G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Description of the Parade Continued: Loud Cheers for the South.

EX-PRESIDENT HAYES MAKES A SPEECH.

Forty Thousand Veterans Tramp Gaily Over the Line of March.

By Telegraph to the News.

THE GRAND ARMY.

A Proud Day in the History of the Organization.

DETROIT, August 4.—The Department of Colorado and Utah marched in twelfth by a massive drum corps. The department had about 100 men in line.

Four hundred veterans of Kansas, led by Department Commander Timothy McCarthy, represented the sunflower State, and each carried upon his breast the Kansas G. A. R. badge, bearing the figure of the destructive little insect.

Oregon was meagerly represented. Five hundred comrades from Kentucky were marshaled by Department Commander Hills. West Virginia mustered 300 strong to the general parade, and Department Commander David led the division.

Post Department Commander Haymond with Colonel C. B. Smith, one of the loaded lieutenants of the gallant Custer, were in the line.

South Dakota, though a small delegation, made a splendid showing and was cordially received. Washington and Alaska departments, most distant of all subordinate divisions, under command of Department Commander Hanna. The Lone Star State was represented by forty men, led by Department Commander Mann, the gallant commander of the famous Second Illinois Artillery.

On the Dallas[illegible] to the first rank a pair of Texas horns seven feet from tip to tip was emblematic of one of the products of the State.

The Dakotas in goodly number twelve women, bedecking United States Senator Sidney, Department Commander Spaford and Adjutant General Norton H. Chapin of Judge City.

THE SOUTH CHEERED.

A small body of veterans from Alabama, Georgia and Florida were loudly cheered. Naval veterans also were warmly received. Sons of Veterans 1000 strong, and in command of commander-in-chief L. J. Webb, brought up the rear of the division. The spectacle of an ex-president of the United States marching in the ranks was a unusual that the tremendous ovation that resulted. Hayes's reviewing was hardly a surprise. The cheers which swept along the line of march like huge hats slowly rising and waves, were indications of the presence of the distinguished ex-president. Mr. Hayes was recognized by all as he walked with his wife, from Fremont, Ohio, down Griswold street, and near the intersection of Congress street he bland several little children to step out of the line. The gentleman carried a palm-leaf fan and appeared to enjoy the occasion quite as much as his comrades of the past.

As New York swept around the corner with a splendid band and drum corps, and their arrest guards for escort, with their gleaming bayonets, their appearance was a signal for cheers, but the Continentals, with colonial hats and regimentals, led by Uncle Sam himself took the crowd, who cheered themselves hoarse. This unique band, with its odd looking costumes, and the three solid phalanxes bearing the old war colors of New York. The scream of the bagpipes of the twenty-ninth New York playing "The Campbells Are Coming," was heard from all points. Post Gheagarty rallied two battered regimental flags. Pennsylvania came with a dozen tattered flags with the titles of "Spottsylvania" and other names of fields rendered immortal by the terrible strife. A storm of applause saluted these battle-scarred relics.

Ex-President Hayes, accompanied by Col. R. S. Hooker and his commander-in-chief, wore a Hooker and Remedy. The first does did me so much good that I followed it up in 20 minutes with the second dose, and before the Doctor could get to where I was, I did not need him. This remedy shall always be one of the mainstays of my family." For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

THE NEXT NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT

of the G. A. R. will be held at Washington City. The justice of this selection may not be questioned by the partisans of Lincoln, Neb., but inquiry at the various department headquarters indicates that when the roll of States is called also the selection of the next encampment Washington will get the prize by a vote of nearly two to one.

The various candidates for commander-in-chief are pressing final claims with increased energy tonight. Charles P. Lincoln of Washington, D. C., Assistant Commissioner of Pensions, has withdrawn from the race. As it stands tonight, the choice is between Wheelock of Wisconsin, Pinsburg of California, Horr of Ohio and Hodges of New York. Wheelock's candidacy is the only one that is sharply defined as to states. The West, with the exception of the Pacific Coast is practically solid for his candidacy. The situation is complicated tonight by the sudden extravagant claims of Ohio for Horr and the rumor that Illinois may decide to present the name of ex-Governor Richard J. Oglesby for Commander-in-Chief.

The face problem still looms up ominously and the question on every lip now is, Can this dispute be settled by the assignment of colors and a serious disruption in the Southern division? Colored delegates from Louisiana will make a request tomorrow to present their side of the case in an address to the encampment.

Tonight was devoted to receptions to the commanders-in-chief of the G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans by the citizens of Detroit at Encampment Hall.

This has been a proud day in the history of the Grand Army of the Republic. It has witnessed the greatest parade in the history of the organization, and has made the twenty-fifth or "silver encampment" an occasion of magnificence and grandeur, surpassing the most sanguine anticipations of the humble founder, Dr. Stephenson of Illinois twenty-five years ago.

For six hours today, under the bright sun, 40,000 veterans tramped sturdily over the line of march, and such was the inspiration of the moment that even the neediest of the maimed and crippled comrades found themselves adequate to the ordeal of march.

A Batch of Indiscreet Newspapers.

NEW YORK, August 4.—The grand jury this afternoon handed up a batch of indictments against the editors and publishers of the New York City morning newspapers, except the Tribune, charging them with misdemeanor for publishing accounts of the execution of the murderers recently tilled at Sing Sing. The Tribune was the only paper found to have complied with the law. The indicted men will be summoned to give bail.

The Canadian Government Surrenders the Seized Vessels.

OTTAWA, August 4.—The Dominion government has decided to surrender the seven American fishing schooners recently seized by the Canadian cruiser "Dream" for fishing within the three mile limit, in violation of the treaty. Commander Golden reports that the offense was undoubtedly committed, but as a fog prevailed at the time, which rendered it possible that the law was infringed upon unwittingly. The government insisted upon the above course.

A Cherokee Chief Elected.

TAHLEQUAH, I. T., August 4.—J. B. Mayes was elected chief of the Cherokees on a close vote. It was an orderly election. Bushyhead, who was defeated for chief, asserts that Mayes purchased 500 votes to secure his election, and will call the attention of the United States government to the matter. Three tickets were in the field, and each elected some candidates to office.

From San Antonio.

AUS. HORNUNG, a well known manufacturer of boots and shoes at 307 Nolan Street, San Antonio, Texas, writes not soon forget his experience with an attack of the croup, which he relates as follows: "I was taken with a violent croup in the stomach, which I believe would have caused my death, had it not been for the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough, Croup and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose did me so much good that I followed it up in 20 minutes with the second dose, and before the Doctor could get to where I was, I did not need him. This remedy shall always be one of the mainstays of my family." For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Knights of Labor in Session.

LANSING, Mich., August 4.—The general state assembly of the Knights of Labor has been in session this afternoon and evening. One point of importance was the action on the recent greeting sent by the general secretary and treasurer of the order at Philadelphia, by which the assembly is earnestly requested to take independent political action. There was to have been an effort to induce the assembly to endorse the People's party platform, but adverse influence prevented this.

The assembly finally adopted a resolution endorsing the action of all industrial councils or conventions that have inaugurated work looking to a consolidation of all industrial people at the ballot box, trusting that the movement of industrial consolidation may culminate in the full emancipation of the masses from industrial slavery. Following this greeting is extended to the Farmers' Alliance, Patrons of Husbandry, Patrons of Industry, Grangers' Alliance and National Citizens' Industrial Alliance, promising support in all well-directed efforts for the advance of the cause of industrial reform.

Master Workman Allen said the circular sent by the general secretary and treasurer of the order was the first move toward a grand co-operation of all labor leaders throughout the country for the advance of industrial reform.

Money in Circulation.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—A statement has been prepared at the Treasury Department in regard to the amounts of money in circulation on the 1st of July 1891, 1890, 1889, 1880 and 1881, from which it appears that the assertion that there has been since the war a great reduction in the amount of money in circulation is without foundation. All the statements furnished are made upon precisely the same basis. The amount of each kind of money in the treasury and redeemed is given as the amount in circulation.

The amount of money in circulation on July 1, 1891 is about $1,600,000,000, and the amount per capita was $21.53. In 1890 there was $22,001,000 in circulation and the per capita was $23.62, while the 1st of January last the amount was nearly $1,619,000,000, with $24.10 as per capita circulation, the highest in the history of the United States.

Owing to the shipment of gold to foreign countries there has been a decrease since January 1, 1891, not only in the per capita amount, but in the aggregate circulation. On the 1st inst., notwithstanding the outflow of gold, there was about $1,600,000,000, and the amount per capita was $20.37.

The Failure of A. P. Stockwell.

NEW YORK, August 4.—The failure of A. P. Stockwell was announced on the Consolidated Exchange today. He had been allowed until 2:45 which to make contracts for the delivery of stock, but could not do it. The decline of Stockwell, at one time noted as the most daring and unfortunate speculator, caused much sympathy among people in Wall street.

Twenty years ago he came here from Cleveland, and his wealth is estimated at $1,000,000. He was at the head of the then Sonner Howe Sewing Machine company, a position he obtained through his marriage with the daughter of the well known inventor. For a long time he cut a big swath in Wall street affairs. He became President of the Pacific Mail Steamship company and Pacific Railway company. Then reverse came. Misfortune followed in quick succession until his fortune was swallowed up in the maelstrom of speculation.

The "Red Beans" Desperadoes.

HOUSTON, Tex., August 4.—A later report of the fight near Ia the afternoon of this was reported at the late down the road that "Red Beans" desperadoes were massacring women, children, and everyone they came across at the ranches. Leaving this, the desperadoes went up from along the line of the Galveston, Vernon and Shreveport road. In going up Mr. T. T. Swan, an old and respected citizen of Montague, was murdered from ambush. Excitement is running high, and more trouble is expected at any time.

The committee expressed the hope that Germany would be represented at the World's fair in a manner worthy of the occasion, and said he felt certain the friendly relations existing between the Germany and the United States would be further strengthened by such exhibit. Count Arnimmen Bittenwitz, delegate to the scientific congress of Germany, to take part in the Chicago fair has evoked the greatest satisfaction in the commercial circles. Bittenwitz then visited Chancellor von Caprivi, who warmly received them. Subsequently the committee held a conference with Herr Wermuth, German imperial commissioner to the Chicago fair.

DUTIES ON WOOL.

A Decision in the Controversy Between Woolgrowers and Carpet Manufacturers.

THE TERM "SORTING" DEFINED BY STATUTE.

Fraudulent Sorting of Wools Subjects the Merchandise to the Penal Duties Imposed.

By Telegraph to the News.

ABOUT WOOL.

What is Meant by "Sorting"—When Liable to Penal Duties.

NEW YORK, August 4.—The Board of General Appraisers today rendered an important decision on the construction of paragraph 188 of the new tariff act, which recently became the subject of controversy between the woolgrowers of Ohio and the carpet manufacturers of New England. The opinion is that the "sorting clause" referred to in paragraph 188 applies to all wools, including the third class. Sorting is here in effect defined by statute to be the process of separating, which increases the value the imported wool by the rejection of a part of the original fleece. The phrase "shall be taken for duty for which it (wool or hair) would be otherwise subjected" means that the duty on sorted wools (when separated otherwise than as to color and increased in value) shall be taken the duty to which the fleece in the unsorted condition shall be liable.

In "sorting" or manipulation of wools made with the intent to evade lawful duties it is fraud on the law and subjects the merchandise to the penal duties imposed.

The board reverses the collector's decision in both of the cases under consideration.

A Row in the Canadian Senate.

OTTAWA, August 4.—There was a big row in the senate today, when the Bas Des Chaleurs Railway bill came up. Council representing the estate of Mr. McFarlane, the contractor on the road, charged that out of $200,000 subsidy received from the Quebec government $100,000 was devoted to political purposes. He was willing to pay an additional $75,000 was given for some other purpose, but a bill to the committee cut him short.

It was decided to postpone final action on the bill, which has already passed the Commons, until the statement made by counsel has been investigated.

A Sugar War.

NEW YORK, August 4.—A bitter fight was begun today by the sugar trust against Claus Spreckels, who has been a thorn in the side of the sugar refiners on this coast for many years.

About two days ago the president of the sugar trust was called away from the city by the fatal illness of his father, F. C. Havemeyer. While he was away the sugar trust maintained the price for granulated sugar, but Claus Spreckels announced a reduction of 1-16c. per pound, cutting seriously into the trade of the sugar trust.

On Havemeyer's return yesterday he returned and at once entered the sugar trust price reduced 1-16c below the cut made by Spreckels. The same, today, he made another cut, bringing his price 1-16c below the price asked by the trust.

The reductions made bring the price for granulated sugar down to 4 cents per pound in Philadelphia, on which 2 per cent. is allowed off, making the net cash price 3 92-100 cents. The refiners on coasts, the price named by the trust is 4 1-16 cents.

In August, 1890, after the formation of the trust, sugar sold at 4 1-16 per pound. A curious feature of the fight is that in the raw sugar department both parties are urgent buyers, and the sugars brought today by the raw sugar at a 3-16 cents. This brings the profit of refining down to a very low price.
