FOREIGN.

Madrid, 15.—The new cabinet has been sworn in.

Gen. Lopez Dolinguez, minister of war, does not propose to displace any generals of the army, but if any tender their resignations they will be replaced by friends of Marshal Serrano.

Syria, 15.—A strong shock of earthquake lasting eight to ten seconds, was felt on the island of Chios yesterday. Several houses were destroyed and some persons injured.
The shock was also felt at Syria and Smyrna. There was much damage and loss of life at Alivoli.

Dublin, 15.—Irving Bishop, mind reader at an exhibition here on Saturday night, failed four times to give the number of a bank note. He then fainted and has since been dangerously ill of congestion of the brain.

Berlin, 15.—Dr. Koch, of the German commission which went to Egypt to investigate the cholera epidemic, reports that he discovered that cholera is due to a living thread-like microscopic organism resembling that seen in cases of phthisis.

Madrid, 15.—The organ of Senor Sagasta, late Prime Minister, assures it follows that Senor Sagasta will support the new ministry. The paper says Senor Sagasta resigned in order not to interfere with the party of reconciliation.

PEKIN, 14.—A riot occurred at Foo chow, owing to the French Consul's having objected to the burial in ground adjoining the foreign concession, of a Chinaman who died from cholera. The temper of the Chinese at all treaty ports is dangerous.

HONG KONG, 15.—Piacards have been posted on the island of Hainan, threatening mandarins and foreigners with death. Protection is necessary, as serious riots have taken place at Foo Chow. Renewal of the rioting was prevalent by the interference of the French consul.

LONDON, 16.—The report of the appointment of Gen. Sir Henry Norman as Governor of Jamaica is confirmed. The appointment is approved by the Queen.

An outbreak of trichinosis is reported at Ermaleben, Prussian Saxony; a hundred and eighty persons are suffering. Four deaths.

Foreign Socialists, with forged passports, are arrested at Reval. The trial of eighteen Socialists, on a charge of high treason, has begun at Olmutz, Moravia.

R. Edward Earl and Wm. V.
Cox, U. S. delegates to the International Fisheries Exhibition, announce the following awards: The Jury awarded 48 gold, 47 silver, and 29 bronze medals, 24 diplomas and seven special prizes to United States exhibitors. The United States Fish Commission received 18 gold medals.

There were violent gales on the English coast last night and to-day, and several wrecks, with loss of life.

Four hundred persons are prostrated by trichinosis in ten villages in Saxony. Sixty of the sufferers are in a hopeless condition. Deaths from the disease are occurring daily.

Dublin, 16.—A farmer named Spencer, living near Cork, was attacked and murdered with a pitchfork yesterday. Ten persons are arrested.

A league meeting at Roslea, County of Armagh, was addressed by Healy, Sullivan and Biggar, Members of Parliament. Michael Davitt was absent.

A meeting of Orangemen was held at the same time. Collision between them and the Parnellites was prevented by a force of police and soldiers.

Many Orangemen and Parnellites were armed with revolvers. Numerous Orangemen assaulted and severely injured persons whom they mistook for Healy.

Moody and Sankey opened in Cork to-day. A mob gathered outside the building and hooted persons who entered. The mob was dispersed by police.

Paris, 16.—It is said the Government has resolved to act energetically against all agitators. The manager of Drapeau Noir, anarchist journal at Lyons, is arrested.

Other arrests of proprietors are expected.

The Cabinet has adopted the proposal of Admiral Peyron, Minister of Marine and the Colonies, to create a Superior Council for the colonies, to be composed of thirty-six members.
The Telegraph says Admiral Peyron intends to give Catholic missions an important part in the colony of extension, as he considers the Catholic missionaries may render substantial service.

Berlin, 16.—The government of Alsace-Lorraine has prohibited the publication in French by papers in that province of articles lauding France, and anti-Prussian.

LONDON, 6.—A committee of Justices considered the letter of Guy, O'Donnell's solicitor, in regard to his client's being deprived of the use of tobacco. The committee, after seeing the prisoner and having the opinion of the prison physician that O'Donnell was in excellent health, refused O'Donnell the use of tobacco.

The society for promoting state aided emigration will inquire into the condition of the working classes in the east end of London, with a view to ascertain how many persons may feel inclined to emigrate to Northwestern Canada. The results of the inquiry will be furnished to Government.

Durban, 4.—The remnant of Ceteway's party, having assembled with the intention of rescuing Cetewayo from Inkankla Bush, where he has been interviewing Chief Ualibepu, whose forces have been watching the borders of the reserve near Bala-rango, surprised them and slaughtered one half of their number.

Paris 16.—Prime Minister Ferry, in a speech at Havre, foreshadowed the withdrawing of the present embargo upon American bacon.

ROME, 17.—The International Geodetic conference is invited to meet with the Scientific Congress at Washington next year to discuss a proposition for the establishment of a universal meridian.

LONDON, 17.—Delegates of 30,000 miners at Wigan demanded an immediate advance of 15 per cent. in wages.

Rome, 17.—Alegro, near Breacia, burned yesterday. Thousands of persons are homeless.

Melbourne, 16.—The expedition under the auspices of the Argus newspaper to explore New Guinea, has returned, the fever attacking the party; one death.

Lisbon, 17.—Three thousand armed peasants assembled at Valencia, province of Vienna, and raised cry-for a republic. Severe fighting ensued. Several persons were wounded on both sides, and eventually the troops were compelled to retreat.
Reinforcements of cavalry and infantry were sent from Oporto.

Breslau, 17.—The cattle market is closed, owing to the outbreak of a plague among the cattle.

St. Petersburg, 17.—The English schooner Altoine was captured for trespassing upon the preserves of the American Alaska Commercial Company. The cargo of otter skins and hunting material was confiscated. The schooner was taken to Petropavlovsk. The crew of four Englishmen and fifteen Japanese was sent to Oladivostock.

Constantinople, 17.—It is reported that there was much damage to property and great loss of life caused by the earthquakes on the peninsula between Chios and Menor opposite Chios and Vourla on the southern coast of the Gulf of Smyrna.
All the villages in that region were destroyed. It is believed that upward of one thousand persons perished. The survivors of the disaster are suffering fearful privations. A complete panic prevails.

Paris, 16.—J. W. Mackay and Jas.
Gordon Bennett have signed a contract with Atlas Brothers for two trans-Atlantic cables. The first cable will open about June 1st.

LONDON, 17.—O'Donnell is indicted on the charge of the murder of Carey.

O'Donnell pleaded not guilty to the indictment for the murder of Carey. The trial is postponed to Nov. 1st.

Previous to Sullivan's application for postponement, O'Donnell was brought into court, and in response to a question of the Judge that the charge of murder was preferred against him, pleaded "not guilty," in a careless and indifferent manner.

Gen. Roger A. Pryor, O'Donnell's American counsel, was in court, seated behind the junior counsel's seat. He was the object of much attention on the part of the spectators.

Food of the best kind is daily sent to O'Donnell from a tavern adjacent to the prison.

Molnery, Irish lawyer, is coming to London to assist in the defense.

Leeds, 17.—Firth's amendment was rejected by a large majority, and the original motion that any measure for the extension of suffrage should confer the elective franchise upon women fit to vote, carried.

The latter motion was supported by Messrs Cobden and Bright.

Paris, 17.—A radical manifesto, signed by three members of the Senate and seven members of the Chamber of Deputies, including Clemenceau, Laisant and Tony Revelion, has been published in answer to Prime Minister Ferry's recent speeches urging the formulation of permission to electoral committees throughout the country to register all citizens desiring the organization of the republic by a vote on the democratic constitution.

Figaro publishes the narrative of a French officer, of the particulars of the massacre of natives at Hue by French sailors. The story relates that after the natives ceased to resist they were driven from the burning village unarmed, and then shot down in piles, Frenchmen afterwards murdering the wounded.

Of the signatures appended to the manifesto purporting to be issued by the radicals in answer to Premier Ferry's recent speech, seventeen have been proved to be forgeries.

Berlin, 17.—Von Moltke is seriously ill.

Vienna, 17.—The Emperor left Czgedin after a three days' visit, during which the greatest enthusiasm was shown for the Emperor, and a continuous festival given in his honor.

St. Petersburg, 17.—A Nihilist proclamation has been issued, proclaiming that the late Ivan Tourgenief was a Nihilist, an unpublished poem of the novelist being appended as proof of the assertion.

The Czar and Czarina to-morrow will lay the corner-stone of the church to be erected upon the spot where the Emperor Alexander II, was killed. The ceremonies will be imposing.

The trial of 63 members of the Nihilist Red Cross Society is concluded. All the members will be sent to Siberia. By many informers and others it was proved the society had many ramifications in every part of the Empire.

Constantinople, 17.—
The earthquakes destroyed six villages. Most of the houses collapsed at the first shock, burying their inmates. The people who escaped became panic stricken and sought the fields, where many are still huddled together in a starving condition, and suffering from cold. Help for the stricken people is going forward from Smyrna. The Porte has issued a notice stating that 20,000 persons are homeless, and pleading for immediate assistance. A government commission will start as soon as possible to aid the local officials. The report that 1,000 persons perished is confirmed.

CORK, 18.—Rough characters assemble nightly outside of the hall of Moody's meetings, but all attempts to interfere with the services are prevented by the police.

Paris, 18.—One hundred and fifty Anamite convicts erecting a light house on the island of Pealo Condor, mutilated and murdered a Frenchman, a native warden, and seriously injured another Frenchman. Sixty convicts seized arms and stores and escaped in boats, others fled to the woods and hills.

Constantinople, 18.—Among the villages destroyed by the earthquake in the Grecian Archipelago and Orotolia, were Katopanopa, Reis, Dere and Lidja; the last named celebrated for its baths. Slight shocks are still felt on the island of Chios. The British admiral sent assistance to Cheame and Chios.

St. Petersburg, 18.—A vast concourse of people assisted at the laying of the corner stone by the Czar and Czarina of the new Church to be erected over the spot where Alexander II was killed.

Kong Kong, 18.—China is actively preparing to close the port of Canton. Troops from the northern frontier of Tonquin were landed at Withampoa.
