"We greeted him cordially as we stopped forward with our cash-in-advance smile to face his waiter, but when he mildly asked, "Don't you want a correspondent to go down to the Centennial and properly represent your influential sheet?" we just said, "Please remove your hat till we gaze upon that noble brow." Then we grabbed out our branding iron and numbered him 13,231. —Easton Free Press.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.

Lyon's Kathairon is an invigorating tonic vegetable preparation, positively free from any mineral or deleterious substances. It is the most delightful of all hair dressing—cooling the head, allaying irritation, curing headache and throbbing temples, making the hair strong, fragrant, glossy and obedient to control, so cleanly to use that it will not soil the finest fabric, causing the hair to grow luxuriantly and beautifully, removing dandruff and pimples. No man or woman can become bald who will use the Lyon's Kathairon properly.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected daily by Townsend, National Bank, SALT LAKE CITY, May 22, 1876.

Buying at $1.10½; selling at $1.12½.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 75 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

The Temple.—A number of stonecutters have commenced working on the Temple Block.

Good for Utah.—Some of the public journals speak highly of the art productions of Utah, exhibited at Philadelphia.

Notice.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet at the City Hall, in this city, Wednesday, May 24th, 1876, at 10 a. m.
GEORGE E. WALLACE.

Spanish Fork.—Brother John Murray, sen., writes from Spanish Fork, May 22—

"Nearly all our dams in Spanish Fork River are swept away. The people are working manfully and with the blessing of rain the Lord has sent, all will be in order to save our crops by the last of this week."

Wants to Hear from Them.—If this should meet the eye of Stensine Larsen, Maren Larsen, or Enger Larsen, three sisters, who emigrated to Utah in 1866, they are requested to write to their brother, at Trammenklit on Hanherred, Judland, Denmark. He purposes emigrating this season.

Found Dead.—The following, by Deseret Telegraph, was received last evening—

LOGAN, May 22nd.

Yesterday a trader, named William Ralph, from Mill Grove, Canada, was found dead, in his wagon, on the Church Farm, near Logan. It is supposed the disease of which he died was apoplexy. He was about forty years old and had considerable money about his person.

Escaped.—R. J. Filce, the fellow who was committed to await the action of the grand jury, for the perpetration of a most beastly crime, at Kaysville, escaped from the Farmington jail, last Sunday. The escape was made after eight o'clock in the evening, as he was fed at that hour. He took the nails from his bunk and drove them into the lock, bursting it. Officers are on the lookout for him.

Sheep vs. Crickets.—Several districts in this Territory are threatened with depredations from grasshoppers and crickets. The method adopted by the people of Paradise, Cache Valley, to destroy crickets, recommends itself to general notice. When the pests commenced to swarm down from the hills, ready to devour the growing grain in its infancy, the Paradise people turned a thousand head of sheep upon the jumping crickets. The pests were not only stamped into the ground by the million, but the survivors decamped, leaving the surrounding hills to the victorious muttons. Sheep appear to be obnoxious to the ugly insects, and it is said they will not stay in the vicinity of a large flock. When crickets appear, turn out the sheep; better far to fatten mutton than feed the devourers.—Ogden Junction, May 22.

Jumbled.—Some of the newspapers are going after the Philadelphia Centennial Exhibition managing committee, because of what they call the bungled and jumbled manner in which they have done their work. The first art catalogue has to be discarded, on account of numerous errors of omission and commission, and a new one is being printed.

Some of the journals draw invidious distinctions between the method and exactness in which foreign countries do up the exposition business, in contradistinction to the irregular and mixed manner of our own.

A Relic.—This morning we were shown a remarkably shaggy, uncomely looking cap, presented to the Deseret Museum by A. C. Ivins, Esq., of this City. The peculiar feature of this curious head covering is that it was made and worn by Vasquez, the notorious bandit, who was captured and executed in California, and by whom it was given, shortly previous to his sentence being carried into effect, with some other articles of clothing and arms, to Mr. A. B. Henderson, who, when in this City, gave it to Master Fred Godbe, who sold it to Mr. Ivins. According to the dimensions of the cap, it must have been worn on a head of merely medium size.

A Large Crop.—The crop of corner loafers is unusually large this season, and numerous specimens of this variety of the genus homo can be seen on the sunny side of East Temple Street any day, and especially at one particular corner.

The loafer is a peculiar animal, and may be divided into several squads or sub-divisions.

For instance there is the kind that is out of work, and waiting for "something to turn up," but does not appear to exert himself to turn anything up himself, except it be his little finger, when some less impecunious acquaintance asks him to "take a drink." If he owns a small piece of ground he appears to think that the soil ought to turn up of itself, as it "isn't his trade" to do it, and he doesn't expend so much exertion upon it as to raise a single turnip. Whenever there is any hard labor to do, this kind generally assumes the role of the party who said that sitting down, looking at other folks threshing, was the easiest and most congenial work he ever did. A loafer of that kind will never do much for himself, his family or his country. He cannot be said to be a vagrant, because he has visible means of support, in the shape of sight posts, railings, stone walls and door steps.

Then there is the kind that really has been unable to get any employment, is able and willing to work, but, after repeated efforts to find it, has failed, and is consequently "down in the mouth," but such is not in reality a loafer, not being so either by nature or instinct, but almost, if not quite, from compulsion. The best advice to such is that, if he can find any kind of employment at all, whether or no it is in a line he has been accustomed to, that is the best possible way of inducing "something to turn up," and is far preferable to standing around street corners.

Women's Centennial Territorial Fair.

This Fair is to be held in the Social Hall, a few rods south of the Eagle Gate, and opened on or before the first of July.

The future welfare of Utah depends much on the establishment and success of her home industries. This consideration is the motive power that has prompted toward this enterprise; and it is hoped that all women of Utah, who feel interest in the prosperity of our Territory, will, for the promotion and encouragement of self-sustaining industries, especially in the depart of women's work, unite their efforts to make the Fair a success. And, as the interest is a mutual one, assistance from our brethren, should any of them please to extend it, will be thankfully received, and highly appreciated.

The Hall will be at our service on the 18th of June, and the specimens of women's work should be forwarded to E. R. Snow, Lion House, as soon as practicable.

The following extract will explain the present organization:

"At a meeting in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, May 15th, 1876, it was proposed that a committee be appointed for the management of the coming fair, when the following named ladies were nominated and unanimously sustained, to wit—

"ELIZA R. SNOW, Prest.
MARY E. COOK, First Vice Prest.
PRISCILLA M. STAINES, Second Vice Prest.
LOUISA A. ASHLEY, Secretary.
CLARISSA YOUNG, Treasurer.
EMMA WELLS,
MINNIE HORNE,
MAMIE JONES, Committee."

(The last two were subsequently added).

"It was also moved, seconded, and carried that Zina D. Young, President of the Silk Association, and the Presidents of all the branches of the Relief Society in Salt Lake City, with their Boards, shall constitute a sub-committee, to assist in relation to the Fair."

"AMY H. ADAMS, Secretary.
"THE COMMITTEE."

LATEST DISPATCHES.

Schenck Telegraphed For.

WASHINGTON, 23.—Schenck was telegraphed to at Dayton, O., today to come forward and answer additional evidence, if he deems proper.

Pierrepont and the Winslow Case.

It is probable that until the arrival of Judge Pierrepont at the Court of St. James, nothing of a definite character will be done by our government in relation to the existing misunderstanding upon the provisions of the extradition treaty, which at present are altogether inactive, and immediately upon minister Pierrepont's arrival in England, or as soon thereafter as practicable, correspondence will commence upon the subject of the formation of a new treaty.

The Nominations.

The transfer of the war portfolio to Cameron, and the Attorney Generalship to Taff, will not take place until sometime early next month.

Judge Pierrepont to-day stated he would not formally accept the English mission until he retired from his present office.

Pierrepont had an interview with Judge Taft to-day, when it was arranged that the latter should remain in the war office until the former retires from the Department of Justice. Cameron, therefore, will not be called upon to accept the office formally for about two weeks.

When Gen. Schenck first returned home the President tendered the English mission to Pierrepont, who declined it. Some two or three weeks ago the President again tendered him the place, and urged him to accept it, which upon reflection and consultation with friends, he decided to do. The President seems to have sent the nomination to the Senate yesterday, earlier than had been previously arranged, in order to give Conkling the full benefit of Cameron's official power during the time before the meeting of the Cincinnati Convention.

Orth's Resignation—Fitzhugh's Deluge and Taft.

The resignation of Minister Orth has been accepted. The four most prominent persons named as his successor are ex-Governor Ward, of New Jersey, ex-Representative Kellogg, of Conn., Dr. Bowman, of N. Y., and Mr. Post, present consul general at Vienna. The appointment will be made this week.

Ex-Doorkeeper Fitzhugh, when he vacated his office yesterday, carried away with him certain valuable records. He also went to the document room and asked to be shown several index books, showing a number of documents and books drawn by and still belonging to each member. These being produced, he coolly took them and placing them under his arm walked off with them, and all efforts to get them back have been unavailing. Cox, Speaker pro tem., has directed the sergeant-at-arms of the House to take steps to recover the records. Fitzhugh says he has important information which will make some democrats tremble, and injure the party itself if it becomes known publicly, and he intimated that he may use it to get even with those who have disgraced him.

Lane's Bill—The Chinese.

The House committee on Territories to-day adopted a favorable report made by Wigginton on subcommittee on Lane's bill, to annex Walla Walla and Columbia counties to the State of Oregon, and authorized him to report it to the House for passage.

The House committee on consuls have authorized Representative Piper to report his Chinese emigration resolution to the House for passage, with an amendment requesting the President to negotiate for an additional article, substantially as follows—The United States of America do thereby reserve the right to regulate, restrict or prevent the importation of Chinese subjects into the United States, except for commercial pursuits, and reciprocally the Emperor of China reserves the right to regulate, restrict or prevent the immigration of citizens into the empire of China except for commercial pursuits.

NEW YORK, 23.

At a meeting of the Pacific Mail directors this afternoon, Gould and his friends [illegible] resignations, as directors, [illegible] Clark and the stockholders [illegible] to accept, preferring to have their associates come in by regular election. The Gould party then withdrew further opposition to the transaction of business, and [illegible] offered for May 31st, as provided by law. The ticket is as follows—C. H. Prince, Cunard Line; Henry Hart, Vice President, Third Avenue Railroad; S C. Thompson, First National Bank; Andrew Boardman, E. Quinbard, W. P. Clyde, who is to be President; A. H. Mount, H. K. Thurber, and Jeremiah Millbank.

Winslow Remanded—Four Greek Sailors Hung.

At the request of Attorney General Holker, Baron Pollock remanded Winslow to-day, the term of his previous commitment having expired.

Winslow was remanded for eight days.

The four Greek sailors of the ship Lennie, convicted of murder and mutiny, were executed at Newgate to-day.

Winslow and the "Octavia" Prisoners.

In the House of Commons this p.m., Cross, secretary of state for the Home Department, replying to Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt's question as to whether the House would have an opportunity to consider the correspondence on the Winslow case between Great Britain and the United States before Winslow's final release, said, that on application of the government Winslow had again been remanded until the 31st inst. Negotiations were still pending, and it was unusual to communicate state papers until the correspondence had concluded, but under the special circumstances of this case the papers up to the present date would be submitted to the House.

Bourke, under secretary for the Foreign Department, stated, in reply to Simon, that the Cubans captured on board the Octavia had not been released, but that Spain had promised to take no action regarding them until arrangements between the two governments had been reached.

MAMMOTH COAL MINE.—C. H. Bevans, Esq., came up from Salt City. He informs us that there is a prospect of a railroad being constructed from Ogden to Corinne to the Mammoth Coal Mine. Parties are now interested in the company who have the means and influence to push it right through. On the 20th of June 100 men will commence grading the road. They will commence at the mine and grade twelve miles in such a direction that it can be finished to Soda Springs, where it will connect with the Utah Northern, or go direct to Ogden, or by a short route connect with the U. P. at this point, the only objection to the last proposition being that no satisfactory terms could be obtained from the U. P. for transportation to Ogden, a policy on the part of the directors of the railroad that is killing the towns along the line. This is probably the largest coal mine that has ever been discovered in the country, the principal vein being seventy feet in thickness, besides a number of smaller ones ranging from five to sixty feet. Governor Thayer, of Wyoming, is the president of the new company, organized in Salt Lake City a few days ago, and we understand work will be pushed forward at once to put the mine in proper shape for shipping coal.—Evanston Age.
