REPORT OF THE EXCHANGE.

Secretary Hudson Shows Its Condition Financially.

SLIGHT CUT IN SALARIES.

Business Somewhat Light on the Old Board This Morning—Transfers of Stocks.

C. E. Hudson, secretary of the Salt Lake Stock and Mining Exchange, submitted to the members of that institution this morning his report of the financial condition of the board for the month ending March 31st. The report showed that to a balance of $2,927.12 there had been added during the month [illegible] received on account, $255 for listing and $2 for fines, making a total of $3,[illegible]. From this disbursements were made as follows: Expenses, $[illegible]; fixtures, $[illegible], or a total of $[illegible], which, deducted from the balance above given, left a surplus in the bank of $2,[illegible]. The report also showed that the sales for the month amounted to 1,[illegible] shares for $[illegible], while for the same period a year ago, they were [illegible] shares for $[illegible], making a gain of 1,[illegible] shares and $[illegible].
