Daring Robbery by Masked Men.—Determined Suicide of A German at Sacramento.

Nelson A. Fairchild died on Monday at Gila Bend, Ariz., of sunstroke. The mercury in Arizona's coal of fire sometimes, as it is the first on record.

A son of T. J. Richards, who lives in the neighborhood of Reno, Nevada, was in the brush near his father's house and called to his mother in some out and kill a wildcat. The elder boy, a lad about fourteen years old, responded, taking with him a shotgun, and unleashing his little brother for the chase. The wildcat, shot and killed him instantly, the charge hitting the little poor lad in the breast.

A young fellow giving his name as Dave Simons appears on the streets of Caldwell, Idaho, offering his horse and equipments for sale at such a low price as to arouse suspicion. He claimed to be from Long Valley and to have taken the horse on a debt. He said he had to the animal for a year. It now appears that the outfit belongs to a Boise livery stable, should there be other reasons, apparently with a good prospect of crowding his very shortly.

Says the Cheyenne Sun: An ordinance which shall prohibit gambling in this city, if it passes, will be introduced at the city council at its regular meeting. Some pressure has been brought to bear upon the mayor and members of the city council, some as they have thought it not that the question should be thoroughly discussed and then put to a vote. There was talk of calling a special meeting of the council last evening to take action on the matter but that was abandoned.

Sheriff Hamilton and Deputy Tait have arrived at Dillon, Mont., with Mulligan and Wells, English, of the gang of horse thieves. The men were found in possession of fifteen stolen horses. They offered resistance at first, but gave up when they saw they were overpowered. A dispatch since received from Red Rock says the same band of horses which were left in charge of a man there, are stolen again. Deputy Tait is again on the trail and more arrests are expected.

The bodies of Henry Dutton and Jacob Walker were found Friday morning under a tree a mile west of Challender station, Arizona. The tree was timbered and the bodies were blackened and swollen. They had been shot by several bullets since Monday, was supposed them to be resting under the tree. When discovered decomposition was far advanced, so that they may have been killed several days ago. Papers indicate that they are from Gallup, N. M., bound for Newlins, Cala.

Reports have reached Dillon, Mont., of a daring robbery in French Gulch, near Argenta. Two masked men attacked Charles Watson and two companions working on a placer claim. Each one was bound, gagged and carried to the cabin where the robber kept guard with a pistol. The other one went to the diggings and worked from 3 till 9 p. m., on a clean-up, getting out about $900 in gold dust. The imprisoned men managed to work loose Friday morning, and took the report to Argenta. There is no clew as yet to the identification or location of the robbers.

Frederick Fisher, an aged German, committed suicide at Sacramento, Cal., on Saturday afternoon. Fisher took breakfast with the family as usual, but was not seen again until the afternoon, when some children found his dead body in a scrubbed close to the house. A bottle which had contained strychnine was found by his side. Fisher had threatened previously to end his life. He usually brought, and as an open jackknife was found near him, it is supposed that he intended, should the poison not take effect immediately, to cut his throat. The deceased has been unemployed for several days.

A young man signing his name as W. A. Herrera was found dead in bed in his room at the Windsor house, Wilcox, Ariz., on Monday morning. He claimed Chicago as his home, and by letters found on his person it is shown to be has a mother in San Francisco. It is believed by those most intimate with him here that it is a case of suicide caused by despondency. Deceased had been here about ten days, and had been on a protracted spree, resulting in his being discharged from the employ of a San Francisco house for which he was traveling. During the past week he made several unsuccessful attempts to secure money from Chicago by wire. A coroner's inquest was held and the remains buried in the potter's field.

Anna Walcon, the 17-year-old daughter of Joseph Walcon of Harman, Denver, has met a horrible death. She attempted to light a fire in a stove with kerosene oil. There was little blaze in the grate and the young girl poured oil on the wood out of a can half full. The flames shot up and she dropped the can and a small explosion followed and a sheet of burning oil covered her. She rushed out into the yard and cried for help. Her father came to her rescue and smothered the oil burning all over his child. She was dreadfully burned. Her dress was almost entirely consumed and her face, arms, chest and limbs were all horribly scorched. The odor of burning flesh was noticeable in the house. Tenderly the girl was carried to a bed and a doctor summoned. She soon became delirious, then unconscious and passed away.

The Carson (Nevada) Appeal: Laura M. Tilden, daughter of Judge R. C. Tilden, of Virginia City, passed a most creditable examination in the supreme court yesterday morning, and in order was made admitting her as an attorney and counselor in all the courts of this state. The judges, in handing, remarked that she passed the most satisfactory examination of any person that has ever appeared before them. Miss Tilden is the first lady to be admitted to this bar, and probably the youngest female lawyer in the world, being only 22 years old. The ladies of Nevada owe her a debt of gratitude for she obtained the passage of a statute by our legislature last winter giving females all the rights and privileges a male, so far as being lawyers are concerned, which they did not have before. "I was Tilden lived in Carson when a small child, and then had quite a local reputation as an effective and fervent orator. We bespeak for her a bright and growing future and wish her much success." Miss Tilden was born in Sacramento, where her father and mother then resided. She attended the public schools here, and afterwards took a course in the State Normal school at Santa Rosa, graduating in the class of '89. Her father is a lawyer, and her grandfather was Judge J. H. Hakins, who came to California in 1849. He was a member of the first constitutional convention of this state, and was one of the ablest lawyers in California.
