Lothario Valentine and Mrs. Mulvaney Don't Want to Come Back.

THE MONEY AND JEWELS FOUND.

Officials Working By Wire—Utah's Governor Could Not Be Reached—Richards Cannot Act.

The telegraphic communications received in this city today from El Paso, Texas, tell of a battle royal in the courts of that town over the arrest and attempted compulsory return to this Territory of Charles Valentine, the adventurer, and Mrs. Mulvaney, the young, reckless and dashing wife of an estimable wealthy New Yorker.

They also tell of the discovery of six $1000 bills, about $4,000 in each of smaller denomination, Mulvaney's watch, chain, charms and diamonds and other missing articles in possession of the elopers. The messages are very brief and up to press time not one of the several received during the day disclosed the nature of the proceedings but the tone of all indicated a decided tropical temperature with Captain Donovan working and perspiring from every pore of his body in his effort to bring back the prisoners.

Judge Judd telegraphed the United States district attorney at El Paso, giving him full power to act in behalf of this Territory. But a reply was received announcing that that functionary was out of the city and a request was made to bestow the same authority on the county judge whom, it was promised, would take the necessary steps in the premises. An immediate answer was asked with full instructions.

Judge Judd telegraphed that the papers taken by Captain Donovan were regular and in accordance with law, notwithstanding the fact that some question had been raised by the attorneys of the guilty pair as to improper certification and identification. In order to overcome this objection Captain Donovan's counsel telegraphed asking to have the Governor of this Territory officially certify to the papers by wire. As the Governor is not in the city this could not be done, and as he was out of the Territory, Secretary Richards could do nothing, as he is not acting governor except when the Chief Executive is beyond Utah boundaries. Thus the matter stood at press time, with Judge Powers and District Attorney Judd at this end of the line working like Trojans, and Captain Donovan and counsel at the other stepping to equally as inspiring music.

Judge Powers stated this afternoon that it had been learned that Valentine was not the man he represented himself to be when he first met the Mulvaneys at Atlantic City. He, however, comes of a very good family, has an excellent education and attainments far beyond the average man. He had often told the Mulvaneys that he was an Easterner and that he had never been West until he piloted them towards the Pacific coast. It now transpires, according to the information which comes from Denver that he was employed in that city for a considerable period as bar-tender in the Opera House saloon. His conduct throughout the whole affair shows that he is no tenderfoot.

WORD FROM TATLOCK

He Has Armed Citizens at Moab, Grand County,

AND MOVED ON TO SAN JUAN.

Believes That All Danger is Now Over. The Trouble Probably Settled Ere This.

A letter has been received from Col. Tatlock, written en route to the scene of the Indian trouble in San Juan county. The colonel arrived at Moab, Grand county, and on the 7th instant he armed a number of the citizens there, and pushed on toward Monticello with the remainder of the equipments of war in his possession.

The colonel states that the reports published in the Salt Lake papers, describing the Indian situation, were accurate. The Southern Utes believe they have a right in that part of the country, but he says they are not on the war path, and if no rash act is committed by white men there will be no trouble. The Indians have about as exalted an opinion of Agent Day as has been expressed in the Salt Lake papers. The Indians say they will return to their reservation in Colorado if ordered to do so by the Washington authorities; and as this order has been issued it is expected that all difficulties have been settled by the present time, and that the situation is relieved.

At the time of writing, the 7th, Col. Tatlock had not been made aware of the fact that Governor West would join him at Monticello.

Gen. Booth at the Tabernacle.

General Booth, the famous inaugurator of the Salvation Army movement and leader of the Army, will speak at the Tabernacle tomorrow, Thursday, evening, the Church authorities having courteously tendered him the building for that purpose. The doors will be open at 7 o'clock p. m., the exercises to commence at 7:30.

LITERARY NOTE.

The current number of the Woman's Exponent contains as one of its features an article on woman suffrage, written by one of Utah's fair champions of the cause of the sex. It is written in a vigorous style, revealing deep conviction and will be read with interest even by those whose views on the question necessarily differ from those advanced by the author. Among other interesting articles in the current issue is a review of a book on The World's Congress of Representative women. The paper contains as usual some pretty poetry, editorial notes and reports of various meetings in which the ladies are interested.

THE DISTRICT COURT.

instructions upon the case, and thereupon Judge Bartch directed that Rivington [illegible] furnish a transcript. This was shortly afterwards done.

PLEAS OF PRISONERS.

Henry Thompson and George Hamilton, two young [illegible] 22 years of age, were arraigned and plead not guilty to a charge of assault with intent to rob. J. A. Hamilton is their attorney, and the trial was set for tomorrow morning.

Nels Boskosky, indicted for adultery, plead not guilty. Attorney Kahn will defend on the trial, the date of which has not been yet set.

Frank Wilson, a youth, plead guilty to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, with intent to do bodily harm. Sentence will be pronounced upon him tomorrow morning.

On motion of Assistant District Attorney Howat the case of the People vs E. I. Ritchie, the Salt Lake attorney, under indictment for criminal libel and perjury, was this afternoon continued for the term. This, said Judge Howat, was at the request of defendant's counsel.

WALKER UP AGAIN.

Walter Walker is on trial this afternoon on a charge of committing an unlawful assault upon his daughter Pearl, a girl under the age of 13 years. The defendant was discharged on Monday on an indictment for incest.

Quite a time was experienced with Pearl by Judge Howat, the prosecuting attorney, during the time she was under examination. To his astonishment the girl flatly denied all that she is claimed to have stated before the grand jury and several times a passage of arms ensued between Judge Howat and Attorneys Laney and W. C. Reilly. Eventually the prosecuting attorney's ire reached boiling point and he asked that the witness be remanded to the custody of the U. S. marshal pending the drawing up of a complaint charging her with perjury. The court so ordered.

Before Judge Merritt.

Homer J. Crandall vs R. H. Bally et al. Twenty days additional time given to file statement on motion for a new trial.

Permission was given to Attorney Harlow Ferguson, on behalf of Jennie H. Stephens, as administratrix, to sue the receivers of the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern Railroad company, upon the filing of waiver of the receivers' attorneys.

DIVORCE.

Frances Ward was granted a divorce from her husband, James Ward, on the ground of failure to support.

The marriage took place in this city on May 14th, 1891, the defendant being an employe of the city railroad company. Mrs. Ward is a woman of delicate health and since her husband left her on February 1st, 1893, she and her children—aged respectively two and a half years and one year—have been residing with her parents. She stated that no cause whatever was given to the defendant for deserting them.

The case went by default. After hearing the testimony the court granted the decree as prayed and allowed the petitioner $15 per month alimony, she also to have the custody of the minor children. F. B. Stephens was Mrs. Ward's attorney and a fee of $25 was allowed him.

AN INJUNCTION SUIT.

The first case taken up was that of Charles Brink, special administrator of the estate of W. E. Renney, deceased, vs Charles Brecken, Sarah Wright and John Missen—order to show cause for an injunction.

Frank Hoffman was attorney for the plaintiff; Pence & Allen appeared for the defendants.

Mr. Renney died intestate on February 26, 1894, he being then, and having been since the year 1877, possessed of a certain piece of land in Bingham canyon, West Mountain mining district, opposite the depot and transfer grounds of the Rio Grande Western Railroad company. Upon such land was a stable, saloon, store and other, fitted up at the mouth of the Robert Watson tunnel or drain. It is alleged that in May of the present year the defendants unlawfully took possession of a portion of such premises, have since piled large quantities of building material on the lot and are now erecting a building thereon. The sum of $500 is claimed as damages, and the injunction now prayed for is to restrain the defendants from proceeding further with the work.

The defendants deny the material allegations of the plaintiff and allege that the only portion of the premises, if any, of which they have had possession is a part of the Dixon No. 3 mining claim, for which a patent from the United States has heretofore issued, and which claim is now owned by Charles W. Watson and others. It is further set forth that for many months prior to the commencement of this action the defendant Brecken was in lawful possession of the premises by virtue of the permission and consent of Watson, one of the owners of the Dixon claim. It is denied that Renney, for seventeen years prior to his death, had been in quiet and peaceable possession of the land in controversy.

The hearing proceeded up to the hour of adjournment when, by agreement, the case was continued sine die, with the understanding that the temporary injunction now in force should be so modified as to permit the defendants to erect certain buildings, without, however, trespassing upon or otherwise interfering with the brewery property.

FOR FURTHER JUDGMENT.

The case of Jacob Dugree vs John W. Jones—motion of plaintiff for further judgment—is under argument this afternoon. No earlier and conclusion reached when the News report closed at 3:45.

Grand Jury Report.

The grand jury went into Judge Bartch's court at 3:15 this afternoon, reported having found nine indictments under the Territorial statutes, and then adjourned for the day.

Salt Lake Temple.

The Salt Lake Temple will close on Friday evening, December 21st, and reopen on Monday morning, December 31st, 1894. LORENZO SNOW, President.

MORE RECOUNTING.

Box Elder Ballot Boxes Ordered in for the Purpose.

A PUBLIC INQUIRY DEMANDED

On Behalf of the Sanpete Election Judges' Count—Weber in Progress—Other Returns.

Late yesterday afternoon Attorney S. A. Kenner, on behalf of Geo. H. Fetherstone, of Beaver, submitted a protest to the Utah Commission against giving a certificate of election as a Constitutional delegate to A. S. Anderson. It was alleged that Anderson, who was one of the Republican nominees, was a resident of Idaho, and since his return from there a few years ago had not registered and voted in Utah until at the last election; that his taxable property is not taxed, and that he was pardoned since his conviction for an offense against the United States laws.

A communication from Mr. Anderson was also filed with the commission setting forth that he had been a resident of Beaver county for over four years, was a property holder and held a receipt for taxes paid thereon, and that he is a native born citizen, having been born in Utah.

Box Elder county was taken up by the commission, and the returns canvassed. They show the Democratic candidates for delegates to the Constitutional Convention to have received the following votes: Peters 745, Low 775, Baty 683, Gleason 675. Republicans, Gibbs 715, Hanson 683, Box 673, Lowe 703. On these figures two of each party will be elected. There were slight discrepancies, however, in the returns, and the matter was taken under advisement.

At the Utah Commission session this morning Jacob Johnson, chairman of the Sanpete county Republican committee, and Chas. S. Crane, chairman of the Territorial Republican committee, were present. Mr. Johnson filed a lengthy protest on behalf of the Republican candidates to the Constitutional Convention from Sanpete county, against the recount made by the Utah Commission. One reason for this protest is: "That since the election and count the ballot boxes have been insecurely kept, most of them not sealed and some of them not locked; that the ballots counted by the Commission are not all the same as those counted by the judges of election, which can be shown by reputable citizens of both political parties, who were present."

PUBLIC INVESTIGATION DEMANDED.

Mr. Johnson therefore asks that a full, fair and public investigation of this matter be made, and that the judges of election be summoned to appear to testify, etc. He says he is authorized to state that these judges of election will testify that the counts made by them were fairly, honestly and truly made and transmitted, which evidence can be supplemented by the oaths of good and reputable citizens of both political parties.

As to Spring precinct, Mr. Johnson says he has personal knowledge that the judges' count was correct, whatever variance the Commission's recount shows. He has similar information from nearly every precinct in the county. He also made an oral statement of the details of the manner of conducting the election in several of the precincts.

On motion of Commissioner Norrell, consideration of the matter was deferred for the present.

TO THE BOX ELDER BOXES.

The Box Elder returns were then considered and Judge Norrell moved: "That the ballot boxes from all precincts in Box Elder county in which discrepancies or irregularities appear be ordered in for the purpose of making a recount of the ballots by the Commission."

Commissioner Sherman offered the following substitute:

"Whereas, the discrepancies in no one precinct in Box Elder county, nor the total discrepancies in all the precincts of that county, being enough to effect the election of any one candidate as certified to by the judges; and whereas, unless there are such discrepancies shown on the face of the returns we have no authority under law to resort to the ballot boxes, therefore, Resolved that we order the canvass for that county made up as shown by the sworn returns of the judges."

The vote on the substitute was: Aye—Sherman. No—Thatcher, Norrell and Latcher. By the same vote of 3 to 1 the original motion was carried.

WEBER COUNTY.

The Commission was working on Weber county returns this afternoon, and it is not likely that a conclusion will be arrived at today.

Regular Election.

The canvassing board has completed Cache county, the vote on Delegate to Congress being as follows:

| | Vote | Majority |
|---|---|---|
| J. L. Rawlins (D) | 1,843 | 411 |
| F. J. Cannon (R) | 1,432 | |

On commissioners to locate university lands the vote was:

| | Vote | Majority |
|---|---|---|
| [illegible] | [illegible] | [illegible] |

In the canvass for county officers the result was ascertained to be:

Clerk, H. J. Matthews 1,625, T. H. Merrill 1,[illegible]. Recorder, C. W. Hyde 1,[illegible], [illegible] 1,234. Assessor, S. M. Molen 1,[illegible], T. A. Mert 1,222. Collector, A. F. Farr 1,[illegible], William Douglas 1,246. Treasurer, A. H. Anderson 1,[illegible], M. H. Parson 1,[illegible]. Attorney, S. J. Bice 1,[illegible], J. L. Walters 1,[illegible]. Sheriff, Fred Turner 1,[illegible], H. A. Peterson 1,[illegible]. Surveyor, George L. Swenson, 1,[illegible], [illegible] 1,222. Coroner, J. Baker 1,[illegible], O. M. Anderson 1,223. Selectmen, J. [illegible] 1,[illegible], H. Hanson 1,[illegible], H. Haywell 1,[illegible], F. X. [illegible] 1,[illegible], S. H. [illegible] 1,[illegible], P. Peterson 1,[illegible].

The canvassing board took up the [illegible] from Sanpete county today, but had not completed the canvass up to the time of going to press.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE DANSE RAMSAMAC was given for the last time at the Lyceum last night to quite another large audience. The piece went with greater smoothness than ever and the applause was on the enthusiastic order. The Young Ladies Aid society will net not less than $500 as the result of these appearances.

THE THEATER has a number of Friday evening and will be enjoyed by a grand dancing [illegible] Saturday afternoon. The [illegible] is under the auspices of [illegible], and a number of gentlemen have consented to aid them in their committee.

St. Johns Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the St. Johns Stake was held in the assembly room in St. Johns on Sunday and Monday, the 2nd and 3rd inst.

The Relief Society conference was held on Saturday morning, and the Primary conference in the afternoon of that day. The meetings were well attended and the Saints enjoyed the good spirit.

Presidents David K. Udall and E. N. Freeman spoke very strongly upon the Word of Wisdom. Some of the Bishops reported that a number of the Saints were in very hard circumstances on account of the drouth during the past season, not having raised sufficient grain for bread stuff and having but very little hay. Breadstuffs are being built and steps taken to store water, but up to the present there has been no snow in the mountains.

The people of St. Johns are building an extensive reservoir about six miles south of the town, covering some four or five hundred acres of land. It is not yet completed, but if the weather permits they expect to have the water running into it by Christmas.

CHAS. JARVIS, Clerk.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH. - Dec. 12, 1894.

No Cause of Action.

The jury in the case of Ben Argyle vs the Strawberry Cattle Co., brought in a sealed verdict. Last evening upon Judge King's return from Ogden the verdict was read, and was in favor of the defendant corporation—"No cause of action." Nine jurors concurred in the verdict. Dowdaker [illegible] was set for hearing motion for a new trial.

OTHER BUSINESS.

James T. Strachsen has commenced a suit against the [illegible] Irrigation Co. for $[illegible] damages and cost. [illegible]

The following abstracts of judgment from Commissioner Greenman's court have been filed:

J. A. Gardiner vs H. H. St. John, $[illegible].

Utah Nursery Co. vs Ira Henderson, $57.[illegible].

Utah Nursery Co. vs H. P. Nielsen, $[illegible].

Utah Nursery Co. vs Niels Hansen, $[illegible].

From Justice Whitehead's court: Hyrum Yeager vs John W. Loth, $[illegible].

A New Heating Apparatus.

Alderman H. C. Watkins has applied for a patent on a new heating and ventilating apparatus, which will doubtless prove beneficial to the public and profitable to Mr. Watkins. The heat that ordinarily passes up the flue from a heating or cook stove and is wasted—about [illegible] per cent—is conducted through a pipe into a sheet-iron heater. In this heater two compartments, one on either side, conduct the heat and smoke from the bottom of the heater to the top, where it passes away through a pipe or flue. This heater can be placed in an adjoining room, and can be enclosed in a section of mantel in a porcelain or pottery covering and be made ornamental as well as useful. It can also be included in the wall, if put in when a house is being built, at a very small cost—Mr. Watkins says about $15.

Mr. Watkins has put one of his heaters in the residence of Mr. Llewellyn Jones, of Scenic Park, where it is to the entire satisfaction of Mr. Jones, so that there is no doubt of its practicability.

DUGGINS ARRESTED.

Deputy Marshal J. B. Tummany came down from Salt Lake City yesterday. In the evening he arrested S. H. Duggins, indicted for adultery by the grand jury now in session in Salt Lake. Mr. Duggins was taken before U. S. Commissioner Dailey and gave bonds in the sum of $250 for his appearance for arraignment. The offense charged was committed in Salt Lake City on the 13th of November, in the house of Mrs. Angell, on State street.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: Wm. H. Thornton, aged [illegible], of West Portage, and Daisy B. Lott, aged 22, of Provo; Albert E. Marsh, aged 24, of Alpine, and Maud A. Myers, aged 18, of Highland; John Hicks, aged [illegible], of Nephi, and Elizabeth Lunsford, aged 22, of Lake View.

Will Not Pay.

At a meeting of the board of Education, held last evening, J. J. Fuller and Henry Kruger presented their claims for services as judges of election, at the [illegible] election. The claims were not allowed. This is in conformity with a resolution passed by the board previous to the election, to the effect that the board would take no part in the election.
