SECOND DISTRICT COURT.

Case Heard before Judge Hiles—Jury Excused Until Further Notice.

Juror in Jones Divorce Case—Trackmen's Institute Postponed—Minstrel Entertainment.

In the second district court before Judge Hiles the following business was transacted.

The trial of Geo. A. Cline vs Jonathan Williams was concluded. The case was submitted to the court without argument, judgment was rendered for the defendant, and ordering that defendant recover his costs against plaintiff.

The case of Jones vs Jones, a divorce action, was tried. The chief issue in this case was the value of the action, in order if caused for respective parties, was considered.

The trial jurors who were heretofore summoned to appear in court were for the present time excused until further notice is given to cause to serve for the balance of the term.

Arthur Fishburn vs J. C. Armstrong et al. It was agreed by counsel for the respective parties in this action that it should be put on trial at a time when it is convenient to do so.

Suit of Ellen Ward vs W. Jones. The court is now in session hearing the divorce case of the husband of deserter and below is notice.
