XLVIII CONGRESS.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 31.—A bill was passed restoring the law of 1876 in the matter of appeals from circuit courts to the United States Supreme Court in habeas corpus cases. This law was repealed a few years ago while the McArdle case from Mississippi was pending before the Supreme Court.

Perkins of Kansas reported a bill granting the right of way through Indian Territory to the Kansas City, Fort Scott and the Gulf Railroad Company.

The bill granting the right of way through that Territory to the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe Company, gave rise to a good deal of discussion, but finally passed after its consideration had consumed the greater portion of the day.

A bill was also passed granting the right of way through the Indian Territory to the Southern Kansas Railroad Company. Adjourned.

AMERICAN.

Failures.

DENVER, 31.—D. S. Hyman, wholesale liquor dealer, Gunnison, is attached. Liabilities estimated at $20,000; assets nominal.

Pittsburg, 31.—This afternoon the directors of the Pennsylvania Bank instituted criminal proceedings against President Riddle and Cashier Reiber, charging them with conspiracy to defraud the bank, and placed the warrants in the hands of detectives; Cashier Reiber was arrested at his home, McKeesport, and brought to this city to-night; Riddle, who was living at the Homeopathic Hospital, was placed under arrest, but owing to his illness was allowed to remain in the hospital, under strict surveillance. Bail was fixed in the case of Reiber at $50,000; Riddle, $100,000. So far, they have been unable to procure bail.

John Barton, Esq., representing certain creditors and depositors in the bank, says he will file a bill in equity in behalf of his clients against the directors as soon as matters are adjusted somewhat by the assignee. He claims that the directors are individually liable.

The informations for conspiracy to defraud the bank include Prest. Riddle, Cashier Reiber, Thos. J. Watson and seven others whose names will not be made public till after their arrest. Bail has been fixed at $10,000 in each case. Reiber's bail was reduced to $1,000, and upon giving bonds in that sum he was released.

Washington, 31.—The following notice is posted upon the doors of the banking house of D. W. Middleton & Co., No. 1427 F Street: "Owing to heavy and immediate demands, we have assigned to Geo. T. Green for the benefit of our creditors." The doors of the bank are not open, and a number of excited persons gathered to talk over the suspension. George T. Green, the book-keeper and assignee, says that D. W. Middleton retired from the firm a week ago, owing to ill health and disinclination to continue the struggle against what he thought the inevitable. The capital stock of the bank is $400,000. Green says that a statement of the condition of affairs will be made early next week. He cannot approximate the amount of the liabilities.

Its deposits amounted to $250,000, and stocks and securities belonging to customers about as much more, making the total liabilities about half a million. Among the depositors were many army and navy officers and newspaper correspondents. The heaviest creditor, Mrs. Hutchinson, widow of the late president of the Alaska Fur Seal Company, had about $100,000 in the bank.

Crimes.

CHICAGO, 31.—The Journal's Milwaukee special says: D. C. O. Howard, charged with robbing the bank of Monmouth, Illinois, of $150,000, was arrested in Waukesha to-day on a telegram from Monmouth to the Waukesha authorities. He confesses his identity, but is reticent regarding the crime.

The remaining indictment against McKeague for the murder of the aged Wilson couple at Winnetka, was nolle prosequied to-day, in view of his acquittal on a former indictment, the evidence being similar in both cases, and the prisoner was set free.

Memphis, 31.—Appeal Batesville, Miss.: A difficulty occurred on the streets this morning between H. W. Thaler, editor of the Batesville Blade, and Julius Porter, a young lawyer, which resulted in the killing of Porter. Thaler was arrested, but discharged on the preliminary trial, having acted in self-defence. The difficulty grew out of accusations made against Porter, which Thaler refused to retract.

Disasters by Fire and Water.

DENVER, 31.—A cattle round up camp on Frenchman Creek, near the Nebraska and Colorado line, was destroyed by flood on Thursday. Eleven cowboys, belonging to Colorado and Nebraska outfits, were drowned. The flood was caused by a cloud-burst, which occurred at Small Flathead Cheyenne Indian Trail Cañon. The water came with such force that it swept everything in its path; men horses, wagons, camping outfits, all were carried down the stream with such force that few escaped. The names of the missing are Lou Wetherbee, J. Lindsay, R. Roddy, R. Fowler, P. Lynch, John Smith, L. Netherton, Wm. Ferguson, Wm. J. Pelton, and C. Hall. The bodies of the last four have been recovered.

Galveston, 31.—News Del Rio, Texas: The county jail of Kinney County, at this place, burned this evening; one of the prisoners, a Mexican half-breed, was roasted to death. The other prisoners were safely removed. Origin of the fire unknown, but believed incendiary.

The Republican Convention.

CHICAGO, 31.—The National sub-committee resumed its session at 7.30 to-night with closed doors. Senator Cullom presented his credentials to act as proxy for Senator Logan, in view of the illness of Burton Cook, heretofore acting as proxy.

By unanimous vote it was decided to take up the case of the contested delegation from the State of Virginia, which embraces all the delegates in the State, including four delegates at large. Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island moved that the delegation headed by Senator Mahone be placed upon the rolls. Mr. Beattie of Montana offered an amendment, referring the contest to the committee on credentials of the National convention, without action. The amendment was lost on a vote by call of States, as follows: Ayes, California, Maine, Nebraska, New Jersey, West Virginia, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Wyoming, total, 10. Noes, Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Wisconsin, Dakota, Utah, Washington Territory, District of Columbia; total 31. The original motion of Senator Aldrich was then carried by a similar vote.

The result of the vote seats the Mahone delegation in the National Convention, subject, however, to any action taken by the convention.

The heat of the presidential convention was very considerably intensified to-day, owing to the large influx of delegates and the presence of the outside forces, which are expected to play a prominent part in shaping events. About 400 delegates have arrived on the ground, and have been supplemented by an innumerable host of flankers, who are at present the most active factors in the preliminary battling. It is conceded that no convention in the history of the party was composed of delegations more thoroughly unhampered in the way of pledges than the present one, all of which tends to lend sharp excitement to the early movements in the fight.

Earnest but good natured work was done during the day for the different candidates, but only in the way of throwing out skirmishers and preparing the lines for attack and defense. One hears very little of anyone save Arthur and Blaine; occasionally something is said and done for Logan, the third conspicuous candidate who is reported, but the delegates do not seem to attach much importance to his candidacy. In this respect they may be mistaken. There seems to be no doubt of a friendly alliance between Blaine and Logan.

The policy of those who do not wish to see either Blaine or Arthur nominated is to persuade unpledged and independents to adhere to their choice through the successive ballots. They even desire to keep Illinois voting for Logan. It is expected this course will compel a break in the ranks of Blaine and Arthur, and make it possible to nominate either Gresham, Lincoln, Sherman or Hawley. As between Blaine and Arthur, this class of delegates usually express a preference for the latter. This fact leads Arthur's friends to hope that the independents may be induced finally to come to his support.

Several local veteran organizations visited the hotel lobbies to-night singing campaign songs, with an evident desire to awaken enthusiasm on behalf of Senator Logan for President.

The Arthur men are somewhat disturbed to-night over a report that the Arkansas delegation will go for Blaine. Prominent supporters of Arthur say there is a story afloat that Powell, Clayton and the Blaine managers have entered into some sort of an understanding.

Hamel Disston, one of the delegates at large from Philadelphia, has declared for Blaine. Arthur's strength in that delegation is estimated at 12.

St. Louis, 31.—An attempt was made this afternoon to get up a business men's meeting in the interest of Arthur for President and send a delegation to Chicago to advance his cause; but it failed, not more than half a dozen gentlemen being present, and they stating that they could not spare the time to go to Chicago.

Intercourse to-day with Nebraska and Kansas people develops the fact that Blaine's friends have overestimated his strength in these two States, and when the ballots are had there will be a pronounced division.

No one can fail to discover differences between the management of the conspicuous candidates. There is little system, but great enthusiasm in the Blaine ranks, while Arthur's followers are like a well-drilled army.

A small but influential meeting of supporters of Senator Edmunds was held at the Palmer House to-day, immediately upon the arrival of Geo. W. Curtis and Mr. Theodore Roosevelt from New York. Besides those two gentlemen, there were present at the conference Andrew D. White, Governor John D. Long, Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts; John T. Bilbert, of New York, and Horace White.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Terrible Cloud Bursts in Texas and California.

SAN FRANCISCO, 1.—The Chronicle's Visalia, Cal., special says: A cloud burst near here last night broke with such fury as to sweep away the house of Peter Stewart and all the inmates, consisting of himself, wife, mother, two children and R. Weasner, a sheep herder. The bodies of Stewart and his mother and one child, recovered to-day, were frightfully mangled, the clothes being torn to shreds. Weasner is injured beyond recovery. The house was dashed to atoms.

Galveston, 14.—The Galveston News Waco special says: Information is received from Shackleford County, that on Friday night last, a huge water spout fell covering several hundred acres long, doing serious damage. One rauchman lost 800 sheep out of a flock of 900. On the same day a water spout burst near Cisco, at the head of Battle Creek which caused the creek to overflow in a few minutes, covering the bottom lands, drowning cattle, and washing everything before it. Several farms are ruined. No lives lost.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, 31.—It is rumored four dynamiters are captured.

Glasgow, 31.—In the burning of the tramways of the company's stables to-night 200 horses perished.

Berlin, 31.—The Gazette publishes a programme issued by a committee of peasants for a convention which will convene the 4th of July. The programme advocates protective duties on agricultural products, reduction of railway tariff on such products, the creation of bank credit foncier, a more equitable distribution of taxation on landed property, diminution of legal costs attending land transfers, and the creation in every district of peasant associations.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

WASHINGTON, 31.—Estimated reduction of the public debt for May, $5,000,000.

Oak Point, 31.—The Courtney-Ross race is again postponed; the weather is very rough.

Cleveland, 31.—Base Ball-Clevelands 7, Buffalo 9.

Chicago, 31.—Chicagos 6, Detroits 12.

Boston, 31.—Bostons 8, New Yorks 4.

Providence, 31.—Providences 6, Philadelphias 5.

New York, 31.—Twenty-five hundred people witnessed the St. Louis-Brooklyn game.

New York, 31.—Rossa says: "We have got England at last. It will not be long before she will be on her knees. Last night's explosion was only the beginning of her troubles."

Patrick Joyce, secretary of the Irish Revolutionary Brotherhood, said: "Last night's work ought to convince England that we are in earnest. You need not be surprised to hear of greater ones before many days. Gladstone had better mind himself."

San Francisco, 31.—The Greco-Roman wrestling match this evening, between Clarence Whistler, of this city, and Tom Connors, lately of Denver, for $250 a side, was won by Whistler in two straight falls, in 27 minutes and 31 minutes.

Des Moines, 31.—The Wisconsin, Iowa & Nebraska, a diagonal road in connection with the Milwaukee & St. Paul road, have reduced rates to-day to all retail merchants of this city from Chicago, Racine and Milwaukee. The cut is five cents on each of the four classes. The Central Iowa Traffic Association is ended.

A Greensburg, Pa., special says, depositors in the Union Deposit Co. will not receive three cents on the dollar.

The conference committee of the iron manufactures and the Amalgamated Association this morning signed last year's wages scale, with the addition of 20 per cent. advance on steel rails and sheets.

This action by the employees averts a strike and insures steady work for a hundred thousand employees in the iron mills of the country for one year. The iron workers are jubilant.

Rev. Father Wilds

EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E. 54th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

MESSRS. J. C. AYER & Co., Gentlemen: Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.

Yours respectfully, Z. P. WILDS."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.
