Weddings have ranked themselves as the most attractive social events of the week.

The record begins with the marriage of Miss Della Eldridge and Mr. John A. Fisher on Monday evening. The event occurred at the residence of the bride's mother, 41 east, First North street, at 8 o'clock, Bishop O. F. Whitney officiating.

The bride wore a dainty gown of organdie with lace and ribbon trimmings and carried bride's roses. The rooms were tastefully decorated with flowers, the dining room, in which an exclusive supper was served after the ceremony being very pretty with asters. The young people left on the night train for Montana to make their home in Butte.

Miss Julia Taylor and the bridegroom of a August evening event on Tuesday evening, attended by some of Mr. Will Thomas, Mr. Will Ward, Mr. H. W. Lewis, Mr. Will Young, who is shortly to leave for New York.

The house was beautifully decorated and the evening delightfully spent, about fifty guests being invited to enjoy the occasion.

• • •

One of the pleasantest events of the week was the reception given by Mrs. Emily H. Cannon on Wednesday evening for her daughter, Miss Louise Cannon, and Joseph Cannon, who are shortly to make an interior in Europe. The event was a very delightful one, the large house of Gen. M. D. Cannon, at Forest Dale, and was one of the pleasantest of the social events of the season, and accorded them during the season. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and a dancing pavilion had been erected for the occasion. The refreshments were delightful in character, and the entertainment was a most pleasant one. Mrs. Cannon will be at home after the first of October.
