OLD, TRIED, AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN

Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 35 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable.

A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

The Timber Laws.

WASHINGTON, 26.—Owing to the pressure of current business and the importance of the questions involved, very little progress has yet been made in the preparation of instructions by the general land office to carry into effect the recently enacted laws providing for the sale of Pacific coast timber lands and for the free use of timber in the territories for specified domestic purposes. The delay in the final preparation and promulgation of the necessary instructions will probably continue about a fortnight.

The Potter Investigating Committee

When the committee reassembled, Judge Hugh J. Campbell, formerly of New Orleans, was called, and testified that the first interview he ever had with Anderson was in Marshal Pitain's office. The protest of Anderson was referred to him, and he gave his decision that the statement was not according to law, and he (Campbell) had the statement drawn up according to the requirement of the Revised Statutes. Did not remember having administered the oath to Anderson.

Q.—To the best of your knowledge and belief did you ever affix your signature to any affidavit when the party making the same was not present?

A.—I can swear positively that I never did so.

Cross-examined by Potter. Witness testified that there were probably certain blanks, in the form of affidavits, which were drawn up under his supervision, but he could not state positively as to that. The fact of my having administered the oath to Anderson will depend upon my signature being found on the document. In preparing this affidavit for Anderson I acted as a sort of legal adviser. This protest of Anderson's was prepared for him as supervisor of East Feliciana parish. He did not have the returns of the parish present at that time. The protest was presented and sworn to as a distinct paper. The information that came to me was that the reason the protests of the supervisors had not been attached to the returns sent by mail was because it was not safe to do so, and I know it was very clear, in my opinion, that if such a fact appeared, it would be a sufficient reason for not complying with the law in that respect. I did not think in that view a conformance with the provisions of the law would make it invalid. Witness saw Sherman, Stoughton and Garfield in New Orleans, but the conversation with them was unimportant. He (witness) believed that the reason why Anderson wished to withdraw his protest was because he had become dissatisfied and had quarreled with some of the republican leaders, and was not at all satisfied with the result. Did not recollect that he might have received of being provided for or being taken care of. I have an indistinct impression that there were rumors to the effect that Anderson was in negotiation with, or had been tampered with by parties representing the democratic party. First heard of the Sherman letter in the summer of 1877, after my return to New Orleans from Washington. At that time I heard that when Weber was killed, there was found upon his body a letter, said to be important. I think Packard was legally elected governor of Louisiana, and that the same vote that elected Packard elected the presidential electors who voted for President Hayes.

Q.—Have you now, or have you ever had any doubt that if Mr. Packard had been recognized by the administration as the legally elected governor of Louisiana that he would have maintained himself in the government; and everything have gone on in peace and quietness?

A.—I have no doubt that if there had been no pause or interregnum by a partial recognition of the two governments, and Packard had been sustained immediately on his inauguration, I think he could have sustained himself.

Q.—Without any breach of peace or civil war down there?

A.—Without any civil war, but not without the active support of the United States government. I believe both the Packard and Hayes' electors were elected, and that but for the moral spirit which was prevalent in Louisiana, and which is prevalent there to-day, Packard would now be the presiding governor.

By the Chairman.—Could Packard, as a matter of fact, have sustained his government for the last two years, without the presence of federal troops?

A.—No, sir.

By Butler.—I have only one final question to ask you, and it is this: I suppose, in 1862, the authorities of the United States and of the State of Louisiana, as a State of the United States, could not have been maintained without federal troops?

A.—No, sir.

Gov. Kellogg was then called and some discussion ensued as to the order in which the witnesses should be examined, and after discussion on that point, the committee adjourned until Thursday.

The New Orleans Riot.

Ex-Lt. Governor Hahn, of Louisiana, will be appointed superintendent of the New Orleans mint.

The Potter Sub-Committee.

The sub-committee of the Potter committee to investigate the Treasury branch of the examination, left to-night, for New Orleans.

The Sioux Conference.

A dispatch from Fort Howard, extracts from the press report of Bernard, in talking with the Indians, states that the Sioux nation is made up of the South of Col. Rabbit.

Wool Markets.

BOSTON, 26.—The wool market is quiet and there is a fair demand from manufacturers, but no transactions to buy. Legislative impediments which prices continue to rule quite low. Sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania fleece at 32 @ 36 for X and XX. Main, Wisconsin and Michigan, at 32 @ 35; coarse and low medium and delaine at 30 @ 32. Territory, combing at 30 @ 32. California wool is in fair demand at 20 @ 24 for spring and 19 @ 21 for fall. Super and X pulled wools are steady, selling at 28 @ 40, but mostly from 35 @ 38.

$60,000 Fire.

LINCOLN, Ills., 26.—Peter Muller & Sons brewery was entirely destroyed by fire, this morning; loss $60,000; insured $18,000.

Gen. Ewing Complimented.

NEW YORK, 26.—A committee representing the national party in this city, to-day, waited on General Thos. E. Ewing, of Ohio, and thanked him for his bold and vigorous opposition to the resumption act, and congratulated him on the defeat of the Senate substitute bill in the House of Representatives. The General then attended a reception at Mr. Peter Cooper's residence.

Business Prospects.

The Public says: The third week in June gives very satisfactory returns of the banking exchanges at nineteen cities, for the week ending June 22nd, a loss of only one per cent. appears as compared with the corresponding week of last year.

A. H. Stephens' Position.

AUGUSTA, Ga., 26.—A. H. Stephens spoke here, to-night, to an immense crowd, and vindicated his course on the Potter resolution by the logic of subsequent events, and declared that he could not be ruled out of the party by political tricksters. If the coming democratic convention failed to nominate him he would appeal to the people. He said Hayes was doing more for the south than Tilden could have done, and declared that he himself would die in the temple of the Jeffersonian democrats free from party lash and the caucus lasso.

Democratic Convention.

COLUMBUS, 26.—The democratic state convention reassembled at 2 p.m. Durbin Ward was chosen permanent chairman, and E. S. Good, of Toledo, secretary. The following ticket was nominated: For secretary of state, David R. Page; supreme judge, A. T. Hume. The following platform was then adopted: The democratic party of Ohio, in convention assembled, hereby reaffirms the following clauses in the platform of the convention of July 25th, 1877, indorsed by a majority of more than 22,000 last fall by the people of Ohio:

We renew its pledges of devotion to the Union and the Constitution with amendments. It declares, as essential to the preservation of government, a faithful adherence to the following principles: A strict construction of the home rule supremacy, of civil over military power; a separation of church and state; equality of all citizens before the law; liberty of all individual action, unvexed by sumptuary laws; absolute acquiescence in the lawfully expressed will of the majority; opposition to all subsidies; the preservation of public lands for the use of actual settlers, and the maintenance and protection of the common school system as pertinent to the issues now pending before the people.

The Galveston Flood.

GALVESTON, 26.—The following is as much of Gen. Mackenzie's report as can be obtained for publication: The expedition was in two columns, one under Lieutenant Colonel Shafter, of the Twenty-fourth Infantry, the other under Captain Young, of the Eighth Cavalry. Gen. Mackenzie moved with the command of Capt. Young. The column under Young left camp at Devil's River, June 11th, and crossed on June 13th, 15 miles above the mouth, camping that night 10 miles southwest of the river, at a dry camp. During the 13th and 14th they reached some 40 miles to the Burro Mountains, and on the 15th intended to march 25 miles, but the guide, after conducting the column 12 miles, fell sick, and as water could not be reached and there being danger of the stock perishing, word was sent to Col. Shafter not to cross, and if he had crossed, to recross. It was then determined, on account of the frequent cattle raids, to search the country on the San Diego and San Rodrigo. Shafter was accordingly notified and the command joined on the San Diego on the 17th and moved to Remolino on the head waters of San Rodrigo, where the Mexican troops were met under Col. Valdez, who stated that he was ordered to repel the Americans on Mexican territory. He was informed that the command had no hostility towards Mexico, but was after thieves and Indians. Colonel Mencio, who arrived with additional troops, stated in general terms that he was obliged to obey his orders and attack the United States troops, whereupon some correspondence passed. The Mexican troops crossed the return route of our troops a second time and asked for an apology for the presence of the troops. The entire command recrossed the river without a collision.

More Indian Demonstrations.

DEADWOOD, D. T., 26.—Last Sunday the Indians made their first demonstrations of hostility of the season in this section, by firing upon two citizens of Deadwood, who were on a hunting trip near the Redwater, 20 miles from here. The men had killed an antelope and were fastening it on their ponies, when two shots were fired at and struck in close proximity to them. They quickly dropped the antelope and made their escape, followed by several more shots from the hostiles, five of whom were in view.

Yesterday three men made their appearance in Galena City, from Bear Butte, and reported that a band of about 15 Indians had run them in.

Gen. Bradley and command are in the vicinity of Redwater and will doubtless soon come in contact with some of these roaming bands of hostiles.

WESTERN.

The Hostile Indians—The Fight—Forty Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—A Silver City dispatch says: The assault made upon the Indians at Curry Creek turns out to be a success. It was a surprise to the savages, about 40 of whom were killed. The soldiers were very cool in the charge. The Indian force present was estimated at 700, but was probably not so large. The Indians retreated to their stronghold in the Stein mountains. Howard, with the force at his present command, is making 45 miles a day, and will effect a junction with Bernard to-night. It is estimated that the whole force of the savage warriors number 2,100. The Indians will be pursued, and there is every prospect of a protracted campaign in the Stein Mountains. The country is well adapted for defensive operations.

A Portland dispatch says: The latest news from Chief Moses is to the effect that he has 1,500 warriors, well armed and desperate. A large part of his band is composed of renegades from the other tribes. The Indians on the reservation sympathize with Moses with few exceptions, and in the case of an outbreak Moses would be reinforced by 4,000 or 5,000 reservation Indians. If this should be the case it would take 20,000 troops to capture him. Moses says he does not want to fight, but if the whites want to fight he is ready, and if he is taken to the reservation, he will be taken there dead.

The Sutro Tunnel.

A Virginia dispatch says: The Sutro Tunnel is now so near, that the Comstock miners in the Savage can hear the tunnel workmen talk. Connection will be made before the 4th of July.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Peace Congress Items.

LONDON, 26.—A Vienna dispatch says: As a result of the pour parlers between the plenipotentiaries in regard to Greece and the Porte, within the limits designated by the congress, Austria will be empowered by the congress to treat with the Porte respecting the future of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

A Berlin dispatch says: At the sitting of the congress, to-day, Prince Gortschakoff was present. It is believed the congress discussed the southern boundary of Roumelia and the appointment of a governor for the province, who is to be a Christian and appointed by the Porte, with the approval of the Powers. England, Austria and Russia being generally agreed concerning the questions of Bessarabia, Servia, Montenegro, Epirus and Thessaly, no difficulty is expected on these points.

The Berlin Provincial Correspondence confirms the reports that the questions of the form of the new states, especially of Bulgaria, is now substantially arranged, and adds that the really peacefully intentions which rendered a solution of this problem possible are the guarantee for a speedy and financial conclusion of peace.

A Berlin dispatch states: That the Servian question will be discussed on Friday. At to-day's sitting the pacific disposition of the Powers was more marked than ever. It was decided that a consular as well as a military commission should be appointed to fix the frontiers of Bulgaria and Roumelia.

The Greek plenipotentiary has been officially informed that he will be admitted to the congress.
