NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Swindler Wears the Cloak of Religion With Some Success.

SEVERE WEATHER IN WYOMING.

A Desert Maniac Asphyxiated—A Lost Mine—Carnival of Manslaughter, Etc.

Green River, Wyo., has experienced very cold weather. In many places the lower in mercury for the last so that the ice is deep enough to stop trains that way.

Hattie Gruber, of Stockton, Cal., wants to find her father, Louis, who was last heard from in Denver. The girl's mother died recently and it is impossible to settle his estate until the owner is found.

There is a very large amount of snow in the Upper Platte valley, says the Lander Enterprise, and the Mountain lions are in unusual quantity. It requires plenty of water for all purposes since through the coming year.

A few days ago Diamond Liberty, in company to its mine nearly opposite Parkman, Idaho, broke through the tunnel was unwatered. Deserted for nearly been working on the bullion back near Monumental. The ore would freely compare with any in the district. Enough was taken out to pay a dividend.

In a Pleasant (Colo.) gambling house a quarrel ensued between Laura Morris and Wee Johnson, when the latter drew a revolver and shot at Johnson. The ball missed the man at whom it was intended, but entered the thigh of Laura, causing nearly through. Both were arrested, and testified in the strip were colored.

John McLeod, an employee of the Bella Donna Mining company, was recently caught one Sunday night at Marion by a loaded car which broke away and ran down the top of the incline and ran down, with almost the speed of a train from a gun. McLeod was on the platform at the bottom, and the car struck him with force enough to knock him twenty feet and kill him instantly.

It seems a point for anything, says the Sunset Vista (Utah) Herald, the Centennial will be one of the greatest gold exhibitors of the country. The vein is very large and can be traced very positively and steadily. The ore is bonanza of iron and copper (Pyrite and silver) will be gold. The mine carries what have been called gold, mostly in lead are practical miners are will be indescribable in pushing development.

The petition of Laura D. Smith to locate her claim deed on the Tabor opera house and the Tabor block, in Denver, was argued before Judge Allen Monday and taken under advisement. Mr. Smith, (formerly Swinehart) holds notes aggregating $15,000, secured by second trust on the property, a first mortgage for $10,000 held by the Northwestern, above so both ladies interest independent.

Justice W. Hall, a musician well known in Denver, was found dead in his home Weldon street on Saturday morning, from asphyxiation. He had retired Friday evening in good health, with the exception of his weight he complained of in the morning. When found he only was on the floor, with arms outstretched, as if he had been reaching for the gas jet. On his left cheek was a large bruise, apparently from his fall.

Into the Winnie Pine (Nevada) News: A cup of execution has been granted in the case of Wong Fung, who was convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of Hong Lee on the 23 of October last, and the date of the execution was set for Friday, in the 19th. The supreme court granted a hearing on motion for a new trial, which has been argued in appeal from the district court of White Pine county, ordered that the execution be suspended until said appeal shall be heard.

Thomas Cleary has been convicted in the district court at Helena, Mont., of manslaughter for killing Frank Dunlap, a cowboy, a few months ago in that city. Cleary went out from a saloon with a whisper from Sprite and had a fight with Jack Dempsey before which he had in San Francisco. He had two guns at the beer until he had become a maniac, and while Dunlap and another were trying to fall in with Cleary. They had been out all night and were worn up with a quarrel and while leaving town Cleary the latter put a load in Dunlap and said a ball into back of his neck. He will be sentenced next Saturday.

A dispatch from Naples, Arizona, says: Two weeks ago information was given among cattle shippers from Phoenix to a combination of a quarantine against Texas cattle, to have effect on the 15th inst. A large number of the Texas cattle buyers have been purchasing and gathering cattle on the Gila river at the line, and while they have not many thousands, they have had large sums of money and up to noon yesterday, which, under a night's quarantine, would be practically ruined. Of Hayworth, one to that effect by telegraph from E. Wetmore, the Arizona commission agent, the information has been received until the Hilton Matter and Hilton authorities. In that effect a telegram received by Mr. Wash from the department of agriculture at Washington. This will enable shippers to get their gathered cattle over the line to avoid a great threatened loss.

John Rice, of Mason street, San Francisco, advertised a few days ago for a situation for himself and wife. Shortly after a young man called at the house and stated that he represented the employment department of the Young Men's Christian association and had got Rice and his wife good situations in the country. Before setting the young fellow had Rice take a small note he was necessary to enclose in the stamp of correspondence. He was given $10. He gave Rice a Young Men's Christian association card, telling him to call at the association room, and notice that arrangements. The Rices called at the address and found they had been dealing with a female swindler. At the Young Men's Christian association it looks like a clever swindle. Unknown to the fellow has extended many pages out of small sums of money to a similar manner. Unknown to the police headquarters, the swindler is between eighteen and twenty years of age, and has a complexion, fair and is well dressed.
