LOCAL ITEMS.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—Elder Wm. H. Shearman spoke in the forenoon on the fulfillment of prophecy, citing predictions of the Prophet Joseph and pointing to their plain accomplishment.

Afternoon.
Elder A. Carrington quoted a remark made by Elder Shearman in the forenoon, that people are either the servants of the Most High or the slaves of sin, and reasoned that our agency is given us to determine which we will be. True freedom is guaranteed by the gospel, and consists in doing the will of God; and the only real freedom or real slavery that the speaker was aware of, either individually or nationally, depended upon being faithful or recreant to the will and behests of the Almighty.
President Young followed in a very interesting discourse, which was reported.

THE READING.—On Saturday night Lisle Lester gave her reading in the Theatre, and we are sorry to record, to a slim house. The present scarcity of money, the rest after a prolonged theatrical season, and the immense house on the occasion of Mr. Caine's benefit, all had an effect in making Saturday night's audience a thin one. Of the lady's abilities we have heard but one opinion,—that she is a beautiful reader and a finished elocutionist. Her voice is flexible and sonorous, though in the higher compass of the pathetic it is not so effective as in the medium or lower, but she has it in remarkable control. Some of the pieces read were exquisitely delivered; such was "The Charge of the Light Brigade," "Beautiful Snow" and others. Her "Widow Bedott" was a most natural and amusing performance, combining much of the theatrical with the less showy demands upon the reader.

We can conscientiously speak of Lisle Lester as a reader of great ability and an elocutionist of a high order.

THE COMMUNICATION of "A Lover of Virtue and Order" has been received, but as no name accompanied it we cannot use it. The names and addresses of correspondents must be forwarded with their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability. Our friends will therefore not be disappointed should their favors not be noticed, if they are anonymous.

BENEFIT.—We learn that Mrs. M. Bowring will take a Benefit in the Theatre on Thursday evening next, when she will present an attractive bill of entertainment.

THE FOLLOWING local items were crowded out of Saturday's issue:

TENTH WARD BRASS BAND.—The Tenth Ward, with commendable enterprise, organized a brass band last summer, which has made very considerable progress towards proficiency under the tuition of Cap. George Parkman. For some time we have understood that an effort would be made this spring to obtain a set of new instruments for them, the band being attached to the 1st Regiment of Infantry as well as belonging to the 10th Ward. We learn that our leading merchants will be solicited to aid in procuring their instruments, and have no doubt that with their accustomed liberality they will do so.

Cap. Parkman, the teacher and leader of the band, has obtained a celebrity in his profession, as the teacher of the Ogden, Kayville, and other brass bands, that is a sufficient guarantee for the 10th Ward band, becoming one of the finest in the country, a source of delight to the city, and a pleasure to those who aid them to procure the instruments.

A LEAP YEAR BALL.—Last evening the 7th Ward Female Relief Society had a very pleasant party at Dinwoodey's Hall—a large room over the Cabinet Shop of Bro. Henry Dinwoodey. We are not naturally in favor of Leap Year Balls, as, in our opinion, they are dangerous institutions unless judiciously managed. But this party was every way unexceptionable, and passed off most pleasantly. The ladies conducted the affair in an admirable manner, the principal Floor Manager—Mrs. Browning—discharging her duties with great ease and promptitude. Bishop McEllen was present, and did all he could to make the party a success. A most excellent supper was served up at 11 p.m., Bro. Dinwoodey's facilities for furnishing tables and chairs answering an excellent purpose on the occasion.

Artemus Ward said that the man who wrote "I'm sadder when I sing," was a fool to sing much.

WHY is a kiss like a scandal? Because it goes from mouth to mouth.

'NOMINATE your poison!' is the last expression used in Indiana in lieu of the matter of fact "What will you have to drink?"

An urchin unconsciously perpetrated a great joke at the expense of his teacher, the other day. The lady was announcing to her pupils the holiday on the 22d of February, and asking them some questions concerning its observance—among others why the birth-day of Washington should be celebrated more than that of any one else. "Why," she added, "more than mine? You may tell me," she said to a little fellow eager to explain, "because he never told a lie."
