The Fourteenth Infantry is Defeated by the Utah Nine—Latest Bulletins from the Seat of the Fray.

New York, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says:

Rear Admiral Dewey's seizure of Aguinaldo's steamers, has made the insurgents indignant, and their attitude is unpleasant.

Chinese and native thieves here are rampant, and the officers and civilians are constantly robbed.

A case of smallpox among the American troops is most alarming, being thought to be contagious. Only half-rations are being issued to the troops, and the Fourteenth regiment has been defeated by the Utah nine. Four companies of the South Dakota volunteers also lost from the Fourteenth nine. The game between the Nebraska and Colorado troops was called in 9 innings.

MOTHER'S INCREDIBLE CRIMES.

Kills Her Three Children Because She Did Not Want Them to Grow Up Wicked.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 21.—A dreadful tragedy occurred in the east end of the city tonight when Mrs. Mathews, wife of a Welsh-born mechanic, became complete and strangled her three children, aged 8, 6 and 11 years. The husband of the woman found all of them dead when he came home at about 7 o'clock. The deceased woman gave as a reason for her terrible deed that the children not want them to grow up wicked.

Strike Act in New York.

New York, Oct. 21.—Mary Matthews of Brooklyn, who killed her three children in Toronto, Canada, a few months ago, is a cousin of Mrs. Lizzie Borden, the famous hatchet murderess of Fall River, Mass. Mrs. Borden is now serving a life sentence for the murder of her father and mother, and it is said that the Toronto woman bears a striking resemblance to her cousin in the south.

Mrs. Matthews, who killed her three children, Jessie, aged 11 years, Thomas, aged 6 years, and Jessie, aged 8 years, in Toronto, Ont., last night, was married about 10 years ago to a Welsh-born mechanic, named Matthews, who is 40 years of age. The husband of the woman found all of them dead when he came home at about 7 o'clock last night
