MUNICIPAL MATTERS

Councilman Watson's Vacant Chair Appropriately Draped.

H. T. LLOYD TO SUCCEED HIM.

Catch-Basin Resolution Killed — Communication of Thanks from Governor-elect Wells.

Bedecked with crape in memory of the departed councilman—J. M. Watson—was the condition in which the chair made vacant by his sudden calling away, was found at the council meeting last night. Upon a resolution offered by Councilman Morris, and passed, authorizing the president to name a committee of three to draft suitable resolutions of respect on the death of their late colleague, Clawson, Morris and Cohn were named as that committee. Other business was transacted as follows:

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS.

Joseph Smith and Jason Bailey petitioned for free peddler's licenses. Granted.

Miller and Watson asked that the city take all the material taken from the Brigham Young Trust company excavation on First South between East and West Temple, and pay therefor the usual price. Street committee.

The Brigham Young Trust company petitioned for, and was granted permission, to pile building material in front of 51 to 59 west First South for a period of 100 days.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS.

The waterworks committee reported adversely on the petition of Dr. H. Hogues asking for an extension of watermains to Floral avenue. Adopted.

The board of public works informed the Council that the contracts for the construction of a sewer along First South, and for the constructing of detached sections of pipe sewer, to connect with the gravity sewer, had been let to Frank Harrigan for $5,125.13. Approved.

The fire and police board gave notice of the increase made in Clerk Felt's salary on July 1, from $35 to $50 per month. Approved.

FROM GOVERNOR-ELECT WELLS.

The following communication of thanks from Governor-elect Wells was read to the Council and filed:

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 17, 1895.

G. H. Bachman, Esq., City Recorder:

Dear Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 14th inst., transmitting copy of resolutions adopted by the City Council of Salt Lake City, December 10, 1895, tendering to the first Legislature of the State of Utah, the use of the City Council chamber for the house and the hall on the third floor of the joint city and county building for the House of Representatives.

Permit me to convey to the City Council, through you, my appreciation of the courtesy and public spirit which prompted this tender, and to express in advance to the City Council the thanks of the Legislature, which, I am sure, the members will take pleasure in confirming at their session soon to convene.

I also note the further resolution of the City Council providing for a conference between the joint city and county building committee and the executive-elect with reference to quarters in the building for the State officers, and in pursuance of same have accepted an invitation to meet his honor, the Mayor, and Policeman Geddes on Thursday next for inspection of the premises.

NO, YOU DON'T.

The county court of Davis submitted a communication informing the Council of their refusal to permit the construction of a ditch either open or otherwise, to convey the sewage in the Jordan river, or other outlet.

H. T. LLOYD ELECTED.

Councilman Morris at this point arose and placed in nomination, to take the place of the late Councilman Watson, H. T. Lloyd, from the Third precinct. McCornick, Lynn and Clawson opposed filling the vacancy, but a vote was taken and Mr. Lloyd was declared elected.

CATCH-BASIN RESOLUTION.

Clawson offered the following resolution, which precipitated a lively discussion and was finally lost:

Resolved, That the board of public works be and they are hereby instructed to at once advertise for bids for the work of replacing catch-basins on Main street with covered manhole similar to those now in use on West Temple street, the work to be done as early in the spring as the weather will permit.

FAREWELL, COLLEAGUES.

Councilman Clawson, in a neat and well-received speech, asked to be excused from attending further sessions of the Council, as he intended to leave town and would not return until after his term had expired. "During my incumbency," said he, "although at times we have not agreed on certain subjects, I have formed some of the most pleasant acquaintances of my life, and I leave with nothing but the best of wishes to one and all of my colleagues."

Mr. Clawson was excused.

Council then adjourned until next Monday evening, owing to Tuesday night being Christmas eve.

THE INDIAN RESERVATIONS.

The Chamber of Commerce Adopts Resolutions Asking that they Be Opened as Promised.

The Chamber of Commerce directors held a meeting last night at which some accumulated business was disposed of and at which the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, an act of Congress approved August 15, 1894, directed the appointment of a commission to allot lands in severalty to the Uncompahgre Utes to open the reservation to settlement and to negotiate with the Uintah Utes for the relinquishment of their title to the Uintah reservation; and

Whereas, such commission, appointed in December, 1894, has allotted no lands in severalty to the Uncompahgre and negotiated no treaty with the Uintah Utes; and

Whereas, Major James F. Randlett, acting Indian agent at the Uintah and Ouray agency, by special report to the interior department, dated December 8, and December 12, 1894, has expressed his hostility to the above mentioned act of Congress, and his opposition to its execution, and indicated a determination to defeat the same; and,

Whereas, it is learned from trustworthy sources from the Uintah Utes now refuse to enter into any negotiations looking to the relinquishment of their title to the reservation, and there is good reason to believe such refusal is due largely, if not wholly, to the hostile influence of the acting Indian agent; therefore be it

Resolved, by the board of directors of the Salt Lake chamber of commerce, that we most respectfully express to the honorable secretary of the interior our hope and desire that such action be taken by him as will, in his judgment, remove the obstacles to the opening of those rich agricultural, timber and mineral lands now lying idle, and which are not now and never will be of use to the Indians, but restored to the public domain, thus providing homes and profitable occupation for thousands of citizens and promoting the development of manifold resources.

NEWS FROM MOAB.

Little Boy Drowned in a Mudhole—Building Progress—Notes on Tree Pruning.

MOAB, Grand Co., Utah, December 13, 1895.

To the Editor:

Our place was called to mourn the untimely death of a little son of John Faugran, who was drowned yesterday by falling into a hole that had been dug close to the house for making mud for building purposes and had been filled with water. All was done that was possible to save the little one, but the water was so cold that it chilled the life out of the child. The body was not in the water long, but when recovered, life was gone.

We are having a good deal of building done here for a small place and considering the hard times. Pioneer Maxwell and his wife have built a fine hotel and will open it in a few days. Norman Taylor has built a large store with glass front. Dr. Davis adjoins him with a drug store with glass front, which was to have been a store but is a saloon, of which we can boast of two in our town. Neal is a building under construction two with a close front; then a large dance hall, which they are trying to have ready for the holidays. Arthur Taylor has a large brick residence; also C. H. Brown and Chris. Taylor; besides these there have been several small residences built here lately. Weather has been colder than usual for this time of the year; the thermometer has been down to within ten degrees of zero.

Stock on some of the ranges is looking well. Taylors have lost some in with a herd of beef off the range, where it was wintered last winter.

Now is a good time to prune orchards and grapes. Do not wait until spring, when you will be crowded with work and will not have time to do it, as it should be done. Cut away half of the tops; by commencing at the top do not think you are cutting off fruit because there are fruit buds after half of the tops are cut off. Close the fruit will need thinning if not thinned by frost. Raise good fruit and get a good price; it is better than to have a large crop and no market for it; there is always a market for anything that is firm while there is no market for inferior produce.

The trouble with a great many horticulturists is that they try to grow too much fruit on a tree. In thinning fruit when small, it will look as if there would not be any fruit, but when grown it will be so large that there will be almost as much in weight and the flavor will be so much superior to fruit which has grown on a tree where there has been too much left.

Now take a red apple; if a tree has too many apples on it they will not be a bright red; where as if they had been thinned out properly they would have been a bright red and larger and finer flavored, and would bring twice as much a box in the market. It is the same with everything in the animal kingdom—the better the feed, the better the offspring.

O. W. WARNER.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A proper use of this medicine has often averted long and fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents a bottle. Z. C. M. I. drug department.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Z. C. M. I. drug department. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Again to the Front.

Utah can compete with the world in products of all kinds. Thirty of the finest neat steers that ever found their way into any city, were delivered yesterday to Dickinson & Marriott of the Palace meat market, to be used for their Christmas display, by Mr. J. S. Pack of Alpine city, who has had them on feed for the last six months for the occasion. Corn and wheat has been their daily fare for that length of time, and patrons of that popular firm will get the most succulent meals to be found anywhere in the land.

Davis County also furnished them with choice wheated pork, hence the reason why their lard and pork sausages are the finest and most delicious in the city.

The many and valuable gifts they will distribute to their patrons on Xmas eve, will also be on exhibition.

Do not fail to visit a display that for beauty and choice of meats cannot be surpassed, not alone in our city, but in any other town even larger than ours.

A BIG UNDERTAKING
Is in this case altogether too big, as the turkey can't hatch out the egg. You can't hatch live, either, on your grocery. It always pays to have the best late. An attack of dyspepsia is very apt to follow eating cheap food. Knowledge of the market enables us to buy to advantage and our policy of quick sales and small profits, puts us in a position to offer low prices for high class goods.

We will as we buy, close. Our customers are money takers and good livers. There's a turkey flavor in these figures: Turkeys, geese, ducks and all kinds of game for 10c a pound.

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the ten mile road race, in which McConahey finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. The time, the track cars, Joe Beck taking second in this event. Fowler first, Walker second, and Thatcher third in the mile scratch, class B, all "Ramblers" you understand. In the half mile class A, Mr. Beck second, Carter third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a man in a yellow suit got lost and fell. Chamberlain and Walker being immediately behind him, the result was a spill for these parties and Beck came in to Evans. The five mile, class A, was another Rambler event, Clay taking first, Joe Beck second and McConahey third. Fourteen prizes in one day is pretty enough for any one.

People may laugh and people may cry,
And they may try and try and try,
But Rambler's win races wherever they go,
Regardless of how cranks rail.

Moral—Buy a Rambler. Ride a Rambler and you'll be a winner.
