A Once Wealthy Arizonian Reduced to Beggary Through Drink.

A PALACE OF BALED ALFALFA

Shooting Affray Near Rawlins, Wyo.—A Twelve-year-old Boy's Narrow Escape.—Troublesome Indians.

The town of Ore, a mile and a half from Leadville, Colo., was visited by a disastrous fire on Thursday morning. Five buildings were burned, destroying [illegible]

The Beaver creek country is being badly devastated by Indians, who come from the reservation in the region. They wantonly kill game and steal many horses and drive the cattle off the summer ranges.

The Alpine mine, Fairbird gold district, Eagle county, Colo., reports a strike of rich gold ore. In the same district six-eighths of the cave property has changed hands at the rate of $10,000 for the total.

Mr. John Austin Jr. has sustained a great loss by fire which consumed his wealth, a house and all its contents, to the amount of $1,500. The place took fire in the night when no one was at home. It is located in Wasatch county near Center Creek.

One of the marvels at the approaching fair at Rocky Ford, Colo., will be the state palace, constructed wholly of baled alfalfa and thatched with green alfalfa tops from the fields. It will be circular in form and of sufficient size to accommodate a splendid display of cereals, fruits and melons.

Peaches, plums, grapes, etc., are very plentiful around Ione, says a Bisbee correspondent of the Daily Graphic. Grapes are selling at from 2 to 3 cents per bucket for nice stuff. Figs are two cents a dozen. It has been a long time since prices were so low as at the present time.

The sugar factory beside at Lehi cave been busy draining the tank outside the building. It was filled with old syrup which could not be made into sugar but would make excellent alcohol or vinegar if distilled. This is one of the sources of revenue in the German factories.—Lehi Banner.

The ten-year-old son of Mrs. McPherson was killed at a ranch of William Kearns near Livingston, Montana, on Wednesday. He was assisting in loading hay and a horse which he was riding threw him and dragged him a distance of 100 yards. When picked up his skull was fractured and nearly every bone in his body was broken.

Business is breaking up at the canning factory at Lehi, says the Banner, and Mr. Keenan feels very pleased at his prospects for the future. He states that he is now sure of all the produce the factory can work up this season. He is getting large orders for pickles from outside parties who have heretofore been sending east for them but have found out that he puts up a better quality of goods than the eastern factories.

In the case of the North Center Ditch Co. vs. the Lehi Irrigation Co., the judge has set aside the injunction against the latter company and expressed himself that he can sustain the judgment of the former judge except that part relating to giving the North Center Ditch Co. part of the American Fork water. He also holds that the Lehi company had the right to change the water course.

Late on Wednesday night E. H. Winters, of the Bee Hive, the largest wholesale and dry goods establishment in Phoenix, Arizona, failed. Chattle mortgages aggregating $35,000 are with A. F. Hockaway, representing the Arizona National bank, as security. The parties in favor of whom the mortgages were made are the Arizona National bank, $5000; Levy, Strauss & Co., $7000; Philadelphia firm, $12,000, and several minor claims. The cause of the failure is said to be liability to take collections.

On Thursday, Joseph Coburn, an idiotic Arizonian, and well known from Denver to San Francisco, was committed to the insane asylum at Phoenix, Arizona. Coburn came to California in 1849 and to Arizona in 1866. Several times in his career he has been wealthy, and when owned the largest business in the territory, but drink and ill mismanagement brought him to extreme poverty, over which he brooded until he became demented. He is said to have a daughter who is the wife of a wealthy banker in Denver.

At Dixon, sixty miles south of Rawlins, Wyo., at 4:30 on Wednesday morning, George Downing, who was assisting C. F. Perkins to move a wagon load of goods which an execution had been served, shot and fatally wounded Deputy Sheriff Charles Scott, the ball taking effect in the intestines. Downing escaped. Perkins is under arrest. Sheriff Hansen hailed the team, asked who he was and then fired a shot and ordered Perkins to halt. Downing quickly turned and shot Scott. There is much excitement upon Snake river and there may yet be a lynching bee before the matter ends. Perkins is one of the oldest settlers and carries the largest stock of general merchandise on the river. He is well known in Colorado and Wyoming.

Jaime Talonia, a twelve year old son of James Talonia, narrowly escaped with his life the other day while working in the canyon, says the Davis county Clipper. Jaime and Seven Thomas (his brother) were sledding wood with their team down the back of the mountain summit, having just taken out three loads, were proceeding down the ravine after three more, Jaime driving the team in the lead and Jaime Talonia in the rear, while the middle team had no driver; when suddenly the middle team became frightened and ran into the head team, overturning over the cart and breaking the entangled in the harnesses of the other teams. When the teams jumped from the cart they knocked Jaime several rods out into the quakenasps, but fortunately did not break any bones or do him any injury, except bruising him up pretty badly.

WHY THE DESERET NEWS SHOULD BE SUBSCRIBED FOR IN PREFERENCE TO ANY OTHER PAPER.

1.—It is the organ of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the authorized medium through which the views, wishes and instructions of the Church Authorities are expressed and given to the Saints.

2.—It may always be relied upon as advocating or defending the right side of every question proper for public journals to treat upon.

3.—It is devoted to the interests of the Latter-day Saints, and has, from its inception, valiantly defended their rights and advocated the principles in which they believe, and every Latter-day Saint should therefore feel under obligations to do his part in helping to sustain it.

4.—It is not published for speculation, and never has been, but for the good which it is capable of accomplishing; the profits, if any there be, derived from it, being devoted to extending its sphere of usefulness and benefiting the community.

5.—It is doing its utmost to establish home industries, among which are paper making and type-founding, stereotyping and electrotyping—branches necessary to the development and independence of the community, but which, during their infancy (which in this Territory they have not yet passed), can only be carried on at a pecuniary loss.

6.—There is no danger of any subscriber to the News failing to get what he subscribes for through failure of the institution and a suspension of the publication—as much in the case of hundreds of newspaper ventures every year.

7.—It is printed in readable type, so that even the aged can peruse it without difficulty or danger to their eyesight.

8.—It is free from objectionable advertisements, so that we permit need fear that our children will have their minds corrupted from having access to it; in fact, it relinquishes hundreds of dollars worth of the best paying advertisements scrupulously, because it is devoted to the moral and spiritual interests of its readers instead of to getting gain at their expense.

9.—Its tone is not regulated by public opinion nor the hope of gaining subscribers or advertisements. It advocates that which is right and condemns that which is wrong, regardless of results, financial or otherwise.

10.—It never excuses its readers by palming off excuses of self-praise for their home.

11.—The News practices no deception and resorts to no subterfuge to induce people to subscribe; but on the contrary, prides is placed on its own merits, as the people's newspaper, with a promise only to do its utmost to give to patrons the full value of their money—a promise which it has endeavored to faithfully keep in the past.

12.—To conclude, if a Latter-day Saint can afford to subscribe for only one newspaper, that paper should be the Deseret News; and if more than one, the News should invariably be the first.
