

commission to Egypt, and through the Turkish ambassador to England has asked the Porte not to argue the matter.

An earthquake occurred in Northern Syria yesterday. Several villages near Aintah were destroyed. No loss of life is reported.

Paris, 6.—Duclerc has definitely resolved to reject the claims advanced by the Porte for the formal investiture of the new Bey of Tunis.

At the opening of the Chamber of Deputies, Duclerc will request a vote of confidence in the Ministry. If the vote proves adverse, the dissolution of the Chamber will follow.

Geneva, 6.—The Federal Council denies the truth of the reports that there exists in Switzerland any Anarchist Committees.

Berlin, 6.—General Schlivernitz, ambassador of the German Government to St. Petersburg, and General Warden, attaché of the legation there, have asked the Emperor to recall them on the ground that radical changes have taken place in Russia since the death of the last Czar.

Paris, 6.—Tirard, Minister of Finance, informed the budget committee that the accounts for the current year will be balanced without recourse to votes of credit.

It is reported that Russia is urging the Sultan to dispatch a fleet to Alexandria with a Turkish commissioner and vanguard, to form part of the Sudan expedition.

The mail train on the road from Cologne to Paris collided with a freight train this afternoon. Many passengers were injured; the Countess Somers seriously; none were killed.

The Memorial Diplomatique states that Earl Granville, British foreign secretary, sent a note to the Powers, reviving the assurance that England would abide by all her previous declarations regarding Egypt.

Vienna, 6.—The main points in the scheme for the reorganization of the Austrian army are the formation of 14 corps of equal power and number, to be recruited from the provinces.

LONDON, 8.—The Telegraph says: An Englishman can hardly contemplate with equanimity the probability that the next President of the United States will be a democrat. It is doubtful whether the changes the democrats will be certain to introduce in the American tariff will be of advantage to England and also worthy of the recollection of the democratic party, which was always deeply dyed in antagonism to England; still, whether the elections result in a republican or democratic victory, Englishmen may heartily wish their kinsmen deliverance from machine politics, which are fraught with menace to the best interests of America.

Another terrible hurricane occurred at Manila. The damage is heavy to vessels and houses, but no ships have suffered material injuries.

The Duke of Newcastle has sailed for America, and will make quite an extended tour.

Cairo, 8.—Lord Dufferin and the Khedive had a long interview to day. The guns of the citadel fired a salute in honor of the English ambassador.

The governor of Soudan telegraphed the Khedive denying that Khartoum is in imminent danger.

In a battle between the black troops and the false prophet there was most desperate fighting. The former lost 1,000 killed, while the false prophet suffered more severely. The black troops were not intimidated as stated in a special dispatch, but rallied and recharged. The Governor says he is able to hold Khartoum and will not surrender. Traders report that Obeid and Bara which were besieged by the false prophet have been relieved.

LONDON, 7.—A colliery explosion occurred at Clay Cross mines in Derbyshire, of which only meagre reports are received.

The explosion was terrific, buildings shattered at a distance of five miles. Exeter canal has broken its banks; the whole country in Cheshire, Warwickshire and Somersetshire is flooded.

The number of deaths now amount to 50.

The Archbishop of Canterbury is now convalescent. He has no idea of resigning the primacy.

Dispatches from Durban say: Two batteries of Transvaal Boers had an engagement with Mapoch, the Kafir chief, who defeated the Boers. Mapoch feigned retreat and led them into an ambush, killing 300.

Paris, 7.—A French expedition is preparing to occupy a part of Madagascar.

Vienna, 7.—A meeting of 3,000 workmen was held to-day at which a resolution was passed protesting against Sunday work. It also passed a resolution in favor of the legal prohibition of newspaper or other work on Sundays.

Vienna, 7.—A large meeting of shoemakers and other workmen was held at New Bau suburb in this city to-day. The police interfered and dispersed the meeting. The mob then stormed and destroyed the police station, and during the collision twenty workmen and a number of police were injured. Many arrests were made after the troops, who were summoned, had restored order.

Cairo, 7.—Borelli Bey and Padoa Bey, associate counsel in the prosecution of Arabi Bey, have made a request of the Khedive that they be allowed to retire from the case, giving as a reason that the method of the trial being pursued is adopted under English pressure, and it is a violation of the law of Egypt to transfer the trial from a court of law into the domain of politics. Witnesses attached to the court of the Sultan and who have been cited by the defense to appear in Arabi's trial, and give evidence in his favor, refuse to obey the summons. It is evident they have assurances of some nature which sustain them in thus resisting the process of the court.

LYONS, 9.—The Socialists held a meeting last night at which Madam Paul Minck presided. The reporters of the daily press, who had front seats, and were intending to furnish full reports, were expelled by the members of the secret organization, and the police attempting to interfere to prevent trouble were pelted with mud and hustled about amid cries of "Long live Social Revolution." After the speeches ended the meeting was broken up in great disorder.

Dublin, 9.—Richard Lalor, home rule member of the Commons from Queens Co Island has announced his resignation. It is reported that the under secretaryship has been offered to O. Conner. The Freeman's Journal in an article protesting against proffering the freedom of Dublin to general Wolseley on his return to this city, asserts that Wolseley, when about to start for Egypt, declared that the only alloy to his pleasure over the prospect of his expedition was the fear that the Irish people might take advantage of his absence to rise and he could not be there to suppress them. During the pendency of a discussion of the coercion bill too, says the Journal, he expressed a hope that if the Irish should revolt, he might be sent to Ireland to suppress them and teach them what war meant.

London, 9.—The Queen will review the Indian troops at Windsor Castle and decorate some of the chosen of the force for conspicuous bravery in the Egyptian war.

Gaspe, Quebec, 6.—It is reported the steamship Aragona went aground off Fox Bay, Anticosti, on the night off the 3rd inst., about a mile from shore. They were throwing railway iron overboard, they had little hope of getting her off. No news since.
