BALLOT FOR U. S. SENATOR.

First Vote Will Be Taken at 2:30 p. m. Tomorrow.

AN UNOFFICAL FORECAST.

How the Different Members are Expected to Vote on the First Day of the Contest.

The first ballot for United States Senator will occur at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow, each house of the legislature meeting separately to indicate its choice at that time. In that connection it is interesting to know just whom how the members will signify their preference for a successor to the Hon. Frank J. Cannon.

With a view to supplying information as nearly authentic as possible on the subject the News today took careful inquiry at the camps of the various candidates and presents the following unofficial forecast as to how the first vote will probably stand.

For a Republican—Alder, Bonneville, Morris, Bolingbroke, Miles, Mitchell, Callister, Christensen, Crouch, C. S. Richards, Robinson, Sorensen, Taylor, Webb—11.

For King—Harden, Beaton, Carson, Johnson, Tanner, Thomas, Berry, Greenwood, Hansen, Larsen, Orton, Parry, Reid, Robertson, Wheeler, Pollock—14.

For McCune—Chambers, Grant, Hurst, Wright, Baker, Brandley, Bywater, Clegg, Cummings, Farr, Hawks, Mansfield, McQuarrie, Shepard—15.

For Cannon—Rossi, Shurtliff, Christensen, N. J. Harris, Ivers, Law, Smith—7.

For Powers—A. Nebeker, J. G. Nebeker, Bidwell, Cook, Parkins, Lapish, Jackson.

For Richards—Perry, Whitney, Pickett, Lloyd—4.

Dark Horse—Replacer—1.

A DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS CALLED.

Legislative Members Want to Settle Some Knotty Current Issues.

The senatorial question was the absorbing topic of discussion among the legislative members today. There was also considerable more activity on the part of the majority than on any previous day since the opening of the session.

Everything now points to a Democratic caucus at an early date as will be seen by the following notice which was circulated among the members of both branches of the Legislature and unanimously signed this afternoon:

"The undersigned members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Third Legislature of the State of Utah, elected by the Democratic party, believe that said party, having a majority of members of both houses of said Legislature, should decline by the wisdom of a majority of its party members in the Legislature in caucus, who should be the United States Senator from this State, to succeed the Hon. F. J. Cannon, in the United States Senate, before voting on such question in the Legislature, January 16th, 1899."

The call was subsequently amended so as to provide for a caucus on Wednesday evening, providing a senator is not elected before that time.

PROTEST OF MINORITY.

Republicans of the House Want Further Recognition.

On the adjournment of the House this afternoon, a protest from the Republican members was presented to Speaker Replogle, complaining of the representation allowed Republicans on committees, and requesting the memorialist be allowed additional Republicans on the following committees: Agriculture and irrigation, mines and mining, corporations, education and art, ways and means, fees and salaries, judiciary, labor, municipal corporations, mines and mining, federal relations, railroads and common carriers, and revenues and appropriations.

VOTING FOR U. S. SENATOR

Legislature Will Take First Ballot at 2:30 p.m Tuesday.

Work Performed by the Lawmakers Today—Plenty of Bills Being Introduced.

SENATE.

The Senate convened at 2 p. m. Senator Wright was absent on account of sickness, and Senators Hoggatt and Tanner did not respond at the roll call.

The committee on contingent expenses reported recommending that the bill for the cutter and contingent expenses of the Legislature (H. B. No. 3) be passed. The bill was placed on the for second reading.

The committee on railroads reported S. B. No. 5, by Rolapp, an act to provide for the formation of railroad corporations, etc., with the recommendation that it be substituted for S. B. No. 2 and that S. B. No. 2 be rejected. The substitute (S. B. No. 5) is entitled an act to amend section 651, chapter 7, title 11, revised statutes of 1898, according to the formation and powers of railroad corporations.

Bills introduced S. B. No. 5. This was intended to cover the whole matter of railroad corporations. It is entitled an act to provide for the formation of railroad corporations, etc., defining the rights, powers, responsibilities, liabilities and duties of such corporations.

S. B. No. 6, also introduced by Rocio, is entitled an act to prohibit persons under the age of 21 years from smoking and requiring officers to arrest persons found guilty thereof. Referred to committee on judiciary.

FIRST BILL PASSED.

H. B. 16, appropriating $5,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the expenses of the present session of the Legislature, was read the second and the third time, under a suspension of the rules, and passed by general voice vote.

A communication from the State auditor was read, calling attention to the fact that there was a deficiency in the appropriation for the half salaries of the attorney, treasurer and assessor in each county for the years 1897 and 1898, amounting to a sum approximate to $10,000, which should be met before the usual time in the session for making such appropriations. Referred to committee on appropriations.

A communication from the Utah Historical society was read, inviting the members of the Legislature to attend the session tonight at 7:30, in the Templeton lecture room. Laid on the table.

A concurrent resolution from the House was read, stating that the House had passed H. B. No. 1, by Jackson, providing for regulation and powers of railroad corporations. Called suspension of rules (its 3rd was substituted for S. B. No. 2, and asked for the second time. The bill was read for the third time and passed. Upon voting aye with no negative votes.

Hoggatt moved that the Senate proceed to ballot for U. S. senator at 2 p. m. Tuesday. House offered a substitute providing 2:30 p. m. Hoggatt accepted, in answer to a question by Senator Shurtliff that the United States senator-elect be for the first day at which the first vote is to be taken, not merely of the Senate, but that the senate meet high noon, as the time for the joint ballot, and each day thereafter. The substitute was passed.

STATE BONDS REFUNDED.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Legislative Business to Go on a Junket to Denver—Railroad Bill Passed.

The House met shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon all members present at the beginning except Mr. Mansfield, who is detained at home on account of serious sickness in his family. Lord, who is at Rockfield performing the sad duty of burying his father, Frederick Lord, who is ill and Conley who was attending the funeral of a friend.

The business transacted was the adoption of the Legislature to arrange to invitation to go on a junketing trip to Denver to attend the Live Stock convention next week, and the appointment of a committee to notify the officials of that convention to that effect.

The committee on railroads offered a substitute for H. B. No. 17, by Jackson, which passed by unanimous vote.

SALARY DEFICIENCY.

A communication was received from State Auditor Richards and referred to committee on appropriations.

It called attention to a matter in which all the counties of the State are interested, namely that there is a deficiency in the appropriation for the half-salaries of the attorney, treasurer and assessor in each county for the years 1897 and 1898, amounting to a sum approaching $10,000, which should be met before the usual time in the session for making general appropriations, as these accounts were long past due.

BENDION THIES AGAIN.

Bendion of Salt Lake, who introduced a joint resolution in the House two years ago, which was defeated at the last session providing for an absentee voter in the Constitution, introduced a similar one in other of the first and second classes should not be conducted separately in the following session which was based at the same proposition this afternoon. The resolution was referred to the committee on education.

STILL ANOTHER.

"Be it resolved and enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah (two thirds of all the members concurring).

"Sec. 1—The following proposition to amend the Constitution of the State of Utah is hereby submitted to the qualified electors of the State for their approval or disapproval, namely:

"That section 1, article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Utah shall be amended to read as follows:

"Section 2—Regular sessions of the Legislature shall be held biennially at the seat of government, and never the fourth session thereof, shall begin on the third Monday of January next after the election of the members of the House of Representatives."

A number of bills were introduced one of them to prohibit persons under twenty-one years of age from smoking cigarettes. Another provided for a six months course at the Agricultural college for the benefit of farmer's sons.

In relation to the time the first vote for a United States senator should be taken, 2:30 p. m. tomorrow was the hour agreed upon. This hour was adopted by the House.

BOISE BUSINESS TODAY.

Getting a Convicted Barbirer's Statement—Legislators and Men in 1.

Special to the "News."

Boise, Idaho, Jan. 16.—The house had passed 13 bills when it adjourned at noon today and the senate is passing them as fast as they are being transmitted to that body.

Senator Wattis, Democrat, introduced a joint memorial this morning, asking Congress to pass a bill providing for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. It is hard telling just which either the Republicans or Populists will take on the measure, but the Democrats believe it is likely to be allowed on the grounds that the present monetary condition of the country does not justify the interfering with the financial policy of the administration.

Governor Stonenberg, Attorney General Hays and detective of Black Pete left last evening for Afflek to listen to "Diamondfield Jack" Davis's statement regarding the murder of the two shepherds, for which crime he is to be hanged on the first of the coming month.

ATTACKS A DISTRICT JUDGE

Prosecuting Matter Comes Up Before the Supreme Court.

Judge W. M. McCarty, of the Fifth judicial district, occupied Justice Blackburn's place on the Supreme court bench today.

The case of Edward Whipple, appellant, vs. William Preston et al, was argued by Judge L. R. Rhodes on behalf of the appellant, and submitted upon briefs by the respondent and taken under advisement. This is an appeal from a judgment in favor of defendants and from an order denying plaintiff's motion for a new trial, heard and tried in the Fourth district court, W. N. Ironside, judge.

Action was brought 11 November, 1897, to recover $15,000 as damages for the alleged conversion of a number of a number of head of horses, cattle and mules, etc.

The case was tried before Judge Ironside and a jury in April, 1898, and a verdict "we make for action" was returned. A motion for a new trial was overruled when plaintiff appealed.

There are some assignments of error connected with this case, involving as it does an attack upon a high judicial officer, and a reply thereto. In his brief and argument for the appellant, Judge Rhodes said:

"This appeal presents some very unusury facts and conditions, and their presentation to the appellate court is, in counsel for appellant, a most painful and unpleasant duty. Calling the attention of this court to the unbecoming conduct of the judge who presided at the trial of this case, is forced upon counsel by the stern duty he owes to his client and the facts are in the record. Such conduct at any time tends to public confidence in the courts and is doubly disgraceful, as well as prejudicial to litigants, when exhibited on the bench, to the trial of causes. Had this case been tried before any other judge, or had the trial judge been sober, and in proper mental condition, this appeal would not likely have been necessary. If such drunkenness and intemperance of the judge in the trial of causes, as we allege and shall prove in this case, are condoned and approved, then will the confidence of the people in the judiciary be destroyed, and the administration of justice by the courts be looked upon as a farce. Such conduct is as dangerous to the rights of litigants as anarchy, and is as effectively trailing the judicial ermine in the mire."

Messrs. Loofbourow, Warner and Thurman, attorneys for respondents, replying, said:

"A judge is entitled to the respect of members of the bar, to fair and candid treatment from them, and no attorney has the right, in or out of court, to cast reflections upon, or treat a judge with disrespect or indignity. Such a charge as has been made should be made only when a good cause exists therefor, and in this case such cause cannot be found. The trial judge is entitled, at the hands of this court, to a full and careful consideration of the entire records of the cause. If the conditions existed that counsel would have this court believe, it is plain that, somewhere in the record, evidence of the fact would exist. We cite the record, with full assurance that there cannot be found within the bills, the first act or omission that would indicate such a condition on the part of the judge, as counsel for appellant would have this court believe existed. But on the contrary there is within it insults and vile remarks that do not become the place and dignity of any attorney, and do manifest due respect for the judiciary."

AMUSEMENTS.

Dorothy Morton, the actress, who was last seen here in The Foxing Master, opens at the Theater this evening in Grace—Grace.

Harry Corson Clarke's week in What Happened to Jones opens at the Grand tonight.

Frank Daniels' engagement closed in triumphant fashion at the Theater Saturday afternoon and evening, both houses were crowded and the financial results of the four performances have not been exceeded by anything since Bonnie Scotland. The Wizard of the Nile, which followed Bonnie Scotland, will be here following Saturday night. The Lion's Fire, which means that it drew Dustin Farnum opportunities and his capacity share that the other week, proved to be exceptionally fine, even though he often repeated some of the points he scored in The Lion's Eye.

Thursday afternoon the annual entertainment for the Old Folks concert will be the Tabernacle. There had been some thought of postponing the affair on account of the death of George Goddard, who had always been so prominent a part in such events, and also on account of the fact that his son, H. S. Goddard, was to participate in the entertainment. But it was rightly thought that the grand old veteran's spirit would like to be hurrah would rise to heaven if the Old Folks concert and the annual matinee will come off Thursday. It will consist this year of a presentation of The Cotter of Nowadays, by the Tabernacle choir, having given the house free, and the entire Salt Lake Opera Co. the orchestra and the house attaches having donated their services while the Salt Lake Consolidated Gas company has given the free use of the auditorium, and the Union Light and Power company has given the free use of the electric lights. The Old Folks will fill their tables, which strikes them in the transportation on the Salt Lake cars. The proceeds are reserved for the Old Folks and divided among them. The first and second choirs for the whole—the old—will be from the first ward, the choirs in the second. The third choir for the orphans, deaf mutes and newsboys. The attendance is expected to fill without distribution as to religious faith or color; there are no tickets, nor on this occasion.

UTAH POULTRY SHOW.

Association's Annual Exhibit Will Open on Tuesday Next.

The twenty-second poultry show of the Utah Poultry association will be held at No. 225 south D st Temple street in this city, beginning at 12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday the 17th inst. Mr. Walter L. Price of the Utah Poultry company, said to a "News" reporter this afternoon that there was greater interest being manifested this year than ever before. There will be double the usual amount of prizes offered this year, besides many special premiums. Mr. Price said that one of the main objects of this show was to create an interest among the farmers of Utah in poultry. Not one hen enough was grown in the state to supply the demand. This winter three carloads of dressed turkeys were shipped in, which should have been grown in the State.

HOME FROM HONOLULU.

Richard S. Wright, of Col. Willard Young's Third United States Volunteer Engineers, arrived from Honolulu this morning. "Dick" was actually ill with fever while in Hawaii. He said he had lost about 30 pounds of his flesh, and was now considerably emaciated. His health is greatly improved, though he is yet far from being thoroughly well.

THE LATE SISTER WEILER.

The late Sister Elizabeth McElroy Weiler, whose funeral was held on Friday, was born in Lancaster county, Pa., January 25, 1818. She was the daughter of James and Sarah Wickard McElroy. When quite a young girl she heard the Gospel preached, and received, notwithstanding the opposition of family and friends, she left all, and moved to Nauvoo, where the Saints were then gathering. At the time of the exodus she came with the Saints to Winter Quarters, where she was married to Charles Foster. In 1848 she came to Utah in Brigham Young's company. Her husband afterwards apostatized and went to California; she declined to go with him, and he never came back to her. Her children were then all living, except one. She afterwards became the wife of the late Bishop Jacob Weiler, she was made president of the Third ward Relief society at the time of its organization in 1868, and held the position to the time of her death. She was faithful to her trust as a Latter-day Saint, both in her private life and in her public services, and passed away honored and beloved by all who knew her. She leaves three daughters, twenty grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. There was a large attendance at the funeral, where the speakers were Bishop Thomas Maxwell, Aunt Zina D. H. Young, Rit. ex Sunset Westley, Elder John Henry Smith, and Elder Joseph E. Taylor. The prayer at the grave was offered by Elder Joseph E. Taylor.

MRS. CATER'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Matilda P. Cater was held from the Tenth ward meeting house yesterday, beginning at 1:30 p. m. The building was filled with relatives and friends of the deceased and the services were conducted by Bishop Adam Spiers. The ward choir furnished music under the direction of Conductor Pell. Elder Wm. Harrison offered the opening prayer, Elder C. Hendricks made a brief statement concerning his pleasant relations with the departed while working as her ward teacher. Elder C. W. Penrose then delivered the funeral discourse. He referred to the time in the fall of 1851, when he first met Mrs. Cater in Essex, England. He, on hearing the Gospel, joined the Church and became a faithful and generous member, characteristics that prevailed throughout subsequent years. Elder Joseph Capindale Cater, an English naval gentleman, joined the Church at a later date and came to this city where he died several years ago. The speaker then dilated upon the philosophy of life, death and the resurrection. Bishop Spiers bore testimony to the faithfulness and public character of Mrs. Cater, after which the choir sang and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Woods. The Relief Society and other organizations contributed numerous beautiful floral designs. A long cortege followed the remains to the city cemetery where they were laid to rest, Elder J. W. Rollins dedicated the grave.

KICKERS DO NOT KICK IN VAIN.

Cache Valley People Get an Improved Train Service.

SHORT LINE MAKES CHANGE

Two Trains Daily What Was Accomplished by Vigorously Objecting to a Wrong.

Ever since the change of time on the Oregon Short Line, there has been a strong kick against from Cache county over the train service that was given the valley by the company.

As the Short Line has replaced a larger amount of freight over the valley rails on account of the fact that part of the same length in the northern section of the system, the kick was recognized as not without good cause. The cause was that one train a day was altogether too little for the business men of the towns in the valley. The one passenger train left Preston at what was called an "unusually hour," and once out of the valley a night would have to be spent away from home by passengers.

The freight train was also very unsatisfactory. Mr. Joseph Monson has been untiring in his efforts to effect a change. Along with others he has given the officials no rest, and their efforts have been crowned with success.

The following circular was issued this morning from the general offices of the road: the officials saw that the Cache Valley people made their point clear, and here is the way in which the difficulty was settled:

ADDITIONAL TRAINS—CACHE VALLEY BRANCH.

Commencing Tuesday, January 17th, the Oregon Short Line will operate additional trains on the Cache Valley branch between Cache Junction and Preston.

Under the new arrangement passengers may leave Salt Lake at 5:30 p. m., arriving in Logan about 9:00 p. m.

Changes have also been made in freight train service.

The changes will prove of great convenience and benefit to the Cache Valley travel, and will afford the privilege of two trains from Salt Lake to Cache Valley points daily, leaving at either 8:45 a. m. or 5:30 p. m.

This will afford much better service in connection with Cache Valley business than for a long period.

Changes with Wells-Fargo.

There has been some sweeping changes in the management of the Wells Fargo Express company. Mr. A. Christensen, the manager of the central department at Kansas city, has been made general manager for the West, with headquarters at San Francisco. Mr. R. A. Wells, who was superintendent of Chicago city, has succeeded to the position of central manager. Mr. G. B. Simpson, who was at St. Louis, goes to Chicago and Mr. C. H. Tyee, a late general agent, takes Simpsons' place at St. Louis.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A new water car is in the course of construction at the Short Line shops for the Utah & Pacific. It will be used to carry water on the line in places where none is to be found.

The work of track laying is still going on and will be pushed through to Nampa as quickly as possible. Parties who have been over the road report that the service is excellent, and for as young a line the business has been fine.

The Oregon Short Line is sending out a great many folders on irrigation in Utah and Idaho. The folders are very neatly got up, and cannot fail to attract the attention of the eastern farmers. The Utah folder is finely illustrated and gives a great amount of useful information.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

MISSIONARY FAREWELL.

After the usual friends of Elder Heber Davis had done honor to him last week by meeting at his home in the Sixteenth ward on Sunday school class and ward teachers service parties there was one the latter of which taken on Thursday evening when the spacious morning house was filled completely with friends and loved ones, to cause more good cheer and gladden the heart of one as soon to set sail over the briny deep, to assist in the great harvest of human souls. Again on Friday night there was another social assemblage, this one being a family gathering. Tables were spread with the best of earth's satisfaction. Demonstrations of love and appreciation in rich profusion, gave every one who entered the room of the host, Mr. Hatsuki, Elder Davis left for the mission field.

SNOWSLIDE IN COTTONWOOD.

The electric power plant in Big Cottonwood had their supply of water shut off early this morning, so that for some hours they were unable to furnish electric current to this city. About 4 a. m. the snowslide stream filled the canon below a mile several miles farther up the canyon than the electric power plant. Men were sent up to ascertain and remedy the trouble, but the water began to run through, and by 8 or 8:30 everything was going smoothly again. The slide did no damage but to the stream till the Utah Power company's plant got in operation after the sheet dollar.

WILLIAM AS A DRUMMER

The Kaiser Secures a Large Order for Artillery as Per Sample.

Tremendous Difficulties in Presenting the "Great Accepter" with a Krupp Gun Bears Fruit.

Constantinople, Jan. 16—An imperial order has been issued awarding the purchase of 162 Krupp field guns and 36,000 shrapnel shells. This is undoubtedly the outcome of the art of Emperor William on his return from the Orient in presenting the sultan of Turkey with a perfect model of the most modern Krupp field gun introduced into the German army.

The German newspapers at the time commented approvingly on the emperor's shrewdness, which, they predicted, would result in Turkey making a large order for guns in Germany.

ELECTRIC FLASHES.

Father Chiniqui died at Montreal today. To the end he adhered to the Protestant faith.

Although there has been diligent inquiry all morning off points on the Gulf coast, not a word has yet been received regarding the fate of the yacht Paul Jones.

Louis Henry Boutelle, father of Representative Boutelle of Illinois died at Washington today of heart trouble after an illness of about ten days. Funeral services will be held tomorrow and the body then will be taken to Evanston, Ill., for interment.

Special to the News from Washington says at the request of secretary Faircloth the secretary of the treasury has ordered the cutter Winona to Mobile to go to sea immediately towards the south to the Saint Jones, thought to be in distress between New Orleans and Pensacola, Fla.

Dave Shelton of the Utes and Frank Dick of Tuscumbia, Ala., commenced a fistic battle for Washington today intent on seeing President McKinley and entering a protest against the ratification of the treaty relative to the Philippines, but the matter was settled quickly by the government officials and the Nation's representatives dissolving tribal relations.

Nine out of the twelve lines running on the Western, New Mexico and Rio Grande divisions have been discharged for using the short hole system. An investigation of the matter today and more discharges will probably follow. The investigation is in the hands of division superintendents and the discharged men. It is believed here that the loss to the company is considerable.

Pinkie Stone, known a half century ago as "Lily" Stone, is dead, aged 60 years. He should now be reckoned as the oldest actor in the United States. In amount a fortune in the business not just the bulk of it in the panic of 1873. The remains will be taken from Fort Wayne, Ind., to Wauseon, Ohio, for interment.

The Great Medicine that Gives Nerve Strength

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes the Blood Rich and Pure, Creates an Appetite and Restores Health, Vigor and Vitality.

"I feel that I ought to write a few words in praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has done great things for me. I was in a delicate condition and was sick at my stomach and nourishment. I tried several highly recommended for women's ailments, but the medicine brought on other troubles. I was so weak I could not attend to my household duties, and I then determined to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After I had taken this medicine a short time I began to gain strength. I until I was able to work all day without any inconvenience. I have taken Hood's Pills for constipation, and I can honestly say that I have been for five years. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills I feel rested in the morning. I am less nervous and am sure I have richer and purer blood. I have always been bothered with rheumatism, but now I am rid of it. Before my last child was born I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and my girl baby was fat and strong, while my other child was not well and lived to be only two years old." MRS. E. F.
