GENEALOGICAL.

To Latter-day Saints who are interested in Genealogical Matters.

In accordance with the wishes of the Priesthood and Authorities, I have consented to go to the Eastern States during the present winter, to obtain the genealogies of such Saints as may think proper to employ me to do their work. I feel my inability to do this work, but I trust in God, and hope that I shall be enabled to do my duty faithfully, and be found worthy of the blessings and privileges pertaining to the Priesthood. I shall be prepared to procure genealogies with a fair degree of correctness, and in quantities of a number of thousands of the same time, the expense will be less. A card containing the prices will be issued in a few days (until postponed). This is a good opportunity for the Saints from Bear River, Box Elder, Cache, Salt Lake, Tooele, Utah, Wasatch, Summit, Sanpete, Sevier, Iron, Washington, Kane, Millard, Beaver, Juab, Rich, Davis, Morgan, Weber, Tooele, Oneida, Cassia, Bear Lake, Salt Lake City, and all other places, to have their genealogies put in a small cost. A discount will be given to those who employ me in the spring months, when I am in the Territory.

Last Night's Dispatches.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 8.—Whyte said it did not seem possible the Senate could reach a vote on the silver bill to-morrow. He therefore moved that when the Senate adjourn today it be to meet on Monday next.

Allison, in charge of the silver bill, opposed the motion, and called for the yeas and nays. The motion was agreed to, yeas 28, nays 24.

Hoar submitted a resolution instructing the committee on appropriations to consider and report whether work on public buildings in Washington, now suspended, may be resumed forthwith, so as to give present employment to workingmen whose families are suffering from destitution; agreed to.

Chaffee, from the committee on territories, reported favorably the House bill making appropriations for the purchase of law libraries for the Territories of Wyoming and Dakota; placed on the calendar.

Conkling presented a petition of ministers and congregations of colored churches in various States and Territories, asking the passage of a law to protect them against outrages on account of race, color, religious and political opinions; referred.

Cameron (Pa.) presented a petition of the governor of Pennsylvania, asking legislation to indemnify States for expense incurred by them in arming and equipping troops for the use of government, so as to pay the State of Pennsylvania the remainder due that State; referred.

At the expiration of the morning hour, consideration was resumed of unfinished business, being the silver bill, and Mr. Hill made a speech.

Davis (W. Va.) took the floor, but yielded to White, on whose motion the Senate went into executive session, and soon after adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 8.—This being Friday, bills of a purely private nature were considered.

Sapp introduced a bill to aid in the construction of a railroad from a point opposite Memphis, on the Mississippi, to Jefferson, Austin and San Antonio, Texas, and thence to a point at or near El Paso. Referred.

Harris, chairman of the committee on elections, made a report in the Louisiana contested election case, that Darrell, sitting member, is not entitled to a seat, and that Joseph H. Acklin, contestant, is. Price presented the views of the minority, with a resolution, that Darrell is entitled to the seat. Thornburgh stated for himself, Walt and Hiscock, that they had signed neither report and they would file their views. The reports were ordered printed, and Harris stated that he would call them up for action on Wednesday next.

The House then went into committee of the whole, Yates in the chair, on the private calendar.

The first bill taken up was the one appropriating $18,430 to pay W. H. Newman and L. A. Von Hoffman, of New York, in full compensation for the use of the Pioneer Mills in Alexandria by the United States authorities during the late war.

A long discussion followed, which was closed with an argument by Tucker, in favor of the bill.

The committee then rose, reported the bill to the House, with the recommendation that it be passed.

The bill was then rejected, yeas 94, nays 109. The affirmative vote came principally from the democratic side and the negatives from the republican side, but there were exceptions.

Before the announcement of the vote the question arose as the right of a member who was absent during roll call to vote.

Mills contended that a member could not be deprived of his constitutional right by any rule of the House.

The Speaker decided that the question had been uniformly decided against that position, and that this was not in contravention of any constitutional right, because it was the duty of members to be present and to attend to their public duties, and that the only persons aggrieved in such cases were people whom such members represented.

The decision was applauded, particularly on the republican side.

The vote having been announced, a motion to reconsider and to lay on table was made, but pending action, the House adjourned.

Political Love Feast.

NEW YORK, 8.—The Post, Washington democratic organ, to-day, publishes the following: While the last and decisive vote was being taken in the Wigginton-Pacheco contest yesterday, Mr. Wigginton walked over to Pacheco's seat, extended his hand and said, "Governor, we have always been friends personally, though enemies politically. I hope that the result of the vote will not disturb our friendly relations." With a magnanimity worthy of the gentleman that he is, Governor Pacheco extended his hand and said, "Circumstances have made me your political enemy, but personally I hope to be your friend in the future as I have in the past." The Post adds, "This is the prettiest political love feast on record." It also says, by way of editorial comment on the action of yesterday, "Of course, everybody knows that the discussion was only a matter of form, and all the wind from the bellows of the statesmen was intended alone for the fevered brows of their far-away constituents. It was for both another case of sight to seem. There was a doubt, and the party in power resolved that doubt in its own favor, as parties have done from the beginning of the world and will continue to do until the end of time."

Incendiarism.

NASHVILLE, 8.—A special to the American from Lebanon mentions that there is much excitement in Wilson County from the burning of a house by incendiaries. The village of Gratt was fired by an incendiary and nearly all destroyed on Tuesday night.

Cutting Timber on the Public Lands.

WASHINGTON, 8.—The committee of territorial delegates unanimously adopted the following at their meeting to-day:

RESOLVED, That the committee on public lands of the House of Representatives be respectfully requested to report House bill 1,461, introduced by Maginnis of Montana, to regulate the cutting of timber on the public lands in the Territories with favorable recommendation, as in our belief, said bill is well adapted to furnish such relief as the people of the Territories require, and that its passage ought not to be jeopardized by being attached to or connected with other proposed legislation about which there may exist serious differences of opinion.

FOREIGN.

ITALY.

The Dead Pope—The Cardinals Assembling—Preparations for the Ceremonies.

ROME, 8.—Forty-three cardinals are now here and ten more have sent notice by telegraph of their intention to come.

A public lying in state of the Pope's remains is anticipated. The ultramontane candidates for the papacy are Cardinals Luigi Bilio and Antonel Panabianco. The liberal candidates are Cardinals Innocente Ferrieri and Camilla di Pietro.

The Portuguese government, which enjoys a right of veto in the papal election, is endeavoring in accord with other Catholic powers, to obtain the election of a Pope who will put an end to the conflict between Church and State.

As soon as the Pope died the ambassadors to the Vatican asked the camerlengo to follow the ancient usage regarding the funeral and the election of a successor. Cardinal Pecci replied that such was the intention of the majority of the Sacred College.

The official declaration of the physicians who attended the Pope during his last illness is published. It states that the immediate cause of death was paralysis of the lungs.

All the cardinals here, except Monsignors Amat and Panabianco, who are sick, attended the preliminary congregation in the hall of the consistory to-day. They decided that the Pope should lie in state three days in the basilica of St. Peter. The ceremonies will will last altogether nine days, after which the conclave will meet.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Osman Pasha to be Court Martialed.

LONDON, 8.—The Globe says: "Osman Pasha will certainly be court martialed this or next month." He is charged with burying Russian prisoners alive. The Russians are so exasperated against him that he rarely leaves his lodgings. The police are instructed to prevent public demonstrations against him.

The Six Million Vote.

After a debate in committee the vote of £6,000,000 passed by a division of 328 to 124 amid enthusiastic cheers from the conservatives, prominent liberals and leaders of the opposition, including Lord Hartington. Foster abstained. Gladstone voted with the minority. The opposition hissed Lord Hartington as he left the House.

Summary of the Armistice Terms.

The summary of the terms of the armistice, communicated by Northcote to the House of Commons this afternoon, is given in a dispatch from Layard dated February 7th. According to this line of demarkation fixed by the armistice places in Russian hands almost all of Bulgaria and Roumelia up to the lines of Constantinople and Gallipoli. Three days notice is to be given before the resumption of hostilities. Another article of the armistice stipulates that the Turks are to remove their arms, etc., on evacuating the places within the neutral zone, which will divide the two armies.

The Turks have commenced the withdrawal of guns from the Constantinople lines.

The "Times" on the Situation.

The Times, in a leading editorial says it does not share in the excitement and alarm which yesterday's news created in many quarters, but thinks the time has come when the whole responsibility of action ought to be thrown upon government and a generous support be accorded it, if the legitimate interests of the country are to be protected. The government may have to act and to act promptly. It is impossible for the opposition to act for them, or take their places, and it ought now to be left to them to take a course they deem necessary on their responsibility. It is to be hoped the division of last night will close the controversy, which, however properly raised at the outset, is now wholly out of place.

The Instructions to the Admiral of the British Fleet.

The following are the instructions to the British Admiral: Proceed, if possible, to-morrow afternoon, with the Alexandra, Temeraire, Ruby, Salamis and Achilles to Constantinople to protect the lives and property of British subjects. Layard to ask the Porte to give the necessary orders to the forts immediately.

The Marquis of Hartington said, the dispatch of the fleet to Constantinople could not be regarded as a menace to any other power, but might be beneficial both of the protection of the lives of British subjects and as tending to calm the apprehension which, whether well or ill founded, undoubtedly did exist among the people of England concerning the Russian advance on Constantinople.
