of her scances was making plenty of noney. Last night A. E. Hollenback, who lost his mother some years ago, told the woman he desired to converse with his mother. The woman said the mother would return soon and converse with her son. Mrs. Raymond went to a cabinet by a round about way and soon the spectators saw a figure walk slowly toward where Hollenback was sitting. But before the "spirit" could speak. Cook and Mrs. Winzell rushed upon the ghostly visitor and grabbed the white flowing robes and tore them off. Mrs. Raymond stood before the dupes. Immediately there was a scene and hot words were exchanged. About 25 of those present took Mrs. Raymond and her "sister," whose name was not learned, to police headquarters and lodged complaint against them. Mr. Cook and Mrs. Winzell admitted that they went to the scance for the parpose of exposing the woman if any-thing suspidous was done. Mrs. Ray-mond refused to discuss the matter.

Cromar is backed by the element which looks on the mountain streams of the state as play grounds furnished by nature for the office weary and the desk tired. This element of sports-men who love the thing, has always been at war with another element in the community, which would make merchandise of fish and ducks. The hunters have tried hard to abol-ish "market shooting," and the catch-ing of fish for sale by other means than the fiy and hook. The definite movement towards more rigid enforce-ment of the law began a year ago, when a mass meeting of hunters and fishers was called at the Commercial club to a mass meeting of hunters and fishers was called at the Commercial club to lament aloud the absence of fish in the mountain streams, and the unlimited shooting of ducks along the Bear river. Fisher Harris talked of the "See Amer-ica" tourists that good fishing in the Weber would attract, and nearly every-one expressed himself about the farm-ers who control open irrigating ditches, leading off from the canyon streams. He was so busy with his practise, however, that his wife had to write how he fooled his brother, a clergy-man, one day at dinner. She says: "Doctor found coffee was infuring him and decided to give Postum a trial, and we have used it now for four years with continued benefit. In fact, he is now free from the long train of ills that follow coffee driuking. "To show how successful we are in making Postum Droperly. I will relate an incident. At a dinner we gave, Doctor suggested that we serve Post-um instead of ardinary coffee. "Doctor's brother, a clergyman, sup-posed it was old fashioned coffee and remarked, as he called for his second rang. It you do preach against coffee Y see you haven't forgotten how to make it.""
