9 to 16

Evening Deseret News.

THE EVENING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF TODAY, THE MORNING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF YESTERDAY.

NO. 175 SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1898, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXXI.

IN THE HEART OF THE ANDES.

Strange Pictures of Earth and Sky Taken in the Attic of the South American Continent.

[illegible]

A CITY OF VAULTS AND IRON BARS.

[illegible]

PICTURES FROM THE ANDES.

[illegible]

THE MOST EXPENSIVE RAILROAD EVER BUILT.

[illegible]

THE HIGHEST OBSERVATORY STATION IN THE WORLD.

[illegible]

ACROSS THE PAMPAS OF THE ANDES.

[illegible]

HOW OUR HARVARD MEN WATCH THE STARS IN PERU.

[illegible]

FRANK G. CARPENTER.

SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY

[illegible]

IN BEAR LAKE VALLEY.

[illegible]

Our Chief Enemy in Manila.

[illegible]

A Spanish Soliloquy

[illegible]

He Went.

[illegible]

—Will Lisenbee in Truth.

ALWAYS CHEAPEST.

Other houses may quote prices in the newspapers that seem lower than ours, but they only seem so on paper. Shoddy merchandise has no foothold here. Satisfactory goods at satisfactory prices make this "THE SATISFACTORY STORE."

For this week we have again cut the price of this six-piece Parlor Set to $21.85

This handsome Whitney Baby Carriage, worth $10, rubber tire. This week for $7.25

For this week this large size Refrigerator, worth $9.00, for $5.95

This tufted Velour Couch, this week only $6.95

We have cheaper ones at $5.50. (Fifty new styles.)

Center Tables, 20x20 inch top, solid oak, like cut, worth $1.50. Sale price 90c

30 new styles of Bed Lounges just received, to be sold at a Big Discount next week.

If you need room and want an inexpensive Folding Bed, here is your chance. Mantel Folding Bed, nearly like cut, worth $18. Sale price $10.95

MADSEN'S FURNITURE STORE,

51, 53, 55 EAST FIRST SOUTH STREET.