CHARGED WITH ILLEGAL FISHING.

Louis Hislop, Hyrum Peterson, and A. W. Schade were on trial yesterday before Justice Breeden, charged with taking fish by means of giant powder. A jury was demanded and impaneled. The principal witnesses were two boys, John Rollo and Louis Butler, who were near the river about Huntsville Aug. 3 and heard an explosion.

They went over to the river and saw the defendants in wet clothing on the bank. About twenty fish were hidden on the bank. One of the defendants threatened the Rollo boy, saying he would toss him in the river because the lad intimated that the men had used powder to catch the fish.

The case was not concluded when court adjourned. Deputy Bailey went to Huntsville after a witness who was in contempt for non-appearance.

She was born at Aalborg, Denmark, April 24, 1833; embraced the Gospel and emigrated to Utah in 1853, living in Ogden until 1867, when she moved to Cache valley, where she has ever since resided. WASHINGTON.

Heavy Rain Does Much Damage to Dams and Ditches.

Special Correspondence.

Washington, Washington Co., Aug. 20.—Mrs. James Turner presented her husband with a fine daughter on Wednesday evening. All concerned are doing well.

On the 18th inst. we had the heaviest rain and hail storm we have had for years, and we had more rain on Sunday, but not so much nor so heavy. The town in various parts was under water, and the city ditches are now in a very bad condition. The grist mill was compelled to stand still until their canal and dam could be repaired, as a large flood came down the creek and tore their dam out entirely. The dam was also taken out of the creek at the head of the Vineyard ditch, so they are without water.

The Washington field canal is badly damaged, and it is estimated that it will cost three thousand dollars to put it in repair ready for irrigation again.

It is still cloudy and we may have more rain before it clears up.

Threshing is done and the yield has been very good.
