that the law had not been violated at all, as the government was only acting as negociator, without having a cent of interest in the proceeds. This witness had told the committee, about ten days ago, that he had some important information to give, and the committee had been summoned, and he had been waiting till to-day to testify. After he had testified, a motion was made that his testimony be stricken from the record as having no bearing in the matter before the committee; it was finally allowed to remain for a few days, simply to see if anything else came of it.

The New Government Appointments, etc.

Pierrepont will take immediate steps to depart for England, and Taft will, without delay, take charge of the Department of Justice. Pierrepont will probably arrive in England before the termination of the correspondence with the British Government in the Winslow extradition case.

Cameron has telegraphed to his friends here that he very highly appreciates the honor conferred upon him by the President and Senate; that it was entirely unexpected; that he is now too much indisposed to leave, but hopes to be here in a few days, and in the mean time will decide whether he will accept the office.

When the Senate resumed the consideration of the articles of impeachment, Barnum, the new Senator from Connecticut, was sworn in as a member of the court. The discussion on the question of jurisdiction was continued, and Mitchell made a lengthy argument in favor. He was followed by Logan in opposition.

Grandy Grandchildren.

It is reported this p. m. that the President received a cable dispatch from London to-day, announcing the death, in that city last night, of the infant child of his daughter, Mrs. Sartoris.

CANADA.

Damages by Floods.

HULL, Ont., 22.—The water yesterday swept away part of the Aylmer road bridge, making an excavation of twenty-five feet wide and eight or ten deep. The remainder of the bridge being gradually washed away. Beeson's carding mill was wrecked and carried away by water this morning.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

Steamers for the Centennial.

ST. JOHN, N. B., 22.—Two large steamers are now advertised to make trips between St. John and Philadelphia during the Centennial.

The saw mills in this vicinity, which were shut down on account of the freshet, are resuming operations.
