THE PIONEERS.

Sing out the hills, the jovial hills!
Echo back your joyful notes!
Let the floods, rejoicing, swell
The joy of Utah's Royal day!

All honor give the Pioneers,
Who, in the desert, made a home!
Who, through and over and beating down,
Where Death was easy and that simple they knew.

They sacrifice and offering
Let every mind, plain and clear,

Have hearts, New England's great sons,
Let every mind of love and fire,
And they who have seen Africa's
Let's Gold hearts by the sea.

Had heard a message, sent, sent!
The pioneers in the wilderness,
Let the Great's another choice Lot,
Let every heart celebrate.

What was the world, when once had heard
A Prophet's voice, that was alone
Is tonight, truth taken, short as song!

What was the world? In one week, exactly
Just thirteen old, why, those pioneers!
And it was seen in Great's work,
The [illegible] Gospel to [illegible].

Then Brigham Young, "Leave the mountains place
Your Prophet from a million years,
Your members for the coming days
Lo! Christ shall come and save the [illegible]."

Had heard a refuge in Nauvoo
Upon the Mississippi's stream,
Had seen a million rapid years
And three times from their promised land.

From homes they loved, with grease and
[illegible]
Leave the pioneer virgin soil,
Leave the plains across the [illegible]
Their Sol, with most will live in God.

The pioneer offered them a home,
The place neither chose to run,
Where they could live in Freedom's sunshine
Free liberty has there for ever!

Let thrill and prayer as thick and fast
Ascend each year the Will divine,
Let Mormon cried, "Mormon,
The valleys Saints West are thine!"

Has seen many their leader Brigham Young
Within four years the pearl of his eye,
Has saw the fire of [illegible] burning
Thousands of years that passed the sky.

Let forth inspiring songs they sang;
The most dear joy of every breast,
Of gratitude, praise and everlasting mind
A sense prophetic of the West.

What found their land? A land all strange,
A land of mystery and death,
Of land I know a land of change
Some that creation gave in birth.

Now and the desert changed by man,
A land supposed to be fruit and wealth,
Has Nature had poured his lore,
Has among the fair States of the south.

Has laid a sea, where before thick wave
Passed [illegible] a barren shore,
Has outlaws to slavery gave
A land and noble Republic.

Has down the lofty canyon, lo!
The Pioneers moved on their trials,
Among the mighty rocks
Form to unprecedented three years.

Their pilgrimage was over at last,
Their country's flag was hoist unfurled,
The people who as kings gave
They gave to progress and the world.

Has [illegible] their country, lived her years!
Has [illegible] their day—all honor son!
Has [illegible] and her cause,
Has pledged herself to the women and!

Their faith gave skill to Joseph's hand
To all the sets that people heaven,
Will call a Prophet, of the [illegible]
"The dawn of a brighter era to rise."

Their brotherhood is one of thrills,
Faith shown in works and Love in every
How will time to come, the Gospel on
The harvest ripen from day to day.

Their leaders and as children's feet
And saved from Revelation's word,
Good truth gave forth her treasures sweet
To make immortal, or by and.

Let brethren, sisters friend to one
Extend assistance on night,
For Christ their Hero was, the love done
For His they lived, in His they die.

For where God's inspiration can
A work will through the dulled here,
Your sin will be forgiven the last
Unless kingdom of the interlaying.

Let week' the call to [illegible] chosen
With progress of low be gone [illegible],
Let some [illegible] Prophet's
Endorsed by him, erected by hand!

SPECIAL TRAIN FIGURES.

Southern Pacific Wants Too Much Money to Bring Volunteers Home.

The Southern Pacific has submitted figures to Gen. Wells on the cost of a special train to bring the Utah volunteers from San Francisco to Salt Lake. The executive declined to make public the amount asked, but said it was so much of a bill as to be absolutely prohibitive, as others will now be made to secure a reduction, and unless the Southern Pacific agrees to make reasonable terms the much called of reception and welcome will be, it is feared, have to be abandoned. The idea of a special train was to bring the boys home in a body and have a day set apart for them and arrangements at the same time. Should the special train fail the committee will come to Salt Lake. The Governor and members of the committee are still hopeful however, of being able to get from the special train an accommodation fact.

MINING COMMISSION.

Will Commence Holding Sessions Here in About a Week from Now.

It is expected that in about a week you see the congressional commission which has been sent out to study the mining laws, commence its sessions here and will begin holding sessions in this city. Commissioner Hoi and wife are expected here in a month, and are not looking into the Dewey affair, and as soon as their trip is in Salt Lake, they will come to Salt Lake. The Governor and members of the commission are likely to hold a meeting in Kimberly, and it is anticipated that the mining camps will be visited.

IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Colonel Theodore L. Geisler of Battery B, A. S. C. Curtis, W. M. Clawson and Theodore Clayburn of Battery A have arrived at San Francisco on the steamer Indiana. It is to be remembered that Clayburn was wounded a few days ago on account of the death of his father. The others are on the sick list.

JAW FRACTURED.

This first the 8-year-old son of Peter Cassie was leading a horse to water yesterday, the animal playfully nipped about, striking his head into the well by accident. The boy was picked up in the fount. The boy was so stunned that the boy's jaw was fractured and dislocated. It has been fixed up by Dr. Wilson in hopes a close view in the child's mouth through which nourishment may be taken.

GAMES OF EASTERN LEAGUE

Sensational Game at St. Louis—Ball Players Arrested—Races at Calder's Park Today.

The game between the Ogden and the Park City teams, which was pulled off at the Junction life yesterday, resulted in a victory for the subjects of Rex II with a score of 21 to 12. The game opened up with some excitement in Beckwith the Ogden pitcher, evidently with the intention of coming back home, though. Beckwith stood his ground, but the Junction fielders dropped the Park City boys along to such an extent that by the time the end of the fourth inning was reached the score stood 11 to 2 in favor of the visitors. After this however, the Ogden boys pulled themselves together and won the game, which in the end resulted in a score of 14 to 12 in their favor.

International Sports.

London, July 23.—All the morning papers published editorials expressing congratulations upon the immense success of the athletic meeting at the queen's visit on Saturday and expressing the hope that it will not be the last of such events. All seem pleased at the members of the American team upon their splendid performances.

The Times says: "We think the minute had something to do with the result. It is easy to believe the runner that 'It is easy to believe the runner that record holder in the half-mile event running the half-mile for fun.'"

The Standard says: "Any hostility which may have once existed between the two parties has been slight by their ignorance of each other, and nothing is better calculated to remove it than such meetings as that of Saturday. Diplomacy and commerce create automatic quite as often as they are made them, while nothing but good is likely to result from the social intercourse which is now beginning between those to whom fame has given the leadership of the half-mile event running the half-mile for fun."

Dwelling on the defeat of the unidentified Harvs, the Daily Telegraph says it is only fair to admit that he was by no means in good trim.

UNCLE SAM'S QUIET LITTLE WAR UPON MOROCCO.

He Again Demands Indemnity for Insults and Gives the Sultan a Glimpse of a Modern Warship.

The sultan of Morocco is evidently compelled to admit that there is such a place as the United States. He was made emphatically aware of the fact a short time ago when he was compelled to pay $5,000 damages for insulting and badly injuring an American citizen. Now he has learned to see, and the government is after him again, this time in a large way.

The manner in which the affair will be adjusted if the sultan does not comply with the demand of the United States warship will be sent to the Bay of Tangier, and will remain there. The gunboat will be ordered upon Friday, the 28th of August, and will remain with barrels of powder and shot for about a week. Then the sultan's castle, gets out into the bay. Then, when the infuriated officials hear the little boat steam upon the deck of the warship and hide out the sulking coils, then, and not until then, will the United States ship show signs of retreat.

It was the western shore, on the south of the upon the Straits of Gibraltar and the Sandals.

Although situated thus in the very heart of the most impressive part of Africa, and separated from Spain only by a short journey, Morocco has been lightened as it was centuries ago. It has neither kept pace with the march of modern civilization nor with the world's social life. Travel seldom finds its way to Morocco, and when it does it is without the attention which is accorded to other countries. Tourists do not flee visitors.

Your correspondent set out for Morocco three months ago, intending to travel through the country and to write from the sultan's capital, Fez, to his subjects. Then, too, he a well learned to appreciate the Moroccan and pay a commensurate price. He could always, consequently, obtain the best of the best. Some time from the ports, this the Tangier, he found it very difficult to reach Fez. Horses, he thought, could be hired at Tangier.

On Saturday and on Sunday it is very uncertain, and, consequently, the capital of Morocco, the Mecca of the City of Morocco and Mecca, and the place to which all the Moslems go, and the place that they "was at." It was from Tangier, Tangier, Tangier, because the Moslems, Tangier, Tangier, Tangier
