Sunday Schools.

The Juab Stake Sunday school conference was held Saturday and Sunday, May 29th and 30th, the first day session being held at Levan and the second day at Nephi, the services being presided over by Stake Superintendent William Paxman, who made an opening address and gave some good instructions several times during conference. He also spoke highly of the faithfulness and energy of the officers of the various schools of the Stake, and expressed his pleasure in their condition.

Assistant Superintendent George Goddard and Elder George Teasdale of the general board were present.

Superintendent George Goddard expressed his pleasure in meeting with the conference, and promised all presents a very happy time.

Reports were given by the superintendents of the various schools in the Stake, showing a healthy and prosperous condition of the schools.

Some pleasing and instructive exercises were rendered, consisting of the following: An exercise on the Gospel Moses, by the first intermediate department of Levan; the Lord's Prayer, in concert, by the scholars of the school; a Book of Mormon exercise was given by the Levan Primary department; Master J. Morgan recited "I Love the Lord; the Articles of Faith were recited in concert by the schools; an essay on the Apostasy was read by Miss Nellie Hanson of Levan; an exercise was rendered by the second intermediate department of Levan on the first principles of the Gospel; a quartet, For you we are praying at home, we sung by Miss Rosey Riley and others, and recitations were given by Miss Zina Sorensen and Master Salsbury.

During the conference Brother Goddard rendered several songs in his usual happy way, which greatly pleased the children, as also the older ones.

The visiting brethren gave some excellent instructions on the following topics: Prayer, honesty, fasting, tithing, Word of Wisdom, the necessity of all Latter-day Saint children attending Sunday school that they may have the principles of truth instilled in their minds, so they will grow up to be honored men and women in the cause of God; and children honoring their parents. The speakers also encouraged all young folks to set Gods to guide them in the selecting of their future companions and helpmates.

There have been three Sunday schools organized since our last conference, viz: Nephi being divided into two, one at Silver City and another at Holerville.

All who attended the conference were well pleased, and the Spirit of the Lord was richly bestowed upon us.

An evening meeting was held Sunday in which Elmer Goddard, Teasdale and Paxman occupied the time, being blessed with a rich flow of the Spirit of God. An enjoyable time was had. ALBERT H. PAXMAN, Stake Secretary.

For Your Child

If your child has a cough, Scott's Emulsion is a God-send to it and to you. It is pleasant to take, and is recommended by physicians in the strongest terms as the most nourishing and easy to take of all preparations of cod liver oil. There is no "fishy" taste or smell about it. Children take it readily, and it does them more good than any other food, building up the blood, strengthening the lungs, and laying the foundation for a healthy growth. Our book on cod liver oil sent free if you mention this paper. Be sure and get Scott's Emulsion.
