DR. NANSEN'S STORY

As Told by the Explorer in the London Chronicle.

SCIENTIFIC RESULTS OBTAINED.

The Fram an Admirable Vessel—The Meeting with Jackson—Commodore Melville's Opinion.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The story in detail by the explorer himself of Dr. Fridtjof Nansen's Arctic expedition and the adventures of his party, together with the scientific results obtained, first of which is his success in penetrating to the highest latitude ever reached by the foot of man, namely, 86 degrees 14 minutes north, are given to the world by the Chronicle this morning.
