

TEACHERS HERE FOR CONVENTION

Advance Guard of State Pedagogues Reached Salt Lake During the Day.

DR. HALL AMONG ARRIVALS.

Reception Tonight, Visit to City Schools Tomorrow and Lecture Tomorrow Night.

The trains today brought in the advance guard of teachers for the annual convention. Indications are that the general session tomorrow evening, at which Dr. G. Stanley Hall will deliver his first address, will be attended by at least 1,200 county teachers, and that the convention as a whole will be attended by a larger number than ever before in the history of the state.

The plans for tonight's reception and tomorrow's visits to the schools, as well as for the department meetings, have all been perfected. Dr. Hall arrived this morning over the Rio Grande Western, and went to the University club, where a lunch was arranged for him by President Cummings, State Superintendent Nelson, City Superintendent Christensen, Principal Oscar Van Cott and a number of other well known teachers.

This evening, following the reception to the teachers, President Cummings will deliver his annual address, and dancing will be enjoyed, as well as light refreshments.

Cheated Death.
Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, and in a few days I was completely cured. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." Z. C. M. I. ### WANTS ATTENDED TO.

Destitute Family Supplied With Food, Shelter and Clothing.

A sad case of destitution was discovered Saturday evening, by Rev. P. A. Simpkin on State street, between Fifth and Sixth South street. John Reilly and his wife and seven children were found in a tent without food or coal, and the father was suffering from pneumonia. They had traveled from Kansas to the Utah reservation last summer, in hope of drawing a claim for settlement, but being disappointed, they remained on the reservation until driven out by hunger. The family came to this city in a prairie schooner, but on the way Reilly was taken sick with pneumonia, and but for the appearance of Mr. Simpkin he would have died. Mr. Simpkin and Supt. Woods of the Associated Charities took the family to their comfortable quarters on Washington avenue, where medical attention was secured for Reilly, and food and fuel for the household, with sufficient clothes for the woman and children.

SNEAK THIEF CAUGHT.

Man Who Has Been Robbing Rooming Houses Now in Custody.

Detectives Shannon and Raleigh have finally secured the man who has been robbing roominghouses. The fellow is believed to be a desperate crook, and it has been proved that he escaped twice from California prisons. The name of the prisoner is Glen Blood, alias A. G. Harrison, alias Fred Grant.
In appearance the prisoner looks to be a mere boy, but it is claimed that he is 25 years of age. Through the constant efforts of the officers, Blood has confessed that he has been burglarizing various rooms. Recently he sneaked into a room occupied by two Italians, secreted himself under the bed, and while the Italians were asleep, Blood robbed them of $18 and two fine gold watches. The watches were found on him when he was searched at the police station.
Blood was arrested at a roominghouse, where he was serving a six-year sentence for burglary at the lone industrial school in California. He escaped from there and went to Oakland and was captured and returned to the school.
He was then shackled to a post in his room, but managed to break the chain, rob a sleeping guard of a watch and escape to Topeka. There he was again arrested for burglary and was in jail about 10 days when he escaped and came here. As soon as the authorities are through with him here he will be taken back to California.

GREEKS ARE GOING TO NATIVE LAND.

Many Thousands Will Soon Return to Witness the Famous Olympic Games.

THOUSANDS RESIDE IN UTAH.

Passing of Special Law Makes It Easy To Go Home Now—The Rigid Military Requirements.

Special Correspondence.

Butte, Mon., Jan. 1.—It is known that this coming spring and during the month of April, 1906, at Athens, Greece, will be held the famous "Olympic Games" for which the Grecian government has been at great pains to revive, so that the ancient glory of Greece from an athletic point of view, may again be seen. The approaching festival is one of the results of the efforts, backed by private contributions from wealthy Greeks. The present idea is to hold these games every four years, both with the hope of interesting the youth of the country in athletic pursuits, and reviving interest in olden times and scenes that have been famous for centuries.

CONSULS ALL AT WORK.

Besides the Grecian government's work, it seems that all the Greek consuls in the United States are energetic and working very hard for the good of their country, so as to obtain from the railroad and steamship companies an excursion rate, and here is how it started: George N. Tsolomiti, vice consul for Greece in Butte a month or two ago, approached the officials of the Northern Pacific Railroad company in this city, to whom he explained all about the famous "Olympic games," also that there are several thousand Greeks in this country who are going home to serve in the national army, and, for which explanations are made.

EXCURSION RATES.

In the meantime he suggested to the officials and urged them in a kindly way of taking up the matter with their headquarters, proposing for an excursion rate from America to Greece in favor of the Olympic games, also for the many Greeks bound to go home. The eastern railroad and steamship companies found the vice consul's position all right, and now are figuring about the excursion rates.

So, if the efforts being made by the vice consul of Butte, who is working together with the eastern Grecian consuls for the excursion rates, is successful, there will be many thousands of Greeks to take advantage of it to go home and square accounts with their government.

RIGID MILITARY LAW.

The law of Greece is that every male citizen between the ages of 21 and 61 years is subject to conscription and must serve in the national army from one to three years, according to the lot he draws.

Many thousands of young Greeks left their native land to avoid military duty, and by that act made it impossible for them ever to return to Greece.

Last summer the ministry and chamber of deputies, realizing that the young men of Greece were emigrating too rapidly, passed a law providing that all male citizens subject to military duty between 1893 and 1905, who were not in the kingdom of Greece to serve their terms, might return and square accounts with their country by serving three months in the army and paying into the national treasury 600 drachmas, equal to about $120. This law is in effect now.

RESTORED TO FULL RIGHTS.

All those taking advantage of it will be restored to full rights as citizens and thereafter will be exempt from all military obligations. There are in the United States about 70,000 Greeks, some of that number fully 20,000 are subject to the new law.

It is believed that a large majority of them will go back to Greece, pay their fine, take their three months in the army as a vacation, see the Olympic games, and return to the United States with a clear conscience and light hearts.

Greeks cannot avoid their obligations to their country by taking out naturalization papers, because naturalizations are not recognized in Greece unless a royal decree and permission to forewear allegiance to the king of Greece is first obtained, and such permission can only be obtained by a person who has fulfilled his obligations to his country.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

New Year's day passed very quietly save for a few informal home affairs, many however, keeping open house for those of their friends who cared to make calls.

The holiday week was a decidedly pleasant one and carries many happy memories.

Gov. and Mrs. John C. Cutler received at their home during the afternoon and evening and a large number called to pay their respects during the hours. The rooms were beautifully decorated in red and green, carnations, roses, holly and evergreens being used with artistic effect. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Jennie T. Crismon and Miss Beale Crismon.

A pleasant informal reception was given last night by Ralston and Mrs. Freund in honor of Mrs. and Miss Opendorfer of Ohio. The rooms were prettily decorated in pink and green and a number of friends assisted in the delightful affair.

The Merry Workers Sewing club met at the home of Miss Bertha Jenkins, No. 5 Chesney court, Thursday evening, Dec. 28. An enjoyable evening was spent.

A large number of people called at the Commercial club yesterday, the hospitable rooms being open to the public all day. The Christmas reds and greens

Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, kept him out of his grave. ### SITUATION STILL SERIOUS.

No Immediate Prospect of Overcoming Scant Coal Supply.

There are no immediate indications of an improvement or an increase in the coal supply of the city, and the shortage is still causing considerable annoyance to the small as well as the large consumers. All of the dealers are from five to ten days behind in their orders and some of them worked their haulers Sunday and yesterday in order to relieve the situation as much as possible. Unless conditions improve soon some of the other retail dealers will have to follow the example set by one dealer and refuse to accept any more orders and use what coal they can secure to fill the orders on hand. It is claimed that the railroads are now furnishing all of the cars needed but the output of the mines can not meet the demands of the consumers. Some dealers claim that the failure of consumers to lay in a supply of coal last summer has a great deal to do with the shortage at the present time. Usually, during the summer months, the dealers make a special rate to retail dealers and large consumers to induce them to lay in a large supply of coal, but it seems that no such inducement was made last summer and the result was that the mines did not run full to their capacity during the summer. The mines let out a number of their men who sought other jobs, as well as the big rush came they were confronted with a shortage of men, as well as of cars. To this state of affairs may be attributed to a great extent the cause of the present shortage of coal.

WILL GO TO FORT LOGAN.

First Battalion of Twenty-Ninth Infantry Ordered to That Post.

The First battalion of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, Maj. Augur commanding, will be transferred to Fort Logan near Denver, the last of this month from Fort Bliss, Texas, to take the place of the Second Infantry ordered with the Sixth and Thirtieth light batteries to the Philippines. The Twelfth and Nineteenth batteries will transfer from Fort Douglas to Fort L. A. Russell to take the places of the artillery commands ordered to the islands. There are already nine regiments of infantry and four of cavalry in the Philippines, and the government is sending additional troops there on account of apprehensions as to threatened complications in China. Enough war ships are already in Asiatic waters to make it interesting for China if any serious trouble arises.

AN OLD MAN ROBBED.

Ogden Citizen Comes to Grief in a First South Saloon.

An old man from Ogden, whose name the police did not learn, was robbed of $50 yesterday afternoon in a west First South street saloon.

Detectives Shannon and Raleigh arrested a man and two women on suspicion of having committed the robbery. The women gave their names as Henrietta Campton and Mattie Paulson. The man answered to the name of George Wilson. All were intoxicated when taken into custody, and while the matron was searching the women, they roundly cursed the officers for their arrest.

Last evening the police arrested John Tremayne who had been in the saloon with the old man, but who made his escape when the officers arrived. It is believed that the money was passed to Tremayne and that he disposed of it.

A friend gave me a box of Doan's Ointment which he had procured at the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store. I used it, and the area affected gradually contracted until it actually dried up.
