JOINT BUILDING COMMITTEE.

Release on a Bill from the Western Temperance Central Company (Costly Records).

The joint building committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which certain was which for a short time. It was caused by members of Salvation Houses and Unions in voting against the payment of the balance due the Western Temperance Central company for a $[illegible] contract for painting in regulation, according to $[illegible]. While the committee—William [illegible] Christopherson—were [illegible] the [illegible] and there were many things that needed explanation, it was [illegible] company had failed to give to the contract.

This started some warm words between other members and [illegible] the legal opinion that it was [illegible] a [illegible] [illegible] J. W. Farrell [illegible] the work of [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] $[illegible] and [illegible] was [illegible] to a [illegible] committee [illegible] by the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
