SPECIAL NOTICE.

A SECOND EDITION OF THE ARTICLES OF FAITH.

The first edition of "The Articles of Faith," prepared by Dr. J. E. Talmage, under appointment of the First Presidency, is exhausted, and a second edition is now in course of preparation. It is now but two years since the first edition of 10,000 copies was ready for sale, and for months past it has been impossible to meet orders for the book. Such a sale of a home publication has never before been reached within the same length of time.

The author specially requests of all who have used the work in class-work or for individual reading and study, that they kindly inform him of any errors in references, or other mistakes and omissions they may have observed. It is by teachers and students who use such a book for detailed study that errors of the kind would be most easily detected. None but minor errors, mostly typographical, and but few of these, have been reported to date; but a full report of errors will be appreciated. Reports of the same should be sent without delay to Dr. J. E. Talmage, Salt Lake City.

THE DESERET NEWS.

A committee will be appointed to examine applicants. The details will be given later.

The Unitarian society held an interesting Easter service in the theater yesterday, and at the close of the exercises the society issued a call to Dr. P. S. Thatcher who had been compelled to leave the services to catch a train for the East. The call was telegraphed to him.

According to a telegram received by Attorney C. S. Varian, Captain George A. Ryan, formerly of Eureka, died at Cripple Creek, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Pneumonia was the fatal trouble. He has a host of friends who will hear of his death with regret. He was prominent in mining and labor circles and was an influential member of the constitutional convention. He was buried at Cripple Creek today.

A petition signed by a host of citizens asking for additional mail service between Salt Lake and Ely, Nevada, via Wells and Cherry Creek, has been sent on to the postoffice department at Washington. Business men generally favor this change, as it would be an advantage to Salt Lake as well as to the growing population that is moving into the country along the proposed new mail route.

Captain Reuben B. Turner, formerly stationed at Fort Douglas with the Sixth infantry, has been flattered with a call to one of the most important details in the army. He has been summoned to fill a vacancy at the headquarters of the department at Washington, D. C. For some years Captain Turner has had charge of the construction of various posts throughout the Union. Mrs. Turner was formerly Miss Lou Love of this city.

President Empey, Vice President White and Secretary Sears, of the D. A. & M. society, will meet with the city council tomorrow night to see if an understanding can be reached in regard to the city purchasing the property of the society. The council committee appointed to look into the matter recommended that the city pay $20,000 for the property, $5,000 down and $15,000 in December. Now the question is, will the council stand by the recommendation of the committee?

The funeral of Roman Cannon, the old resident whose death Thursday was caused by an electric shock sustained while acting as conductor on a Salt Lake street car last September, was held yesterday from the Thirteenth ward meeting house. The speakers were Bishop Empey and President Angus M. Cannon. The floral offerings were beautiful, a large portion of which came from the deceased's fellow employees of the street car company. The interment was in the city cemetery.

F. E. McGarrin & Co. are the unhappy possessors of another of the celebrated Conway forged mortgages. It covers a piece of land on Sixth South, between Main and State streets, valued at $7,500, and is signed by J. A. and D. C. Donovan. The loan was only for $1,250, and was considered a safe investment, although the Donovans address was given as Salt Lake instead of Longmont, Colo., where they make their home. The property was to have been sold on Saturday under foreclosure but attorneys Westervelt & Snyder stopped the sale by suing for an injunction against it.

A very pleasant social affair was held last night at the home of Christopher King on East Second South street. The event was got up by a body of grand masons, principally past grand masters. During the evening Grand Master C. W. Morse presented to Past Grand Master C. W. Bennett, John S. Scott, S. Paul and George V. Schramm handsome past grand master jewels. The recipients responded appropriately. An elegant supper was spread and those who surrounded the hospitable table were fully regaled. The affair was a success and the evening was a most enjoyable one.

On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Woman's Democratic club will meet at the home of Mrs. Morris Sommer, 247 West Fifth South street.

J. W. Walker was over from Antelope Island the first of the week. He says the lake is rising but still they are crossing it by team—Davis County Clipper.

Blackfoot News: Miss McFadden, a former teacher in the Blackfoot schools, has been engaged to teach in Salt Lake City at a salary of $65 per month.

Congressman Sutherland has received notice that the postoffice at Clover, Tolee county, has been re-established, with Mrs. Inger St. Joer as postmistress.

Word has reached Salt Lake of the death of John W. King at St. Louis. The deceased was the father of John B. King of this city. The latter went to the bed side of his father several days ago.

Elder B. H. Roberts will deliver a lecture at the Latter-day Saints Business college assembly room this evening on the "Translation of the Plates." The lecture begins at 8 o'clock and the public is cordially invited.

Congressman Sutherland has been appointed of a vacancy to be filled from Utah that now exists at West Point. Congressman Sutherland said that the usual custom will be carried out, viz.,

PEDESTRIANS

And Streets for Bicyclists, Says Mayor Thompson.

The first edition of "The Articles of Faith," prepared by Dr. J. E. Talmage, under appointment of the First Presidency, is exhausted, and a second edition is now in course of preparation. It is now but two years since the first edition of 10,000 copies was ready for sale, and for months past it has been impossible to meet orders for the book. Such a sale of a home publication has never before been reached within the same length of time.

VETOES NEW ORDINANCE.

City's Chief Executive Believes It Would Result in a Renewal of Accidents If It Became a Law.

Mayor Thompson this morning vetoed the bicycle ordinance. The terms of the veto are as follows:

"Gentlemen:—I herewith return bill No. 279 for an ordinance amending an ordinance regulating the use of bicycles and other riding machines within Salt Lake City, and providing penalties for the same, without my approval, for the following reasons:

"The proposed ordinance contemplates that between November 1st to April 30, the following year, bicyclists may ride on certain sidewalks, where they are now prohibited from riding. In my judgment, this plan is inadvisable. I believe that the sidewalks of the city are intended for the use of pedestrians and not for vehicles. Formerly when bicyclists were permitted on the sidewalks, which are again proposed to be opened to them, many accidents occurred to persons as a result of the privilege.

"I recommend that your honorable body take the necessary steps to commence at an early date, the construction of bicycle paths, beginning with First, Second and Third South streets, within the restricted district as it exists at present."

ORIENTAL BAZAR.

A rare collection of Persian and Turkish Rugs, Oriental goods, etc., has just been received at 25 East 1st South. It would be folly to fail to see the exhibit. Specially low prices will be offered during the next 15 days. Go and take your friends.

MABEL HAD ANOTHER.

This One Did Not Follow Her to Salt Lake, as He Was in Jail.

The Denver police, says the Post of that city, have been notified through a circular issued by the authorities of St. Louis of the escape from custody of Louis C. McDowell, alias J. Pierpont Morgan Jr., alias William J. Lemp Jr., who they say, was once the lover of Mabel Hite, now Mrs. Edward Ellis Hamilton.

According to the police McDowell became smitten with Miss Hite when she was personating the character of Estelle in "The Telephone Girl."

He was very attentive to her. It is said, and made her many expensive presents. Among the presents was a diamond brooch valued at $800, which he got from a firm of jewelers on the representation that he was William J. Lemp Jr., son of the millionaire brewer. To Miss Hite he represented that he was J. Pierpont Morgan Jr. When the fraud was discovered McDowell was arrested and pleaded guilty to the charge of securing the diamonds by false pretenses.

While being taken to the penitentiary, he and several others jumped off the train and escaped. He is still at large.

When Mabel Hite came here Edward Ellis Hamilton, who was cutting a wide swath in society of Denver, became smitten with her charms, followed her to Salt Lake and married her.

FINE TRAIN FOR MCKINLEY.

Brand-New Affair to Carry the President to the West.

The train on which President McKinley will travel to the Pacific coast to witness the launching of the battleship Ohio will be a brand new affair, says the Philadelphia Record. It will consist of six Pullman coaches, to which the finishing touches are now being given. Inasmuch as the President was invited to California by the citizens of that State, they probably will want to pay a part of the expenses of the train. The President always pays his own expenses on a trip of this kind, and those of Mrs. McKinley and his secretary. He will pay his own expenses this time.

The first car from the engine will be a combination baggage car, barber shop, library and smoking compartment. The second will be the dining car. The third will be a combination car for the members of the cabinet and their families.

The fourth will be the office car, containing all the equipment essential to the transaction of business, and a corps of clerks, typewriters and stenographers. The official seal will be at hand, and every other convenience necessary to the transaction of public business. In the business office of the train will be two of the White House telegrams.

The fifth will be the private car of the President and Mrs. McKinley, and the sixth will be used by the correspondents, clerks, stenographers, photographers and secretaries to the cabinet officers.

WORK OF PICKPOCKET.

C. Busath Emerges from a Crowd a Watch Shy.

While mingling in a crowd at the south gate of the Temple block last evening, C. Busath of 541 West Third South street, was robbed of a silver case watch which he prizes very highly. When he reported his loss to the police he said he could not remember noticing any suspicious character hanging around him, but just as he came out of the gate he felt for his watch and it was gone.

THE HERALD'S FAKE STORY.

It Bewilders the Pyramid—The Moral Is: Take the "News."

Some great newspapers are peculiar. For instance: Last Friday the Salt Lake Herald came out with a "special dispatch" announcing the sale of a patented heating and lighting invention by Salt Lake parties to the Standard Oil company for the enormous sum of $5,000,000. The afternoon of the same day the News denied the sale absolutely, and the Tribune the following morning. The Herald, notwithstanding, still insists that it is correct, and that the sale has been made. It's difficult to guess what is the truth. But that part of the story is not. If the dispatch was not the truth why did the Herald publish it, and after having been called down, insist that it was true; and on the other hand if it was true why did the News and Tribune deny it? These papers could easily learn the truth of it and probably did. Another instance: Some days ago a dispatch came by Associated Press service and was printed verbatim in the Salt Lake morning dailies. It was a story of a woman who had been the sense of the one heading was absolutely the opposite of the other—one heading gave the article one meaning and the other gave it exactly the reverse. Salt Lake's dailies are great papers but they are peculiar at times—Mt. Pleasant Pyramid.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funeral of Elder L. C. Morck was held from the Eighteenth ward meeting house at noon yesterday. The building was crowded with friends of the deceased and many were spoken of by him. Those who paid tribute to his memory were Elder Adolph Madsen, Bishop Johnson, of Lake View; Elder O. Berg, of Provo; Elder A. Walquist, of Murray; Apostle A. H. Lund; Bishop O. F. Whitney, great Elder Martin Christopherson. Interment was in the city cemetery.

Impressive funeral services were held over the remains of Mrs. Harriet P. Perry yesterday at 12 o'clock from the Sixteenth ward meeting house. Bishop George R. Emery presided. Beautiful music was rendered by the choir under the direction of George Timpon. The speakers were Elders Thomas E. Jensen, Joseph Barry, of Ogden; Apostle John Henry Smith, President Joseph F. Smith and Bishop Emery. Each speaker eulogized the pure and upright life of the deceased and testified of her influence on the community. Four of the grandsons of the deceased were the pall bearers.

WITH THE JUSTICES.

In Judge Timmon's court this morning Mary Jane Smith, a colored woman, was tried on the charge of petit larceny. The woman was employed at the Fort as cook for R. E. Skridge and it was alleged that on the 5th day of April she stole some dishes and table linen from Col. Skridge's place. When the articles were missed a search for them was instituted, and they were found in the Smith woman's trunk. Capt. Schly and Miss Eschridge testified as to finding the things and Miss Eschridge identified the stolen articles.

The defense was a general and flat denial. The court found her guilty as charged. Her attorney, J. M. Hamilton, made a plea for clemency and stated that the accused was ready for sentence. The court then sentenced her to imprisonment in the county jail for six days.

John Erickson, a Bingham miner, was arrested at that place last evening on a warrant issued from Justice Kroeger's court. He is accused of obtaining money by false pretenses. Erickson was charged with obtaining $100 bill from a Commercial street saloon keeper named Martin Enquist. It alleged that the defendant induced Enquist to give him gold pieces in exchange for the bill. Erickson professed to know that the bill was false, but he will have a hearing before Justice Kroeger.

COUNTY AFFAIRS.

At a special meeting of the board of county commissioners, held at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Mrs. S. J. R. Miller was appointed matron of the county infirmary. Robert Freeman was appointed road supervisor at Harriman, vice John J. Stocking, who failed to qualify.

A change was effected in the boundary line of the Mill Creek and South Cottonwood districts by which a portion of the South Cottonwood district is added to the Mill Creek district, making Sixteenth South street the northern boundary line of the South Cottonwood district.

The salary of Clarence M. Brown, deputy clerk in the assessor's office, was fixed at $30 a month.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all my pain. I have since recommended this salve to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market."
