AMUSEMENTS.

Opening of the Season at the Theatre.

"GLORIANA," "ALABAMA," "THE JUNIOR PARTNER."

A Fine Opening of the Season at Wonderland. — General Notes.

The thirty-first regular season of amusements at the Salt Lake Theatre opens next week, Friday, September 2, with the first presentation in this city of James Mortimer's farce-comedy "Gloriana." This will be followed by "Alabama" for three nights, commencing Monday, September 5, and "The Junior Partner" for three nights, and a matinee, commencing Thursday, September 8. These are all fine plays, making a brilliant inauguration of the season.

"GLORIANA"

is founded upon the French "La Tour d'Ambre," and is full of shared situations growing out of various complications. There is a laughing widow, and with her a jealous lover, and it follows naturally that there should be ample opportunity for the green-eyed monster to feed himself. The conclusion is precipitated by the widow's former admirer, now on the brink of matrimony with another, masquerading as his valet, the valet assuming the role as master, and is further complicated by a similar exchange of places on the part of the widow and her maid. The company is made up of good material, and the performance is one that can be looked upon with pleasure.

There are several actors and actresses whose work stands out with commanding prominence. Miss Hannah Cresmann, who is the widow in the case, Mrs. Lovering of "Gloriana," is said to be admirable in her treatment of the character. Frederick Bond, or Spinks, the valet, report says, is also entitled to special mention for the very excellent manner in which he performs his part; but the honors of the evening belong first to E. J. Henley, whose Count Ulrich is the blackest of the play. It is a character observantly conceived and explicitly, though grotesquely, set forth. The other people in this splendid organization are Charles B. Waller, Wm. Lefevre, Miss Margaret Robinson, and Miss May Robson, Louise Stevens, Thos. A. Wise, Wm. Bolton and others.

Sale of seats opens Wednesday, Auditor and Manager Barton has arranged to charge popular prices.

"ALABAMA."

"Alabama" is now on its second year through the country and its success is such as to promise even more triumphs than marked its former progress through the land. Even conservative critics have hailed "Alabama" as the best American play thus far written, and it has given Mr. Thomas an unchallenged position in the front rank of contemporaneous dramatists. It is conceded to be a good play almost perfectly acted. Because it is an American play, treating of American subjects, its characters, its atmosphere, its sentiments, its humor are all peculiarly American, and Mr. A. M. Palmer's admirable company of players are all Americans.

"THE JUNIOR PARTNER" was the great comedy success of New York's last season. The company is under the direction of Mr. Charles Frohman and is composed of the following artists:

Henry Miller, Hugo Toland, Thos. Kelly, F. R. Strong, Mrs. McKee Rankin, May Irwin, Emily Rigarter, and Pauline Hankin. Prior to the comedy Clyde Fitch's exquisite one act play "Frederic Lemaitre" will be presented, with Mr. Henry Miller in the title role.

INTERESTING LECTURES.

The directors of the Utah Normal College and Conservatory of Music announce the opening of the fall season with a series of three lectures by Mr. Edward Russell, to begin at the Conservatory house, Nesbitt's building, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. The subjects of the lectures are "The Teachings of Delsarte," "Dress," and "Home Decoration." Mr. Russell is recognized as a clever man, a brilliant artist and a delightful entertainer.

WONDERLAND.

The numerous patrons of this pleasant resort will be pleased to learn that it is again open there again on Thursday, September 1st, with one of the sharpest lists of attractions yet offered by the local management. We are told that Mr. Day has spared neither pains nor expense to make Wonderland an attractive place, and there can be no doubt of his success, in view of what was offered the public during the past season. The programme for the coming week will be found in another place in the paper, includes Miss Ida Fuller and other carefully selected artists.

NOTES.

Alex. Salvini and Manager Wilkinson have brought back from Europe an invoice of armor and costumes for the romantic plays of Salvini's present repertory and the sketches for the entire production of the new romantic play, "The Heir of Grammont," which he produces later in the season and which will be given its initial production in New York.

"Silver" Hennessy will wear a dress suit when performing his sale-showing act in "The Shamrock" this season. Heretofore Mr. Hennessy has materially cut on the same attired in the conventional habiliments of his sharp profession—a tan jacket and overalls.

"The Bridge" will inaugurate a two weeks' engagement at the New California Theatre, San Francisco, on Monday, August 29th. At the conclusion of its "Frisco" season it will be given in various places and then go East via Salt Lake and Denver.

The cast of "You Yonson" this season is said to surpass that of last year. "You Yonson" is said to be exporting large quantities of coin to the northwest.

"A Summer Match" will make its Quincy debut at the Grand Opera House on Sunday, August 28th.

FEDERATED TRADES' MEETING.

The Plumbers' Strike Remains Unsettled.—A Report on Cigars Offered.

There was a meeting of the Federated Trades last evening. President Gilmer occupied the chair. After the usual preliminary business had been disposed of, the strike committee reported that they were still at work trying to settle the differences between the plumbers and their employers and things were in better shape.

H. A. Becker was appointed to fill a vacancy on the arbitration committee, vice T. H. Garvin.

A communication from the American Federation of Labor enclosing a report on cigars manufactured by S. Ottenberg Brothers of New York was received. The letter stated that cigars under the Union Finish, Best Domestic and Gustavus, Hotel Hilton, New York Operator, G. J. Hongsberg, Great Good, Fidogal, Sensation, Galaxy. The committee then was discharged.

The scale of prices of the labels was referred to the arbitration committee.

The Labor Day committee reported progress and that there was every indication of a large representation on that day.
