THE MAYOR EXONERATED.

The Investigation Against Mayor Glasmann Condsidered a Farce.

CHICAGO RUNAWAY BOYS HELD.

Suit on Judgment — Wright Died of Natural Causes—Damage Suit Ended —Freight Officers Appointed.

The first opportunity that has been given J. J. Shepherd, the now becoming notorious reformed gambler, to substantiate his charges against the police department and city officials in general, charging them with failure to do their duty, was presented him yesterday afternoon at the city council chamber at a meeting called for that special purpose, but he "took water" like a little man and had nothing to say.

A special committee had been appointed consisting of Councilmen Carr, Chambers, Davidson, Emmett and Williams to make the investigation of the charges against the police. At 2:45 p. m. Mayor Glasmann took the chair and stated the purpose of the meeting.

Captain of Police Brown stated that he had asked Mr. Shepherd to be present at the meeting with his witnesses to prove the charges he had published in his sheet, "The Daily News."

Mr. Shepherd was present as were also a number of gamblers and citizens. Shepherd, when called upon to make good his charges, refused to do so; and when the mayor asked if anyone else present had any charges to make, all was quiet. The silence was broken by Councilman Williams stating that he as one of the police committee is perfectly satisfied with the work being done by the police department, who have worked unceasingly to keep down vice and crime, and their excellent work stands today as a creditable factor in our municipal government.

The whole affair yesterday afternoon was looked upon by all present as a farce, and many present were not at all backward in saying that Shepherd should be made to answer to the law for making charges against the police and then refusing to substantiate them.

The charges against Mayor Glasmann, made by Shepherd, will be investigated April 14, 1904, commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning.

SUIT ON JUDGMENT FOR $615.

A complaint was filed in the Second district court by Catherine Erickson, formerly Mrs. Homer Wright, against Diana F. Rich et al, to recover $615.40. The complaint alleges that April 10, 1896, a judgment was entered in the district court in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendants for $5,069.80. That there is still due on the said judgment $615.40 for which amount plaintiff prays judgment, together with interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from May 1, 1896, together with costs of suit.

RAN AWAY FROM HOME.

Three young boys, aged about 15, were taken in custody yesterday afternoon by Officer Hutchins as the Union Pacific passenger train arrived in this city from the east. The boys names are Fred Fehrman, Fred Sieling and William McCarthy. They were arrested on the request of their parents, who reside in Chicago. The boys had left home and were going west to see the country, but the parents learned of the numbers of their tickets and telegraphed the police here to arrest them, and hold until they can be taken home.

DIED OF NATURAL CAUSES.

The coroner's inquest over the remains of Ira A. Wright, who was found dead behind the Oak saloon yesterday morning, was completed late yesterday afternoon before Judge Howell and the following jury: James Cassin, O. P. McDowell and E. Stanley, who brought in a verdict that the deceased came to his death from natural causes.

The brother-in-law, who came to Ogden from Salt Lake, the home of the deceased, to arrange for the disposition of the body, has decided to ship the remains east for burial. His wife will accompany the remains to the place of interment.

SETTLED FOR $1,000.

The action brought by John Pingree, administrator of the estate of Dan Ninovich, deceased, against the Southern Pacific company to recover damages to the amount of $5,000 due for the alleged negligence of the defendant company, which caused the death of Ninoevich Feb. 17, 1904, has been settled by stipulation, the plaintiff accepting $1,000 in full settlement of his claim, and Judge Hart ordered judgment entered in his favor for that amount.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, April 88.—Forrest Bushnell, father of Walter Bushnell, one of the boys who was so badly burned by giant powder on Provo Bench, last Sunday, informs the "News" representative that an injstice has been done the boys, who were victims of the terrible accident by the statement that they entered an outbuilding of the Telluride Power company and took the powder which caused the accident. Mr. Bushnell states that the powder had been left in a hole, out on the open, by the power company's employes or by contractors for the company, and he feels that the persons who thus left the explosives are greatly to blame for their carelessness.

HE MAKES UP THE DEFICIT.

Ex Treasurer Pays Up—Superintendent Appointed—Horse to be Bought.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., April 6.—On Monday night the city council held a special session to hear and act upon the mayor's appointment of a superintendent for the municipal electric light plant. It was a foregone conclusion that Orson Smith would be nominated, and that he would be acceptable to a large majority of the council. A caucus of leading Republicans held Saturday agreed to support Mr. Smith, who is an enthusiastic partisan.

MADE UP THE DEFICIT.

Deputy State Auditor Squires has checked up the accounts at the clerk's and treasurer's offices, and ex-Treasurer S. W. Hendricks has paid up the shortage of $1,177.81 as shown by the report of the special auditing committee.

Logan, April 7.—The appointment of Orson Smith as superintendent of the city electric plant was confirmed by the council and his bond signed by J. W. Gayle and John H. Anderson approved. Mr. Smith will give the plant his entire attention and will, it thought, have the support of the people. He is a rustler and is in harmony with the mayor politically.

Ex-County Treasurer S. W. Hendricks, has paid the shortage of $1,177.81 to the county commissioners, and on the 6th inst., filed suit against A. M. Clayton and others to recover the shortage.

Mrs. Hannah Jacobsen, ex city treasurer, has filed a claim against the city for $1,000—for injuries sustained by her last winter in driving into a hole in the city grovel bank. The claim is regarded as unwaranted.

WESTERN MARKET LETTER

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Mo., Monday, April 4.—There was a liberal supply of fed Texas and western steers last week, most of which sold steady with the previous week at 3.80 to 4.20. Supply of western stockers and stock calves was large. There were some good ones among them which sold fully steady with previous week. Common ones were 10 to 15 cents lower. All kinds of she stuff sold steady and the good kinds were strong. Butcher grades of cattle have been selling better than any other kind for several weeks now. Cattle supply here was light today and market generally 10 cents higher. Not many western fed steers or cows or heifers were here. A fair run of stockers was again received, and prices strong to 10 cents higher. Two strings of Colorado light feeders, 965 pounds, sold 10 cents higher at 3.90 and 4.00. Colorado bulls, 1,271 pounds, sold at 3.05. Veal calves are scarce and bring 5.50 to 6.50 for the best.

Sheep prices did not change any to speak of last week. Run was small last of the week, and today, when 7,000 head arrived, packers were hungry for them, and took them without any haggling at 10 to 15 cents higher prices. W. Standard Meat & L. S. Co., Almena, Kan., sold seven doubles of 121 pound wethers at 5.30, which is 30 cents higher than any wethers have previously brought here. Lambs sold at 5.75, ewes the quotable at 4.60 for westerns, 4.85 for natives. Western yearlings sold at 5.25 today, and spring lambs have been selling past week at 12½ to 14 cents per pound in a small way.
